

MONEY TALKS

If you know the value of a Bank Account, teach your children

A bank account acquaintance is a fine thing for a boy, even as a boy, and especially when he is at the point where he begins to know the value of money and is anxious to earn.

Young people who are taught to save become a credit to a community because it makes them ambitious.

Young people will take pride in looking on this institution as their bank, and they have the privilege of coming and going just as much as they wish.

Interest paid on savings.

NOVEL SUITS FOR SPRING

Many of the style features that distinguish this season's suits are attractively combined in the trim model, with its straight-line silhouette, that invites study here. Beginning with this uprightness of line it adds the flaring sleeve, the odd management of pockets, simplicity and cleverness in its decoration to appeal to the woman who likes smart suits that follow new styles in a conservative way. The very simplest of embroidery is used on it but it is unusually effective—especially where it defines the arm's eye.

LOWER CLASSIFIED RATE. Effective at once the classified rate in The Examiner will be one cent a word for each insertion instead of ten cents a line as heretofore. This rate applies only to this column, and every advertisement must be PAID IN ADVANCE and bear the name and address or telephone number of the advertiser. In sending in classified ads, count the words, including initials and numbers, and remit at the rate of one cent for each word, initial or number, and multiply the amount by the number of issues you wish the ad to appear. Remember the Examiner goes into nearly two've hundred homes, and of fords the most economical means of reaching the people.

NATIONAL HOSPITAL DAY OBSERVED 12TH

Yesterday Dr. G. F. Ashley received the following communication from Dr. L. P. McCalla of Boise relative to National Hospital Day: "A national organization has been perfected, to be known as National Hospital Day Committee, and I have been appointed state chairman for Idaho, and I am hereby appointing you to act as a member of the state committee, and to be chairman of your committee in your town. National hospital day has been set for May 12th. This is the birthday of Florence Nightingale whom, as you know, is given the credit for nursing on a scientific, trained standard. All other states in the union, and most of the provinces in Canada, are taking part in this National Hospital Day, the object of which is to bring the hospitals and the public closer together."

Please ask your mayor to write his endorsement of this movement, and public health service officers who are in official positions. The hospitals are advised to have open house for visitors on this day.

Our governor has written a letter strongly indorsing this Hospital Day movement, and governors of all other states in the union have also endorsed it, and a splendid endorsement has been received from President Harding and many other prominent and influential men and women throughout the country.

"SWEETHEART SHOP" PROVES DELIGHTFUL, SAYS TRIBUNE

Like a cool, sweet refreshing breath of air, "The Sweetheart Shop" arrived in the city last night and presented its wares at the Salt Lake theatre. The production is a bit of clean, clever musical comedy. It will be repeated here tonight and tomorrow night with a matinee tomorrow, says Tuesday's Salt Lake Tribune.

The ancient descriptive word "charm" is really the only fitting way to describe the appeal which the "Sweetheart Shop" makes. This type of charm is that which the sweet, innocent girl yields over her youthful lover, of the charm which the richly tinted, sweetly scented field of flowers has for the denizen of a crowded city. It brings back or suggests all the delights of a normal, clean life.

The company will entertain the theatre-goers of Montpelier at the Gem theatre tonight (Thursday.)

MAURICE TOURNEUR FEATURE IS BILLED

"The Great Redeemer" With All-Star Cast To Be Seen at the Gem Theatre Saturday

One of the biggest screen productions of the year will be seen at the Gem Theatre when Maurice Tourneur's super special, "The Great Redeemer," will be the feature of the bill, next Saturday, May 7th. "The Great Redeemer," it is announced, is a tremendous drama of absorbing human interest. According to the expectations of its producers, it is destined to be hailed as one of the really impressive photodramas of the year.

Advances reports on "The Great Redeemer" dwell with special force upon the unusual beauty of the production from a pictorial standpoint, as well as on its intensely dramatic theme and the tremendously moral message it carries to all who view it.

Dan Malloy, as the story goes, has eluded a posse that pursues him after he has held up a train, and takes refuge in the home of a girl of the mountains. The girl, startled by his sudden, unannounced entrance into her cabin, shoots the bandit, wounding him slightly. Later, after hearing his story and falling under the spell of his dominating personality, she begins to love him. With Dan it has been a case of love at first sight, and he is soon contemplating the abandonment of his career as a bandit for a fireside and respectability.

Temptation soon appears in the person of a former pal, who tips Dan off to the fact that the limited can be held up with ease if Dan will essay one more fling at the old game. Dan succumbs and attempts the hold-up, but is surrounded and captured after his pal has died fighting the forces of the law.

Dan is sentenced to a long term in prison. It is within the grim gray walls that his heart changes and he begins the long, long struggle for regeneration. The manner of his accomplishing this reform is told in the plot of "The Great Redeemer" with new and startling touch. For a latter-day miracle is wrought that affects not only the life of Dan Malloy, but those of others in the prison and outside of it.

CLOSES STORE AT SODA SPRINGS

J. H. Beatty, manager of the Beatty Clothing company, stated yesterday that he had concluded to close the Soda Springs store, having accomplished his purpose when he undertook to operate the store at Soda. Mr. Hall, who has been in charge at Soda Springs, will come to Montpelier and be associated with Mr. Beatty here. In commenting on the change, Mr. Beatty said: "In order to reduce overhead expense and concentrate our effort and attention, thus rendering better service and courtesy to patrons, the Soda Springs branch of the Beatty Clothing Co. will be moved back to Montpelier."

BURGOYNE CAFE REDECORATED

Tom Karras has had a number of artists engaged in repainting and re-decorating the interior of the Burgoyne Cafe during the past few days, and the job is nearly completed. A great improvement in the appearance of the popular cafe is the result of the efforts of Mr. Karras to operate a clean, and neat appearing cafe. The walls and ceiling were first given a coat or two of calomine of cheery tints and decorated, and later painted with white ivory. A new counter and sideboard have also been installed.
