An even break.

Brown was eustard pie, but the pretzel diet could not be digested. The sphere was as big as a balloon in the morning, but dwindled to the dimensions of a marble in the afternoon.

Both Wheeling twelfth were hit hard, but two errors were directly responsible for six runs in the second game. McNamara offset with a pair of scales in the afternoon. He made some close decisions which were greeted with hisses, but he was doing his level best, and managed to even up. If McNamara's judgment is a trifle faulty, he at least possesses the merit of honesty.

The morning victory swelled the crowd in the afternoon. The attendance was about 2,000, with a very fair proportion of the "knocker" element. With all due respect to this class of patrons, and conceding their right to "root" for the visiting club, it might not be out of place to call attention to the fact that nothing so discourages a home team as "roasts" from those whom the players have a right to regard as their friends.

The attendance at the morning game was poor, and if any "knockers" slipped through the gates, they maintained a discreet silence. They had no opportunities. It was Wheeling's game from the start, and it was won by good work with the stick, a department of the game in which Wheeling has been lamentably weak during the past seven days. Brown did not settle down until Wheeling had secured a lead of seven runs, and when he became effective "Joe" Garvey let out a few licks in his pitching arm, and allowed the visitors to come within three runs of tying the score.

The home players started to slug the ball in the first inning, and when the game was half over they had piled up fourteen runs. "Pap" O'Brien did splendid work with his willow stick, smashing out three doubles and a single and drawing two bases on balls. Messert also had his bat eye with him, and made two singles and a double. Every player got a hit but Whaley, who also failed to connect safely in the second game. The score:

AFTERNOON GAME.

The home players continued their batting streak of the morning for one inning in the afternoon. Then it was all off, and only three more hits were made in the game. Dayton was lucky in cutting off hits, however. Messert and Coyle made drives which would ordinarily have been good for two bags, but which were gathered in by the opposing fielders. There was some brilliant work on both sides, and two inexcusable and very costly errors by Wheeling.

Lyons was the bright particular star for Wheeling. He made a one-hand stop of an infield hit that was a beauty, and in the sixth inning he made clean steals of second and third bases. He was full of "glitter" and very much in evidence on the lines. Curtis made a beautiful running catch against the fence, which cut off a two bagger. Dayton hit Campbell hard enough to win the game, but six scores were chalked against Wheeling which should not have been made. It was in the sixth inning. Reagan had gone out on a fly, and Marty Hogan was thrown out in trying to steal second. Torreyson was allowed to walk to rest for the third time.

Then trouble came. Flick made a nice hit to centre which sent Torreyson around to third. Reagan hit in the infield. The ball bounced toward Coyle. He got one hand on it and fumbled Torreyson to score. Then Weand knocked a line drive to McGinniss. "Mac" got it after a lively sprint, but dropped it. Carson, Greenwald, Lovitt and G. Reiman hit safely, and six runs were piled up, all unearned.

In the first inning for Wheeling, Curtis led off with a double, O'Brien and Coyle singled, and Lyons beat an infield burn to first. McGinniss fanned. Easton sacrificed, and Whaley spoiled a good thing by striking out. In the fifth inning Campbell caught an outshoot on the end of his bat, which dropped on the east side of the left field fence. No more hits were made in the game by the home players.

MANFIELD TOOK BOTH.

MANFIELD, O., May 31.—Big crowds saw both morning and afternoon games, both of which were won by the home club through superior work with the stick. In the morning game Springfield only scored two singles off Beadle, and should not have made a run, while McElwaine was pounded hard and given loose support. The afternoon game was a slugging match, with a slight advantage for Manfield, although the visitors made the greater number of hits. Morning game: Manfield, 10; Springfield, 2. Springfield, 10; Manfield, 2. Batteries: Beadle and Lynch; McElwaine and Williams. Second game: Manfield, 10; Springfield, 14. Springfield, 10; Manfield, 2. Batteries: Beadle, Van Gieson and Lynch; Whitridge and Williams.

THE LUCKY YANEGANS.

NEW CASTLE, Pa., May 31.—Toledo failed to put in an appearance for the morning game, and it was declared forfeited to the home club by a score of 9 to 0. The afternoon contest was witnessed by a good sized crowd and was won by the visitors through wretched errors behind Hickman, who pitched an excellent game. The score: New Castle, 9; Toledo, 0. Batteries: Hickman and Donovan; Kirby and Arthur.

YOUNGSTOWN WON BOTH.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., May 31.—The home club celebrated its return from the west by taking both games from Fort Wayne, in the presence of large crowds. In the morning game Kimble was in the box, and although Youngstown was outbatted, the home players were fortunate in bunching their hits. In the afternoon the home team took the lead in the first inning, and Fort Wayne played a good uphill game, almost doing the score in the ninth. Morning game: Youngstown, 10; Fort Wayne, 8. Fort Wayne, 10; Youngstown, 8. Batteries: Kimble and Zinzin; Darby and Campbell. Afternoon game: Youngstown, 10; Fort Wayne, 8. Fort Wayne, 10; Youngstown, 8. Batteries: Jordan and Zinzin; Seever and Campbell.

NEW YORK, May 31.—Twenty thousand persons saw the New Yorks administer a good drubbing to the Pirates this afternoon at the Polo grounds, the morning game having been postponed on account of rain. It was all over after the first inning, when the Giants scored eight runs on a double, a couple of singles and errors by the Pittsburgh men. Tannehill went to pitch for Pittsburgh, but could stand the pace for only two innings, when Hastings relieved him and pitched good ball. Ruste was in good form and pitched a pretty game. The score: New York, 10; Pittsburgh, 2. Batteries: Hastings and Patsley; unpaired, Murphy; attendance, 600.

BASE BALL DRIFTS.

When Rickert stepped to bat at Springfield the other day, he was presented with a gold watch by his friends in that city.

The Wheeling team has been in bad form for several days. Taylor's injury necessitated his laying off, but he will probably be back in his old position at short to-day, and he will strengthen the club, especially in batting. The management has hies out for a change catcher, who will alternate with Messert behind the bat and in right field.

Ladies' Day.

Arrangements had been partly made for a game with Dayton on Wednesday, which is an open date, but it was declared off on account of the bad shape the home club is in at present. The last game of the series will be played this afternoon, with Coyle in the box for Wheeling. Cland is in excellent shape, and feels confident of landing the last game for the home club.

Lyons was off in his fielding at Dayton, and Capt. O'Brien says he holds the record for the longest and highest throw to first base. Lyons is so reliable that an occasional error is excusable.

There were 1,200 paid admissions in Dayton Sunday, and 2,500 in Springfield. Wheeling would have reaped the financial benefit from the crowd at Springfield on the previous Sunday, but for the rain.

Springfield will play here the last half of the week, and Mansfield will pay a return visit the first three days of next week. Both are strong, and the local team will be given a stiff argument.
