Unreasonably Tough.
Grimstead, who was a foreman in a New England factory, was visited one day by an old friend from the west "Old man," said his friend, "how long have you been working in this mill?" "Nearly thirty-five years," he answered. "Isn't it customary in establishments of this kind, when a man has been in its employ as long as you have, to retire him on a regular stipend—a sort of honorarium, as it were?" "To put him on the pension list, do you mean?" "Yes, if that's what you call it." "Well, yes, it is." "When do you suppose they'll retire you?" "I suppose they'd do it any time they thought I wanted to be retired," said the old foreman, shaking his head with profound sadness, "but I don't want to quit so long as I'm still capable of doing my work." "I've been keeping tab on myself, and the misery of it is, Wigfall, that I haven't begun to let up the least bit. I'm just as good as ever!"—Youth's Companion.

Learned How to Pack Trunk.
"I have the man who came for my trunk to thank for one thing," said a woman; "hereafter I think closing my trunk will have less terror for me. You see, I always seem to have it so crowded that it requires the combined weight of several members of the household to close that cover. Well, the other day, when it was time to take my trunk to the station, there were three of us, trying to get that trunk closed and locked. Finally, in sheer despair, I looked at the man who was patiently waiting, and in a most appealing way, invited him to sit down upon that trunk to see if he could close it. Did he do as I suggested? No—something better. He calmly lifted up the top of the trunk took out the top tray and fitted it in the top of the cover; presto, that cover, with the top tray inside, went down as nicely as could be. I am not trying to explain why it did, but I know that it did. And, like a missionary, I am passing the idea along."

No Pirate Gold.
Johnny McDermott, the 14-year-old son of a Long Island farmer, had been hearing of Capt. Kidd's buried gold ever since he could remember. In digging a woodchuck out of his hole a few days ago he came across an iron-bound box. He thought he had found a golden treasure for sure, but after lugging it home and breaking it open the contents turned out to be rusty knives, forks and spoons that some robber had buried. All were too badly eaten with rust to be of any good.

Alone in Saw Mill at Midnight.
unmindful of dampness, drafts, storm or cold, W. J. Atkins worked as Night Watchman, at Banner Springs, Tenn. Such exposure gave him a severe cold that settled on his lungs. At last he had to give up work. He tried many remedies but all failed till he used Dr. King's New Discovery. "After using one bottle," he writes, "I went back to work as well as ever." Severe Colds, stubborn Coughs, inflamed throats and sore lungs, Hemorrhages, Croup and Whooping Cough get quick relief and prompt cure from this glorious medicine. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free, guaranteed by The Modern Pharmacy.

A Word to the Wise

IT'S well enough to buy trinkets and toys and the likes o' that, but—could Santa Clause give any presents that would be more suitable or more highly appreciated than any of the following:

SWEATER COATS, VESTS, SCARFS,
GLOVES, SHAWLS, MUFFLERS, SOX,
BOYS SWEATERS, BABY JACKETS and HOODS, or in fact a nice change of UNIONS

Do you expect to send your mother, sweetheart, or friend, a Christmas present this year? If so, and you find occasion to patronize some express company, it would be well to bear in mind the following suggestions submitted by an expressman:

First—Ship your package early, by the 15th or 18th of December if possible. The express company will give you a small label to paste on the package, reading: "Don't open until Christmas," this will insure the package reaching its destination before Christmas and give the additional pleasure to the recipient of the gift of having it on Christmas morning.

Second—Use wooden boxes for packing. This is specially important for glass or other fragile articles which should be carefully packed and protected. It may cost a few cents more, but the danger of loss or damage is very much reduced.

Third—Write the address in full, state, county, city, street and number, on the box or package with ink or crayon. Tags are frequently torn off and lost. True, if the shipment is lost the express company will pay for it but that will give your friend no pleasure.

Fourth—If you want to prepay the charges, write the word "paid" in large plain letters on the package.

Fifth—Insist on a receipt, and see that the amount paid is marked on the receipt and package, and the value of the package declared thereon.

Sixth—Write your own address in full somewhere on the package following the prefix "From....."

Seventh—If not convenient to ship in wooden boxes, use strong wrapping paper (not newspaper), and tie with strong cord.

Eighth—If package contains anything of perishable nature, write the word "Perishables" in large plain letters on the box or package, to insure special attention and first delivery.

If you will observe these suggestions, you will greatly assist in insuring the prompt delivery of your gift in good condition.

India Women's Fine Jewelry.

"It is a rare thing to see the women of India these days wearing any valuable gold jewelry, as they did in years gone by," said Charles Gawtreys of Bombay.

"When I first went to the Orient the women of the upper class commonly owned and wore thick chains and bracelets of the finest gold and of exquisite workmanship. In these times of pinching poverty they are too reduced financially to possess any expensive ornaments and instead of the gold trinkets of their affluent days they would have formerly despised. It is pitiable to witness, as I have, the decline in the fortunes of the people. Abject poverty is seen everywhere, and the gaunt specter of starvation is ever at the side of millions of human beings in that ill-fated land."

Official Standing of Kiss.

Homer describes how the servants of the noble Odysseus kissed his head, shoulders and hands, and he also states with his usual exactness, which class of servants was entitled to do homage in this manner and which class had to be satisfied with a handshake. Thus in Rome it was customary to kiss the head, the hands, the ankles or the feet of prominent men, according to the rank of those who saluted. In the beginning of the imperial era a prominent Roman could not appear in public but that he was almost devoured by his admirers. Diocletian introduced the kiss of honor, which was given by the emperor for particular merits in the public welfare, just as decorations are given to-day.

Tied in a Knot describes the way your muscles feel when they're cramped or when you've been over exercising. Ballard's Snow Liniment takes the kinks out of sore or cramped muscles and relieves all aches and pains. Buy a bottle to-day and learn what it is to be free from bodily ailments. Sold by Modern Pharmacy.

Act Singly.

Fear never but you shall be consistent in whatever variety of actions, so they each be honest and natural in their hour. For of one will, the actions will be harmonious, however unlike they seem. These varieties are lost sight of when seen at a little distance, at a little height of thought. One tendency unites them all. The voyage of the best ship is a zigzag line of a hundred tacks. This is only microscopic criticism. See the line from a sufficient distance, and it straightens itself to the average tendency. Your genuine action will explain itself and will explain your other genuine actions. Your conformity explains nothing. Act singly and what you have already done will justify you now.—Ralph Waldo Emerson.

Rich Men's Gifts Are Poor

beside this: "I want to go on record as saying that I regard Electric Bitters as one of the greatest gifts that God has made to woman, writes Mrs. O. Rhinevault, of Vestal Center, N. Y. "I can never forget what it has done for me." This glorious medicine gives a woman buoyant spirits, vigor of body and jubilant health. It quickly cures Nervousness, Sleeplessness, Melancholy, Headache, Backache, Fainting and Dizzy Spells; soon builds up the weak, ailing and sickly. Try them, 50c. at Modern Pharmacy.
