THE MUTUAL GIRL AND HER AUNTIE

AUNTIE: I think we will have to let James board down town a while. I am tired of cooking three meals a day.

LUCILLE: So am I Auntie. And now that you suggest it I know exactly where to have him go. To THOMPSON'S CAFE.
It is a dandy place and Mr. Thompson is very accommodating, and serves excellent meals. I know two of the boys who eat there and they are very well satisfied.

AUNTIE: You are sure Lucille that everything is nice and clean? I wouldn't have the boy go to a dirty place.

LUCILLE: Yes, indeed! Mr. Thompson has everything spick and span. He is very careful about those things.

AUNTIE: I think then that we will have him change tomorrow.

MORAL: GO TO EAT WHERE THINGS ARE CLEAN AND SAN-ITARY, WHOLESOME AND REASONABLE. WHERE YOU GET YOUR DOLLAR'S WORTH.

Order from us and you'll not be disappointed in quality. We carry a complete line.
