

REX THEATRE PRESENTS

"THE DESERT OF WHEAT"

OR

"Riders of the Dawn"

BY

Mon., Tues., Wed.

Zane Gray

October 3, 4 and 5

IF Better Pictures Were Made We Would Show Them.

IF Better Pictures Were Made We Would Show Them.

Local and Personal

D. C. Keyes mad a business trip to Lewiston on Tuesdays passenger.

C. H. Ede was a passenger for Lewiston on this morning's passenger.

Dennis Keane of Fraser was transacting business at the county seat this week.

Lawrence R. Olson departed for Spokane Saturday morning en route to Alberta, Canada.

Senator U. S. Mix was an outgoing passenger for Lewiston on Saturdays morning train.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Phar were outgoing passengers on the morning train Saturday for Lewiston.

Tom Nygard was transacting business in Lewiston this week leaving here on Tuesday's morning passenger.

Mrs. E. W. Horswill and sons Harry Lee and Eric, were passengers for Lewiston on Saturday's morning train.

Mrs. Jope departed for Coifax this morning to ascertain the amount of loss to their home, which was lately damaged by fire.

Mrs. N. O. Helgeson went to Kamiah last week to visit her sister Mrs. John Lomax, and returned on Sunday's morning passenger.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. McTarnahan are so favorably impressed with our bustling and pretty little village that they have decided to locate at the county seat. Orofino's attractive influence is difficult to resist.

J. M. Bryant was a passenger on Tuesday's outgoing train.

W. H. Oppiger was an outgoing passenger on the morning train Tuesday.

Mrs. Joe Gray of Kellogg, Idaho, and children are visiting relatives in Glenwood.

O. H. Holmberg, Agent State Department of Finance, made a business trip to Lewiston on Saturday's passenger.

Miss Ruth Altenefer departed for Spokane on Saturday's morning passenger after a pleasant visit with the home folks.

A. D. Fox departed for Little Falls, N. Y., after an absence of 14 years. He went home to assist in settling up a family estate.

C. H. Martin, representing the Spokesman-Review, made a visit to the county seat Wednesday and departed Thursday morning for Lewiston.

Mrs. Hal Moor, of Portland, Oregon, departed for home this morning after a short but pleasant visit with her parents, Mr and Mrs. Ellis Small of Glenwood.

The District Court adjourned on Tuesday, after a two days session. Judge Steele and others who attended the short court term departed on the morning train Wednesday.

F. S. Randall, a prominent Lewiston lawyer and attorney for the State Finance Department in the Waterman Bank affairs, was transacting legal business at the county seat this week and departed for home Tuesday morning.

Complete Funeral for $50.00

A Raised Top, Cloth Covered Casket with Six Handles and Outside Box. Our Service Included.

C. E. BOBO & SON

Phone 84

ARRESTED ON LIQUOR CHARGE.

Upon complaint of Sheriff P. H. Shea, warrant was issued out of the Probate Court Monday, September 26 for the arrest at Welppe, of Fleet Jordan, J. E. Ball, Arthur Ball, Stevan Snyder and Harmon Snyder, for having intoxicating liquor in their possession. Defendants were arraigned before Judge Snyder in the Probate Court Tuesday. Defendants waived reading of complaint, waived examination and were bound over to District Court. Joint bond of $500 was given for appearance at next session of District court in November. Atty. Clay McNamee of Lewiston was attorney for all the defendants.

F ELLIOTT SMITH

Attorney-at-Law

Orofino, Idaho

Merrill Lodging House

ROOMS, 50c. AND UP

Rooms for Housekeeping Furnished or Unfurnished

J. W. MERRILL, Prop.

Orofino, Idaho

If You Investigate Properly

your reasoning will inevitably lead you to the conclusion that this is the bank in which you should have your money.

A bank can keep your money secure and pay you interest on it because it employs your capital securely as well as successfully. We do just that with any funds that you entrust to us.

Ask our customers about us.

BANK OF OROFINO

Largest and Strongest Bank in Clearwater Valley.

Member of the Federal Reserve System.

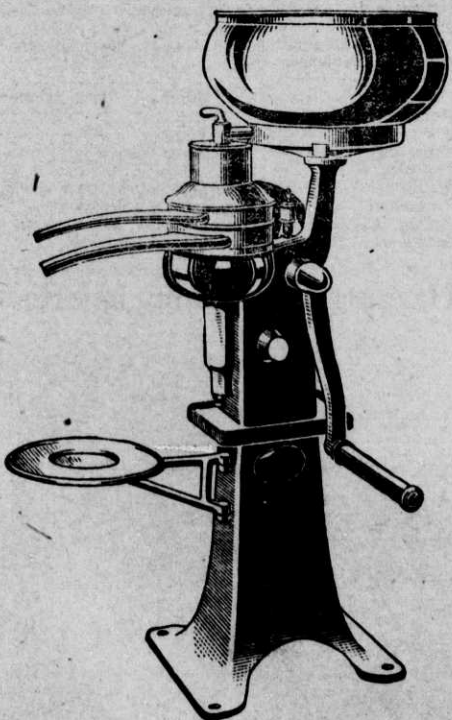

Money to Loan

On improved farm and city property.

