

EMMETT NEWS

For good bread use Fleischman's yeast, at Reilly's.

Ed Allen is suffering with a carbuncle on the neck.

Jack Watkins was over from Caldwell Tuesday, buying grain and clover seed.

George Trgaskis, who was reported seriously ill last week, is recovering nicely.

Keep the rain and snow off of your windshield with one of our windshield cleaners. Wilson Garage.

Harsh physics react, weaken the bowels, will lead to chronic constipation. Doan's Regulets operate easily. 30c a box at all stores.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Madden and Mr. Madden's father and mother made a business trip to Meridian and other Boise valley points Tuesday.

Should you be taken away, how about your loved ones? Don't delay protecting them. See F. R. Chapin of Mutual Life Insurance Co. of N. Y.

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Craig, Dr. R. N. Cummings and Lauren Dean were among the Emmett people who attended the Cobb lecture in Boise Monday evening.

The E. C. Rundstrom family have all recovered from the influenza and Mr. and Mrs. Rundstrom were able to make a business trip to Boise on Tuesday.

Harry Knox of Emmett was a Cascade visitor Sunday. Of course Cascade was not the center of attraction for Harry, but it was easily located near Center school house.—Cascade News.

Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Dion, accompanied by Carl Brown of McCall and Miss Mary Quinn of Horseshoe Bend, made up a party to attend the performance of "So Long, Letty" in Boise Saturday night.

Mrs. Joe Morash returned last week from St. Alphonsus hospital, where she underwent a serious operation. She is recovering nicely, however. Mr. Morash is a millwright at the Boise Payette mill.

Miss Helen Hand is spending some time at the home of her uncle, H. T. Davis, recuperating her strength from a recent siege of flu. Miss Helia is attending St. Margaret's school for girls in Boise this year.

Mr. and Mrs. T. B. Hargus and Miss Florence Rundstrom motored to Boise Monday morning on business and incidentally to hear Irvin Cobb. They returned Tuesday. They report the roads in a dreadful condition, due to the continued rains.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Marler of Emmett visited the Chas. Judy home Thursday. Mr. Chauncey Payne brought them down in his car. Mr. Payne lately returned from Camp Rosecrans, Calif.—Fruitland Correspondent Payette Enterprise.

Frank Berry made a business trip to Caldwell Tuesday, going on to Boise Wednesday, where he had his eye examined again by his physician. Mr. Berry is very much encouraged with the outcome of the recent operation on the eye and hopes to have complete restoration of the sight.

E. W. Porter, senator from Latah county, came over from Boise last week to spend the week-end with Mr. and Mrs. John Baillies Allyn. Senator Porter is a member of the committees of education, immigration and labor and banks, banking and insurance, being chairman of the last named committee.

Mr. and Mrs. Joel Brown returned Wednesday from a several days' visit with friends at Boise and Meridian. While in Boise they attended the lecture by Irvin Cobb, and Mr. Brown states that it was a rare treat, giving a wonderfully vivid description of European conditions as seen by the lecturer, with an interspersed of Cobb's versatile wit and the most heart touching pathos.

Experience in talking about billions of dollars is different from dealing with concrete facts in reference to those immense sums. A daily paper says that an expert cashier can count four thousand silver dollars in an hour, or thirty-two thousand in a day. But to count a billion dollars would require his constant work, at that rate, day after day, for 102 years!

Furs Wanted

The New York Store will pay the highest prices for all kinds of furs.

Ed Plant is a recent influenza sufferer.

John and Dick McConnell made a business trip to Boise Monday.

Mrs. Priscilla Moore and Raymond spent a couple of days in Boise this week.

H. P. Clark and R. G. Robinson of Caldwell were Emmett callers Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Setter left Saturday for LaGrange, Ore., to make their home.

Mr. Madden of the Madden Mercantile company of Cascade visited in Emmett on Friday.

M. F. Hall and son of Malta, Ida., former Emmett residents, were here on business last week.

Miss Dora Brown spent part of the week as a guest of Miss Maud Burt at the Burt home near Letha.

