

IDAHO STATE NEWS

Four new livestock barns, costing $5400, and 200 feet of bleachers costing $2000, will be built at the state fair grounds.

June 11 has been named as commencement day for Gooding college, and the summer school will begin the following Monday.

In Madison county efforts are being made to get the minimum for all teachers in both rural and town schools fixed at $100 a month.

Saving $7000 monthly in one state department is among the first fruits of the cabinet form of state government recently launched in Idaho.

Caldwell citizens approved the bond issue for paving 33 blocks of more frequented residential district streets, by a vote of 520 for the issue and an opposing vote of 130.

At a rodent control demonstration conducted on a farm at Melba by W. E. Crouch, state rodent control expert, practically every squirrel on the place succumbed to the poisoned oats.

A clubhouse of big proportions is the plan of individuals residing in the towns of the south fork of the Snake river. The plan is to establish a summer camp either on the south fork or at the Palisade lakes.

E. B. Hitchcock, extension soil specialist, who recently planted 200 young prune and apple trees on the state experiment farm at Caldwell, has fenced rabbits away from the trees by enclosing each with a piece of fly screen.

A rousing welcome was given to four overseas heroes who arrived at Salmon last week, returning after nearly eighteen months of service in France, where they gave a good account of themselves in numerous strenuous campaigns.

Salaries paid teachers in the public schools of Idaho are being increased, according to Miss Ethel E. Redfield, state superintendent of public instruction, who is compiling data showing how much each town and county pays for instructors.

That the Caldwell Traction company has not provided sufficient trackage at Wilder and Greenleaf for the accommodation of the enormous crops which will be produced in that section this fall, was the subject of a complaint filed last week.

Means of saving the bass which are being lost each year in the meadows of Washington below Hauser lake in Idaho, are being sought by Otto M. Jones, state game warden, who met officials of the Washington state game department in conference last week.

Because of congested condition of the Nampa schools during the present year and a probable increase in the number of children who are enrolled in the graded buildings, the Nampa school board has authorized the construction of three temporary frame buildings.

The Idaho delegation which attended the St. Louis caucus of the American Legion, at which was represented every state and territory, has announced that, pursuant to authority from the national chairman, H. D. Lindsey, the state convention for Idaho will be held at Boise on June 25.

Preliminary steps have been taken at Blackfoot toward the biggest single public improvement undertaken by that city in several years. It is the creation of an improvement district by which about sixty-five blocks of city streets will be paved at an estimated cost of $150,000.

At a recent meeting of the city council measures were adopted to remodel the Nampa fire department station and make it modern. The building was constructed for the days when horses were used with the department and has never been remodeled to meet the gasoline equipment requirements.

The attorney general of Idaho has interpreted the law passed by the last legislature, appropriating $1000 to each county in the state for the erection of a soldier's memorial, to mean that the memorial must be uniform in every county, according to the design devised by the commission provided by the act.

Announcement has been made by the officials of the Wilson Orchard company, who own 470 acres of young trees on Eagle Heights north of Nampa, of their intention to greatly increase the packing and storage facilities of their plant to handle the 100 per cent fruit crop which the tract will produce this season.

While the Idaho fight against increasing the differential was successful, the efforts to retain the southern markets to Idaho shippers is not entirely won, for the railroad administration purposes to increase the rates on potatoes, as well as other commodities, and the shippers and commission are bitterly opposed to the act.

An increase of 50 cents a day, from $4.25 to $4.75, became effective in mines of the Coeur d'Alenes district on May 20, according to bulletins posted in the principal mines.

The Oregon Short Line has inaugurated mixed train service on the Yellowstone branch, and the schedule includes a mixed passenger and freight train each Sunday until June 15, when the regular Salt Lake-Yellowstone special will be put on.

That inmates of the Idaho penitentiary should be given greater consideration and extended a helping hand rather than condemned at every turn, is the opinion of Judge Charles P. McCarthy of the Third judicial district court, as expressed in an address given at Boise last week.

SAFE, GENTLE REMEDY BRINGS SURE RELIEF

For 200 years GOLD MEDAL Haarlum Oil has enabled suffering humanity to withstand attacks of kidney, liver, bladder and stomach troubles and all diseases connected with the urinary organs, and to build up and restore to health organs weakened by disease. These most important organs must be watched, because they filter and purify the blood; unless they do their work you are doomed.

