He labored for years in the interest of art at salaries that never adequately paid for his genius. But he gave freely the best there was in him, and that best was glorious. Then came a mind diseased, and now there is hope only of a long and peaceful twilight. A fund is being raised for him, too, but with all the work of a year or more it has not reached the proportions of the prize fight-

BAILEY'S THRIFT

by the facts disclosed at the legis the best friends of Mr. Bailey must be forced to the admission that, conceding his entire honesty, the senator manifested a degree of thrift which furnished his enemies a plausible pretext for attacking him. The lesson of the matter is that a politician—a statesman if you like cannot with safety to his reputation livide his energies between private and public service.-Chicago Chron-

Reason Why.

$1,405,000 ACCIDENT BENEFITS, which is the amount paid by the TRAVELERS IN 1905, stands by itself in the history of ACCIDENT IN-SURANCE as a world record of ACCIDENT BSNEFITS paid during one year-an amount greater than that fany other two companies combined and in itself an invincible proof-

First, THAT ACCIDENT INSURANCE is one of tre great protective ecessities of modern life.

Second THAT THE ACCIDENT polciles sold by the Travelers are most liberal and most carefully devised to protect their policy holders and that Undertakers and Funeral the Company is actuated by a most just and generous spirit of adjustment, which is as important a factor for the policyholder as the terms of

> Third, THAT THE TRAVELERS, AS THE PIONEER COMPANY, has been advertised by its satisfied policyholders and annually increases its supremacy and its prestige as the great Accident company of the world
