

MURDERERS ARE CAUGHT

GOV. DAWSON ASKED TO ISSUE
EXTRADITION PAPERS—AS-
SYRIANS ARE CHARGED WITH MURDER OF FELLOW COUN-
TRYMAN IN BOONE COUNTY.

Governor Dawson has been called upon to issue extradition papers for Naimen Joseph and Mahood Azzadon, now in custody at Beyrouth, Syria, charged with the murder of Najap Mahlen, a fellow Syrian peddler, on Coal river last February.

Detective R. H. Anderson, of the Baldwin force, who has had charge of the case, received a cablegram from the American consul at Beyrouth saying that the men had been arrested.

It is possible that the governor will not issue extradition papers. To send a man to Turkey to get the men would cost more than $1,000. If the men are convicted then they will be sent to the penitentiary, where they will be a great expense to the state. As it is they cannot return to America. It is also probable that the man they murdered was not a citizen of the United States, the three being peddlers.

On the other hand a man was murdered in cold blood within the borders of the state, and to further the ends of justice the men should be brought to Madison, Boone county, where they have been indicted for murder. It is a question the governor will have to decide.

The murder of Mahlen was cold-blooded. Early last February three Syrian peddlers made their appearance on Coal river. Many of their kinsmen were there and they seemed to prosper. It was soon noted about that Mahlen had made a nice little sum of money on a little deal. One day the trio disappeared and their kinsmen thought they had moved to other parts.

About sixty days after the horribly mutilated body of Mahlen was found lying in the water under a culvert under the Coal river extension of the C. & O. near Kayford. The head was beaten almost to a pulp, and there were other wounds on the body. The pockets were rifled.

The two companions of Mahlen were immediately suspected of the murder. R. H. Anderson, a Baldwin detective, took charge of the case and telegraphed a description of the men all over the country. Soon Anderson learned from some of the Syrians on Coal river that the men had gone back to the old country. Immediately steps were taken to procure their arrest there. Police authorities were communicated with and a description of the men sent. Should the governor issue the extradition papers Anderson will go after the men. He says he does not want a guard but will bring them safely here by himself.

HEAVY SNOWS IN ENGLAND

DIGGING CARS OUT OF DEEP
DRIFTS AT SOUTHAMPTON.

London, April 27.—The most remarkable weather for the season experienced in the United Kingdom for several decades has prevailed during the last week. Snow has fallen in London every day since last Monday, and once it was two or three inches deep on Hampstead Heath. The thermometer has been down nearly to the freezing point.

Heavy falls of snow in the north have caused floods on the Scottish border and early Saturday morning the heaviest snow fall for many years swept over Southern Sussex and Hampshire, the snow in some places being two or three feet deep.

At Southampton business has been practically suspended; the street car service is snowed out and gangs of men are digging the cars out from deep drifts. The same conditions prevail at Portsmouth, and there have been heavy falls of snow at Bath and Bournemouth. The Newmarket races have been postponed on account of the snow.

NEW JERSEY UNINSTRUCTED

Trenton, N. J., April 27.—Present appearances indicate the selection of an uninstructed delegation to represent New Jersey Democrats in the Denver convention, a majority of the delegates now here for tomorrow's state convention favoring such action. Considerable Gray sentiment has developed and it is possible that an attempt may be made to swing the convention to the Delaware Jurist. Bryan has few devoted admirers in New Jersey, and his chance of securing the endorsement of tomorrow's convention has practically vanished. The action of the Delaware convention in instructing for Gray and of the New York convention in choosing an unplugged delegation has given renewed courage to the numerous opponents of the Nebraska man in Jersey, and they will likely be found among the leaders of the Bryan opposition at Denver.

SENATOR PHILANDER C. KNOX.

Senator Philander C. Knox, of Pennsylvania, is a prominent candidate for the Republican nomination for president. He has had a wide experience in public affairs.

"Knox for president." That was the slogan of 300 prominent Republicans of state and nation who attended the twenty-eighth annual banquet of the Young Republicans at the Bellevue-Stratford Saturday night. Senator Knox was the guest of honor and delivered the principal address, and every mention of his name brought cheers from the enthusiastic boomers.

Justices of the supreme court of Pennsylvania, members of the common pleas bench, congressmen and state and city officials were present to honor Pennsylvania's "Favorite Son." Congressman James Francis Burke, of Pittsburgh, who is in charge of the Knox boom, was a guest and eulogized the junior senator.

SANTA BARBARA WELCOMES FLEET

A GREAT HERO.

Engineer Geo. A. Smith is the hero of the hour. At an early hour this morning, as No. 85 pulled into Morgan, two negro men were attempting to effect an entrance into a house at that place through a second story window. They were at the top of a ladder and their presence had been discovered by some other negroes, who demanded that they come down, which they had refused to do. Engineer Smith left his engine and at the point of his pistol compelled one of the negroes to come down (the other escaping through the window) and he turned him over to the other negroes, who bound him hand and foot. When the train pulled out the prisoner was surrounded by a group of men and women, most of them in their "nighties" and they were all proclaiming Mr. Smith a mighty hero.

BRYAN AND CONRAD

TICKET SUGGESTED BY NEW YORK TELEGRAPH—CONRAD,
A VIRGINIAN, NOW A LEAD-
ING FINANCIER OF MINNESO-TA—PREDICTS A CONSERVA-TIVE PLATFORM.

