HOW GALLANT AIR FIGHTERS MEET DEATH

One of the mysteries of the war in the air seems at last to have been solved. It concerns the life of Frank Luke, an Arizona aviator attached to the Twenty-seventh squadron, who is described by Captain Rickenbacher as "the greatest fighting pilot of the war." In his book, "Gighting the flying circus," Rickenbacher says that Luke, like Guynemer, was "swallowed up in the skies," never having been heard of after he sailed away one evening to shoot down German observation balloons.

It is only now, eight months after Luke's disappearance that the A. E. F. newspaper, the Stars and Stripes, is able to tell what appears to have been the likely details of the airman's death. Balloons were Luke's favorite game. They were hard to down, even a flaming bullet seeming not to ignite the gas, as Rickenbacher and others frequently found to their chagrin. Luke was successful in his war on the "sausages" because utterly heedless of a storm of bullets from the German guns protecting the balloons, he went close to the big bags and fairly ripped them open with a fusillade. Once, in 20 minutes he put down two balloons, two fighting Fokkers and a photographing airship.

On his last night, according to the story gathered from German sources, Luke downed two balloons and started for a third, pursued by a German squadron. He got the third balloon and a fourth, and then, wounded, and ten miles behind the enemy lines, he descended a little south of the Woevre forest, fired the last bullets from his machine gun into German troops, and scoring to surrender, drew his pistol and fought until shot to death.

A bad soldier he was, according to standards of discipline, for he flew when and where he pleased, remained away from headquarters if he chose and appeared to have the same contempt for orders that he had for the enemy. Possessed of an ambition to equal in a single year the record of Fonck, who at that time had sixty official victories, the Arizona youth—he was only 21—went furiously at the mark. His exploits of 14 official victories in eight days stands unequalled, Rickenbacher says in the history of air fighting.

Cut This Out and Take It With You.

A man often forgets the exact name of the article he wishes to purchase, and as a last resort takes something else instead. That is always disappointing and unsatisfactory. The safe way is to cut this out and take it with you so as to make sure of getting Chamberlain's Tablets. You will find nothing quite so satisfactory for constipation and indigestion.

WATER WORKS MAN GIVES OUT FACTS

After Searching for Years He At Last Finds Medicine That Ends Trouble

"I have tried for years to get something that would relieve me of my troubles and have found it at last in Tanlac," said Alfred Jolly, of 3291 Quitman street, Denver, Colorado, and an employee of the water works department of that city.

"For a long time," he continued, "my stomach was in such an awful 'x' that I could eat hardly a thing without being in misery afterwards. Even the lightest foods would bloat me up with gas and I was constantly belching up sour, undigested food that at times would almost choke me, and often I would get so nervous that it was almost impossible for me to rest at night. I suffered agony from rheumatism and was in such a wretched condition that I was hardly fit for a thing.

"After trying nearly everything I could hear of I took Tanlac, and it sure hit the spot and has made a different man of me. My appetite is splendid, my nerves steady, I sleep like a log at night, have gained eight pounds and am in better shape than I have been in years."

Tanlac is sold in Montpelier by the Modern Drug Company.

WORLD'S LARGEST SALOON QUILTS BUSINESS

BRIDGEPORT, Ohio, June 14—The largest saloon in the world has gone out of business under the dry amendment to the state constitution, beating other wet goods establishments by a full month.

It is located in this little city of 4,200 souls, just across the Ohio river from Wheeling, W. Va. It is owned and operated by Sai Ungerleider.

The saloon employed seventy-seven bartenders and clerks and had 216 feet of bar. For the past year or two its deposits have been $5,000 or $1,600,000 a year. The saloon has made Bridgeport one of the show places of the valley.

Ungerleider is 36 years of age. He is a millionaire and says he never smoked or drank intoxicating liquor. He estimates that since 1915 approximately 20,000 drinks a day have been sold over his bar. He also claims there has never been a fight in his saloon. He attributes this largely to the fact that he refused to sell drinks to minors or a drunk man.

In addition to owning the world's biggest saloon, Ungerleider is a banker, manufacturer, mine owner, oil man, hotel owner and vice-president of a street railway company in Columbus, Ohio.

Booze Is Not a Good Cure.