You need. Take three or four every day. The healing oil soaks into the cells and lining of the kidneys and drives out the poisons. New life and health will surely follow. When your normal vigor has been restored continue treatment for a while to keep yourself in condition and prevent a return of the disease.

BLIND MAN POULTRY FANCIER

Misourian Has Made Success of the Work, Despite Handicap Which Would Seem Insurmountable.

Blind Edward Jones of Jefferson City, Mo., has made a record in keeping poultry which many who have eyes have not equaled. Moving among his birds, which seem to understand how he is handicapped, and guided only by his sense of touch, he performs his daily work. He has built his own poultry house and brood coops, and has hatched and raised all his chicks. Blindness does not prevent him from culling his flock. The birds not intended to be kept are marketed as broilers, and the others are kept for the production of winter eggs.

Mr. Jones attended every poultry meeting held in his section last fall. He is now trying to organize a poultry club for blind people, and the home demonstration agent in the county has volunteered to read to the members the publications on poultry sent from the United States department of agriculture.

The Pleasures of Travel.

"Wa-al-p'tu—no," said the ancient Arkansawyer, "I hain't never did much of what you'd call traveling. I was 97 years old last grass; born and raised right here in Shagbark township, and hain't been outside of the county but once. That was when I was about 30 years old. I went over to Torpidville, and they just nacherly took and started to lynch me the minute I got to town, for something or nuther, I never did find out what. One foot was already in the air and the other barely touching the ground when some feller came running and hollered that they were making a mistake—I wasn't the guilty party a-tall. As soon as they turned me loose I lit out for home as the crow flies, and I hain't done no traveling to speak of since. I always figured that on the next occasion the feller that knowed it was a mistake might not get there in time to do me any good."—Judge.

If You Need a Medicine You Should Have the Best

Have you ever stopped to reason why it is that so many products that are extensively advertised, all at once drop out of sight and are soon forgotten? The reason is plain—the article did not fulfill the promises of the manufacturer. This applies more particularly to a medicine. A medicinal preparation that has real curative value almost sells itself, as like an endless chain system the remedy is recommended by those who have benefited, to those who are in need of it. A prominent druggist says "Take for example Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, a preparation I have sold for many years and never hesitate to recommend, for in almost every case it shows excellent results, as many of my customers testify. No other kidney remedy has so large a sale."

According to sworn statements and verified testimony of thousands who have used the preparation, the success of Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root is due to the fact, so many people claim, that it fulfills almost every wish in overcoming kidney, liver and bladder ailments; corrects urinary troubles and neutralizes the uric acid which causes rheumatism. You may receive a sample bottle of Swamp-Root by Parcel Post. Address Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., and enclose ten cents; also mention this paper. Large and medium size bottles for sale at all drug stores.—Adv.

Warblers All Kinds.

Not taking into account the human beings who are sometimes referred to as warblers, you will find on looking into the bird book that there are many kinds of warblers ranging alphabetically all the way from bay-breasted warblers to yellow-rumped warblers, says the American Forestry association, Washington, which is conducting the national bird-house building contest. If you had a collection of them all together they would take in about all the colors of the rainbow, yellow, orange, chestnut, black, white, green, gray, brown and other colors with numerous shades entering into their beautiful plumage.

Dubious Indignation.

An American motorist, stopped by a Scotch constable for speeding, hinted broadly that he might pay to be let off.
"What, sir?" cried the constable.
"Dae ye suggest that I wid take a bribe? Dae ye dare to insult me, sir?"
"Oh, excuse me," said the American. "I really—"
"But, now," put in the constable, "supposin' I was that kin' o' a man, how much wid ye be inclined to gie?"

BRACE UP!

The man or woman with weak kidneys is half crippled. A lame, stiff back, with its constant, dull ache and sharp, shooting twinges, makes the simplest task a burden. Headaches, dizzy spells, urinary disorders and an "all worn out" feeling are daily sources of distress. Don't neglect kidney weakness and risk gravel, dropsy or Bright's disease. Get a box of Doan's Kidney Pills today. They have helped people the world over.

An Idaho Case

Mrs. J. W. Webster, 6510 Eighth St., Lewiston, Idaho, says: "I had trouble from my kidneys, of a dropical nature. Mornings my hands were swollen so badly I could hardly close them, and my feet were swollen, too. The flesh under my eyes was puffed up and I had other annoying symptoms of kidney complaint. I had Doan's Kidney Pills and they fixed me up in good shape."