New York, April 27.—The New York Morning Telegraph says editorially:

The situation in Democratic politics begins to assume a very Bryanesque tinge. A number of prominent Democrats, who have hitherto declined to endorse Mr. Bryan's candidacy, have become disgusted with the methods employed against the Nebraska man and have manifested a desire to get aboard the Bryan band wagon. Not the least conspicuous of these gentlemen is former United States Senator Lindsay, of Kentucky, now practicing law in New York. Senator Lindsay voted against Bryan in 1896, leading the revolt in his state for Palmer and Buckner, the candidates on the Gold Democratic ticket.

A close friend of Senator Lindsay's said yesterday at the Waldorf-Astoria that the men behind the Johnson boom had made the mistake of supposing that you could nominate a man for the presidency of the United States by merely calling him a Swede. They say that it is really a pity that a good man like Governor Johnson, of Minnesota, should be so mismanaged as to make it impossible for the Democratic convention to even nominate him for second place.

It is surmised that the falling off in Johnson sentiment is due largely to the lack of warmth shown in the movement by James J. Hill, of Minnesota. Mr. Hill ceased to take much interest in the Governor Johnson presidential aspirations as soon as he learned that W. G. Conrad, the Montana banker, miner and railroad owner, was Mr. Bryan's personal choice for the vice presidency. Mr. Conrad is a Virginian and went into the northwest forty years ago, when Mr. Hill started to open up that wilderness. Mr. Conrad and Mr. Hill have been close business and personal friends during all these years. Both gentlemen have become multi-millionaires by helping build up that section of the country, and they have convinced Mr. Bryan that the way to win out is to adopt the policy of building up rather than tearing down.

Mr. Conrad was seen at the National Park Bank before he started west yesterday. He said:

"Mr. Bryan will be nominated beyond the shadow of a doubt. He already has more than enough delegates pledged to him to control the convention. Business men generally are turning to Mr. Bryan, and I look upon his election as a sure thing."

Mr. Conrad was asked if he was a candidate for vice president, and he replied very frankly that he was not a candidate in the sense of hunting for the place.

"A number of my friends in the south and west," said he, "have asked me to be a candidate on the theory that it was about time the south had some representation upon the Democratic ticket. I'm not going to do anything to get the nomination, but if it comes my way I'll be pleased to accept it. I consider it a great honor to run on the ticket with Colonel Bryan. He is one of the big men of this century."

The bringing forward of Mr. Conrad's name at this time is a shrewd play on the part of Mr. Bryan. Mr. Conrad is the most popular figure in the northwest. Worth anywhere from $25,000,000 to $40,000,000, he is as simple and Democratic as Bryan himself. His personality pervades the whole northwestern country. When it becomes known that he is Mr. Bryan's personal choice for the second place on the ticket, the Johnson boom will collapse. It is necessary for Wall street to understand these facts in order to thoroughly grasp the Democratic situation. One thing is certain: If Mr. Conrad is on the Democratic ticket with Mr. Bryan the platform will be a conservative one. His name insures for the Democratic party a constructive policy.

COUNT GIZYCKI, WHO MARRIED
MISS PATTERSON, ASKS SEPA-RATION.

Vienna, April 27.—The Polish aristocrat, Count Joseph Gizycki, who four years ago married Miss Eleanor Patterson, the daughter of Robert W. Patterson, publisher of the "Chicago Tribune," has begun an action for a separation from his wife.

The count and the countess are staying at different hotels in Vienna. Great secrecy is being observed as to the suit. The grounds for the count's petition are not announced, but it is rumored that he charges the countess with partiality for wine suppers and with extravagance, alleging that she spends almost entirely upon dress her annual allowance of $20,000 from her father for her support.

On the other hand, the countess charges. It is said, that her noble husband is an inveterate gambler, having frittered away two estates, with the same outlook as to two more which have recently descended to him from his uncle, one in Galicia, the other in Southern Russia. The countess complains further that the count spends all his time at the jockey club or at the races, living like a bachelor, and abandoning their one child to the care of the countess' father. Before the couple separated they maintained apartments in Vienna, but lived for the greater part of the year on their country estate.

PRINCETON NEWS

GOSSIP FROM THE COUNTY SEAT.

Mrs. Harriet Adair has gone to Welch to spend sometime with her niece, Mrs. John A. Shields.

A County Anti-Saloon League was organized here last week by State Superintendent Theodore Alvord. Judge Hugh G. Woods has always been a prohibitionist and has fought the liquor traffic on every occasion.

Miss Beulah Carr, of Yale, whose illness some weeks ago was regarded as very critical, is now greatly improved and was in town one day during the past week. She suffered from dropsy of the heart and Dr. Scott, of Bluefield, pumped a great quantity of water from around that organ, after which she obtained relief. She is still under treatment with a good prospect of recovery. Mrs. Alice Winston, of Bluefield, is attending her.

There are now three candidates for the Democratic nomination for county clerk. We notice one of them has taken the Democrats into his confidence and announced the fact in the Democratic organ of the county. The others have not made a public announcement yet.

Mr. and Mrs. James Pritchard, of Harper's Ferry, have been the guests of friends here the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Parkinson and daughter, of Ohio, are spending some weeks in Princeton. Mr. Parkinson is having a tract of land laid off into town lots and will offer them for sale.

It is believed by the Catholic clergy that the papal delegate brings with him a red hat for Archbishop Farley. Before tonight there will be at least twelve archbishops, fifty bishops, twelve vicar generals, fifty monsignors, with many clergy of lesser rank.
