Try for Health

222 South Peoria St.,
CHICAGO, ILL., Oct. 7, 1902.
Eight months ago I was so ill that I was compelled to lie or sit down nearly all the time. My stomach was so weak and upset that I could keep nothing on it and I vomited frequently. I could not urinate without great pain and I coughed so much that my throat and lungs were raw and sore. The doctors pronounced it Bright's disease and others said it was consumption. It mattered little to me what they called it and I had no desire to live. A sister visited me from St. Louis and asked me if I had ever tried Wine of Cardui. I told her I had not and she bought a bottle. I believe that it saved my life. I believe many women could save much suffering if they but knew of its value.

Georgia Dunbar

Don't you want freedom from pain? Take Wine of Cardui and make one supreme effort to be well. You do not need to be a weak, helpless sufferer. You can have a woman's health and do a woman's work in life. Why not secure a bottle of Wine of Cardui from your druggist today?

What Wayne Republicans Think of Their Candidate:

Recognizing the fact that the south-western part of the State is entitled to at least one representative on the State ticket in the coming campaign; that the progress made by this section both in business and Republicanism no longer leaves us in the background of State politics; and in view of the fact that we have a worthy son of this county aspiring to the nomination for State Treasurer, a man whose business ability, personal integrity, political sagacity and party zeal is of the highest type; a man who would carry honor, dignity, efficiency and courtesy to the high office to which he aspires; a man whose life and character has been such that he is idolized by his own party, honored by his opponents and respected by all who know him, and a man for whose candidacy and aspirations, we have no apologies to make; therefore, be it

Resolved, That we hereby endorse and heartily approve of the candidacy of the Hon. T. T. McDougal for the nomination for State Treasurer, and the delegates this day chosen to represent Wayne county in the State convention to be held in the city of Wheeling on the 12th day of July, 1904, be and they are hereby instructed and directed to cast the entire vote of Wayne county in said convention for the Hon. T. T. McDougal for State Treasurer, and use all honorable means at their command to secure his nomination.

Adopted by convention
June 18, 1904.

THE PRESS Should Be Recognized

It looks like T. T. McDougal, of the Ceredo Advance, is going to land the Republican nomination for the office of State Treasurer. He is said to be a fine man, and his nomination will be a recognition of the Republican press of the State.—Mercer Republican.

T. T. McDougal, of the Ceredo Advance, seems to have the unanimous support of the newspapers for the nomination for State Treasurer. It is obvious, therefore, that he would get the nomination if the newspapers should run the Republican convention.—Fairmont West Virginian.

Editor T. T. McDougal, of the Ceredo Advance, wants to be State Treasurer and we think he ought to be nominated. No doubt he, with his paper, has done more to reduce the big Democratic majority in Wayne county than any other one man in it. The press should be recognized by the Wheeling Convention.—Morgan Messenger, Berkeley Springs.

Treasurer McDougal.

The Record joins the press of the State in thus publicly recognizing the editor of the Ceredo Advance, Mr. Thos. T. McDougal as worthy of the nomination for Treasurer by the Republicans. Eternity will only tell how much editor McDougal has done for his party; the columns upon columns of matter published week after week and year after year in the interest of his party for nothing; without money and without price; often pressed for means to pay expenses, and now the bestowal of this honor on Mr. McDougal would be but an act of deserved recognition. Other good men have been mentioned for this office and the Record likes them but none are more deserving than Mr. McDougal.—Roane Co. Record.