SEE US FOR ANY LINE OF INSURANCE

Mix-Walrath Realty Co.
OROFINO, IDAHO

THIS IS The EMPIRE

Cream SEPARATOR

with the new Million Dollar Bowl. Why not come in and investigate this superb machine and talk Dairying over with us. Don't you think you could make money by owning a few cows, an Empire Cream Separator, and

SELL YOUR CREAM TO THE Orofino Creamery Company FOR 48c PER POUND TODAY

Mrs. Fred Mooers and little daughter were passengers for Lewiston on Monday's morning train.

H. V. Allingham of Peck visited Orofino, Thursday, and departed for the little town in Big Canyon on Friday morning.

J. W. McTarnahan went to Lewiston on Monday's morning passenger to make arrangements for the Schneidau-Crawford wrestling match a week hence.

Mrs. M. E. Crisp of Spokane, was an Orofino visitor this week and returned home on the morning train Wednesday, with her daughter Lois who has been on Central ridge for the past two months.

John Loseth, who has been in Portland for some time reached here last week to visit relatives and departed on Monday's morning passenger to complete his studies in the University of Idaho, at Moscow.

John Hudson, a familiar citizen of Orofino and old time resident of the Clearwater valley, departed for Boise this morning to enter the soldiers home and enjoy the kindness of Uncle Sam in providing a pleasant place for deserving veterans in their old age.

Several members of the Salvation Army visited Orofino yesterday and held a meeting last night to initiate a drive for more funds. A campaign manager from Boise accompanied the Salvationists and publicity matter will soon be issued to gain support for this army financial move.

Mrs. Frank Rider was called to Spokane Tuesday morning to be at the bedside of her husband, who was compelled to undergo a second surgical operation. Last information reported Mr. Rider as slowly improving and his many Orofino friends hope to soon see him again at home fully recovered.

W. B. Laird, General Manager of the Potlatch Lumber Co.; T. P. Jones logging superintendent, W. Heinert, chief cruiser, each of the same company and Henry Turck of the Western Land Company, of Duluth, Minnesota, visited the Pierce section this week and departed from Orofino by auto this morning.

Mr. and Mrs. Mike Smith, former Orofinoites, and for several years located at Elk River, where Mr. Smith was employed by the Potlatch Lumber Co., have located again at the county seat and are now keeping house in the dwelling formerly occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Warren Myers.

Contractor A. G. Keister is making rapid progress with his work of preparing the foundation for laying concrete sidewalks in Improvement District No. 3. The removal of the old dilapidated wooden sidewalks is already a noticeable improvement and soon the concrete walks will be an additional improvement to our thriving village.

Mr. and Mrs. Doc Bonner of Ford Creek ridge are the happy parents of a little boy, who arrived a few days ago.

Ben E. Bush, state land agent and Geo. Lanphere of the Moscow Star-Mirror visited Orofino this week and made a trip into the woods before motoring home.

Dr. J. M. Fairley reports the arrival of a little son this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Shaw on Ford Creek ridge.

Kenneth Lowell, the youthful son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell, who resides in the Merrill Apartments, fell off a pile of lumber yesterday and broke his arm.

There was a head on collision Monday between Fred Trotzkey auto and Will Harris bug on the corner of Johnson and College Avenues. Arch Rowland was driving the bug and in turning the corner near the Bank of Orofino ran into the Trotzkey car. The Ford bug for some unexplainable reason was considerably damaged and the Saxon escaped with a slight bruise.

R. D. Leeper, a Lewiston attorney and State Commander of the American Legion, met with a number of service men in Dr. J. M. Fairley's office Monday night and addressed the boys on Legion matters. Mr. Leeper is preaching Americanism and its perpetuation by the American Legion, which is destined to be a powerful organization in the upholding of American rights.

Gust Schneidau, the big wrestler from Lewiston attended the wrestling match Saturday night and challenged the winner, Crawford, for ago Saturday night, Oct. 8, which was accepted by Crawford. Schneidau agrees to throw Crawford twice in an hour and an exceptionally good exhibition is promised. Mr. Schneidau departed for Lewiston Sunday morning, but will be on hand to tackle Crawford.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Myers departed for Lewiston, Wednesday Morning, where they intend to locate permanently. Mr. and Mrs. Myers have many friends at the county seat who are sorry to lose them, but hope they will prosper in their new home. Mrs. Myers was assistant to Miss Cecil Parker, county superintendent, before her marriage and Warren has been one of Orofino's most accommodating barbers, for the past four years. The Republican wishes the happy young couple success in their new location.

AID SOCIETY MEETS OCTOBER 5

The regular meeting of the Ladies Aid will meet at the M. E. church on Wednesday, October 5, at 2:30 p. m. Mrs. Wm. Noble and Mrs. B. J. Kinne will entertain. A work for the ensuing year will be discussed and all members are requested to be present.