Mrs. Casper, who has been nursing in Emmett during the flu epidemic, returned to her home beyond Freeze-out.

Robert Keith, of the clothing firm of E. C. Keith & Sons, came up from Payette Wednesday for a few days' visit.

W. F. Sinclair went to Seattle last week Thursday to attend a conference of Mutual fire insurance representatives.

Miss Vera Shaver, of the Emmett teaching force, departed for her home at Baker, Ore., to spend the remainder of the vacation.

News of Senator Tyler's condition is encouraging. Mr. Tyler hopes to be able to assume his duties as a law maker very soon.

Carl Brown, who spent several days last week on a business transaction at Emmett and Boise, has returned to his home at McCall.

Life insurance was never needed more than at this time. See F. R. Chapin and secure a good policy in Mutual Life of N. Y. Don't delay.

The composition of our pure Butter-milk forms an essential diet for old and young. The lactic acid counteracts disease. Fresh daily and for sale by Mutual Creamery Co., Belle Boren, agent.

Henry Jensen, who was formerly employed as lumber grader at the B. P. mill, was in town last Saturday in company with E. F. Tobin of Seattle. The gentlemen went from here to Boise on business.

Dr. Ia Wood accompanied Dr. Steward to Boise last Thursday to consult a specialist regarding the condition of his ear. Dr. Wood has experienced a partial deafness since his recent tussle with flu. He returned Friday.

Mr. F. D. Bowen, manager of the Cash Bazar, attended the first annual meeting of Cash Bazar directors at Boise last week. He reports a profitable and enthusiastic meeting, business conditions assuming a most promising aspect.

Ad M. Simon, local manager of Alexander's clothing store here, went to Boise on Sunday to visit his brother and Governor Alexander. He was drafted to assist in invoicing the big Boise store and didn't return until Tuesday. Today he is confined to his rooms by sickness.

Friends of Miss Marie Seamans, who was for a number of years a very popular teacher of the primary department of the city schools, will be interested to hear of her. Miss Seamans is now in Washington, D. C., where she has been engaged in war work since last July.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Obermeyer, Miss Anne Wagner and Miss Teed motored to Boise Saturday. Mr. Obermeyer went to receive the Knights Templar degree of Masonry—the ladies acted in the capacity of chaperons and first aid to the injured if aught befell him in the ordeal.

C. W. Butts, who will be remembered by many Emmett people, having made this his home while employed as engineer on the railroad, is now in Tennessee, but he writes to friends that Emmett holds so many pleasant memories for himself and his family that they are considering returning.

Mr. Horace Burr returned Saturday to his home at Cascade leaving Mrs. Burr for a longer visit at the Keithly home. Mr. Keithly is making a rapid recovery from his recent appendicitis operation. And by the way—we mis-stated last week—Drs. Steward and Reynolds were the attending physicians.

GIGANTIC CLEAR

Sweeping Reductions in Price. The Wearing Apparel of

E. C. KEITH
EMMETT, ID

7 Days Only

Jan. 25 to Feb. 1

Open 9 a. m.

Sale Starts

Saturday, Jan. 26

Sale Closes Saturday, Feb. 2

Given Away

We are going to give away the choice of any Overcoat in the store. Be one of the first 150 men to enter our store

SATURDAY, JANUARY 25

The selection will be made WEDNESDAY, JANUARY 29, at 2 p. m. sharp.

Personal presence necessary.

Tickets for men only.

Closed Thursday &amp; Friday

This store will be closed Thursday and Friday in order for us to arrange and mark down every article in the store.

You will be surprised at the wonderful bargains when you enter our store Saturday, January 25th.

Look Here

Right in the face of greatly increased prices for spring merchandise we find ourselves forced to reduce our present stock which we bought months ago at prices much lower than we pay today.

We find after checking over our whole stock that we must have extra money to meet our obligations. You are going to find prices much lower in this sale than any other store on good, clean, grade men's wearing apparel.

This is not a sale of just odds and ends. Come here and buy the very best and newest merchandise on the market at prices you will find again for some time to come.

EVERYTHING REDUCED
This Sale Positively Closes Saturday