The Wheeling Knights were met at the Bellaire ferry landing by Hope ual, will be served, and it is be Commandery and, headed by Heatherington's band, were escorted to the church, where services were had appropriate to the day. A sermon was delivered by Rev. Bro. J. T. Foster, which was most enjoyable. The music reniered by the choir was very fine, and the celebration as a whole is one which must be long remembered and cherished by all the Knights that were privi-

ery No. 1, who had been invited by the Sir Knights of Cyrene to accompany them on the trip. Everything had been arranged by Sir Knights Shaffer, Wilson and Browne. The committee was ably assisted by Sir A. A. Franzheim and other Knights of No. 7, and every Sir Knight who accompanied them were made to feel at home during every moment of the round trip. When the train arrived at Sistersville, a number of Fraternity of that town pursuaded them to dismount from the train and take in he town. Headed by the Opera House Band, they marched through many of the principle streets, and to the Manhattan Club room, where an elegant luncheon was spread, and partaken by all. Such a good time was being had that time flew, and they might have been there yet, but for Sir Hendershot (cur train conductor) coming after them