From the Ames, Iowa, Intelligencer. When a man comes to you all doubled up with pain and declares he will die in your presence unless you procure him a drink of whiskey, send him to a doctor or else give him a dose of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy. There is a mistaken notion among a whole lot of people that booze is the best remedy for colic and stomach ache.

MONTPELIER MAY GET GERMAN GUN

Congressman Addison T. Smith has introduced a bill in the House of Representatives to donate the captured German gun or howitzer of large caliber, taken by the American Expeditionary forces to this city in addition to Montpelier the bill provides that German cannon be donated to Boise, Twin Falls, Pocatello, Idaho Falls, Blackfoot, St. Anthony, Hialeah, Buhl, Burley, Filer, Jerome, Rexburg, Preston, Mountain Home, Gooding, Arco, Fairfield, Rupert, Silver City, Malad City, Shoshone, American Falls, Malad, Rigby, Meridian and Driggs.

The bill, known as house bill No. 2843, has been referred to a committee on military affairs.

SUSPECT YOUR KIDNEYS

Too Many Montpelier People Neglect Early Symptoms of Kidney Trouble.

If your back is lame—if you feel dull, tired and all-worn-out—if you have hard headaches, backaches and dizzy spells—if the kidney secretions are discolored—

Suspect your kidneys and "take a stitch in time."

Use Doan's Kidney Pills the time-tested, home-endorsed kidney remedy.

It may have you from some serious kidney trouble.

Make use of the experience of Mrs. Parley P. George, Third St. She says: "Just this last spring I was down with a bad attack of kidney trouble. Part of the time, I was unable to keep up with my back. I had inflammation of the bladder and my back was so lame and sore I could hardly stand the sharp pains through me. I was dizzy; my sight was blurred and I had frequent, nervous headaches. As another of the family had used Doan's Kidney Pills with good results, I tried them and it only took a few boxes to cure me. I have never had any kidney trouble since."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. George had, Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., Buffalo, N. Y.

The bet you intended to make but didn't is always a safe bet.

Girls, if singleness is bliss, 'tis folly to be wives.

E. FORREST TAYLOR & CO. AGAIN THURSDAY NIGHT

E. Forrest Taylor and his splendid stock company come back to the Montpelier theatre on Thursday night in "Tennessee's Partner" one of the most entralling romantic dramas that the favorite stock company has played here. Miss Viola Dane, Mr. Taylor's new leading lady, has a splendid part in "Tennessee's Partner" and is winning new laurels in the cities it has been played in to date.

For the remainder of the week Manager E. A. Brough has billed the usual splendid programs. Tonight Enid Bennett in "The Keys to Righteousness," a virile, strong picture with the beautiful Australian star at her very best, and one of the concluding episodes of "The Lure of the Circus" are billed. Tomorrow night "The Spender" and a Lonesome Luke comedy, "The Doubtful Dub" will be shown. In "The Spender" Bert Lytell plays the part of a red-blooded young man teaching his miserly uncle how to enjoy life. It is an appealing comedy of youth, love and adventure.

Kitty Gordon in "Adele," the nurses story, one of the most appealing and human dramas of the present boiling times will be shown on Monday night. Moving picture managers who have shown this picture assure Mr. Brough it is one of the most successful pictures of the year. A Pathe news will also be shown.

Alice Joyce in "The Lion and the Mouse" a super production of the story that was one of the greatest dramatic successes in stage history.

NOTICE FOR BIDS.

Sealed proposals will be received at my office up to 8 o'clock p. m. on Wednesday, June 25, 1919, for digging and back-filling water trenches in Montpelier, Idaho, as follows: On Washington street, from Eighth to Eleventh street, trench to be 3 feet wide and 4 1/2 feet deep; on Third street, from Washington street to Jefferson street, trench to be 3 feet wide and 4 1/2 feet deep; on Third to Seventh streets, trench to be 2 feet wide and 4 1/2 feet deep; total excavation approximately 5700 feet. The council reserves the right to reject any or all bids. Proposals should be marked "Bids for digging and refilling trenches."

By order of city council.
THOMAS BARRETT, Clerk.

Mr. Wisler Cured of Indigestion.

"Sometime in 1909 when I had an attack of indigestion and everything looked gloomy to me, I received a free sample of Chamberlain's Tablets by mail. I gave them a trial and they were such a help to me that I bought a package, and I can truthfully say that I have not had a similar attack since," writes Wm. B. Wisler, Douglasville, Pa.
