

GANS-NELSON PICTURES SHOWN.

Almost a hundred celebrities of the world of sports and newspaper chroniclers of its events were present on the New York Theater Roof October 6, at full dress rehearsal of the moving pictures of the Gans-Nelson fight, which were shown for the first time in the East. The films which depict with remarkable clearness the entire course of the historic battle, justified every claim made for them by the management, which will present them for public view tomorrow evening. The pictures settle once and for all the disputed foul which Nelson committed upon his colored opponent, for the blow for which the referee, Siler, properly disqualified him is plainly evident in the forty-second round. Among the prominent persons easily distinguished at the ring-side were Eddy Gray, Colonel Martin Brady, James Nell, Frankie Nell, Jimmie Pritt, Eddie Hanlon Jack Welch, Peter Grant, George Weeden and Nat C. Goodwin.—New York Press.
To be shown at the Elk's Opera House, next week.

NEW STORE and NEW STOCK

I am opening an up-to-date line of Shoes, Clothing, Hats and Gents' Furnishings. My motto will be to sell goods the quality of which will be appreciated after the price has been forgotten. Price is a good seller, but Quality is a better one. I offer both close prices and good goods. Call and see for yourself.
