

THE DAILY INTELLIGENCER Will be furnished to subscribers living in any part of the city or suburbs, at 10 cents per week, by leaving their names at the office, or at Mooney's Literary Depot, corner Main and Monroe streets.

SUPERIOR NEWS INK.
We have just received at this office, another lot of the superior News Ink—the best in the country. Orders from country agents promptly filled. Terms cash.

CASH NOTICE.
On and after JANUARY FIRST, 1858, all retail sales will be for cash, by [dec30] MANSIE & WAYMAN.

We request that our patrons would always hand in their advertisements by three o'clock in the afternoon, in order to secure their insertion in the morning following. The crowd of night work renders it necessary.

An Incident.—We witnessed a little controversy yesterday, on Main street, very pleasant indeed, to contemplate, as it brought out some pretty little bits of character heretofore undiscovered. A young lady in coming down the street, near Orr's Book store, met a gentleman going up. Each took possession of the awkward but very common error, of trying to pass on the same side, which if persevered in, must inevitably result in a collision. Knowing this the two concluded, by a quick thought, simultaneously, to pass on the other side, but the same difficulty presented itself and the original trial was repeated with only a partial success, as they rubbed so close together, that the fringe of the lady's shawl grasped the gentleman's coat button, dragging the garment from her round white shoulders to the ground. They had evidently met for the first time. The gentleman replaced the shawl, stammering out all sorts of apologies, while the lady blushed and continually assured him that it didn't make the slightest difference. The lady tripped off down town, and the gentleman looked after her with such unmistakable admiration, that we indulged in the luxury of feeling privately and silently wishful towards him. Who knows but this little circumstance may end in matrimony, and consign both parties to a life of happiness or misery.— Who knows? Who cares?

Theatre.—The theatrical company of Messrs.
Mecker & Tozer, have concluded to remain one night longer, and this evening is set apart to conclude the season, with a grand benefit of the Managers. The "Hunchback," an admirable production, as all theatre goers know, is to be presented, and the performance will conclude with the favorite comedy of the "Honey Moon." Mr. W. H. Mecker, in the series of representations with which he has favored our people, has satisfied all discriminating lovers of the drama, that he is an actor of no mean pretensions. He possesses a fine perception of his characters, displays good taste, sound judgment, and never fails to render his part in a judicious and natural style.

Mr. J. B. Tozer, the humorous man of the company, is the perfect embodiment of fun, and never fails to convulse his audience with laughter. The talent of the beneficiaries ought to insure a crowded house. That excellent and favorite actress, Miss E. Mitchell, will appear as "Julia," and "Juliana." This is positively the last night of the season.

"Boots" at the Theatre.—What visitor to the theatre has not heard the deafening and universal howl of "boots! boots! boots!!!" We venture to say it has been the cause of more annoyance than all the incidental disorder combined. We are in doubt as to who are most to blame in the matter, those who occupy the balancing of the balustrade with their feet or those who join in the hated cry of boots. Both are in bad taste. It has been well said that if "a man feels that he unconsciously seeks to place his feet on a level with his head, he should contend himself with a back seat. Soles are there made visible, which are not called to judgment and are more appropriate still.

Stealing Candies.—A disreputable woman named "Sairy Ann," was caught yesterday afternoon, in the act of filling her pockets with a variety of candy birds, cats, dogs, ships, swords, cigars, and other "gim cracker," in a confectionary establishments up town. She was compelled to disgorge, and ordered to leave the place immediately, under penalty of a speedy arrest and punishment.

Abusing a Woman.—A man named Amek, was up before Ald. McCortney, yesterday morning, for forcing open the door of a woman named Jane Carr, in East Wheeling, and abusing her without provocation. He was fined five dollars and costs. Another warrant had been issued for his re-arrest, upon a similar charge.

The River.—The river was coming up slowly yesterday with 10 feet 5 inches water. The landing was muddy and unfavorable to shipping.
Little business was transacted.

The Courier left last evening with a profitable trip for Cincinnati. We have still regular packets to Pittsburgh, Parkersburg, Steubenville, Sunfish and Cincinnati, all doing a thriving business.

Silvester Eve Ball.—The German Turners Association, will hold a grand concert and Ball at the Melodeon, on Thursday evening next—Silvester Eve.

Sent to Jail.—Timothy Dagan and his wife were tried before Esquire Martin in Ritchie town, on Monday for disorderly conduct. Both were sent to the county jail.

Quit Notice.—The cash notice published in our columns by McClallens & Knox, applies only to their retail establishment.

Money has on hand this morning, all the latest papers and periodicals. Give him a call.

THE CAPTURE OF WALKER!

Important & Interesting Details
By the latest mails last night, we have the following particulars of the capture of General Walker and his Nicaragua adventurers, which we copy from the N. Y. Tribune:

GREYTOWN, Dec. 12, 1857.
The Wabash is ordered to set sail for Aspinwall to-day, and I proceed to give you an account of what has happened here since the last advice. On the 30th ult. Commander Chatard addressed the following note to Walker:

U. S. STEAMSHIP SARATOGA, OFF GREYTOWN, Nov. 30, 1857.
Sir: I have been informed through Mr. Green, H. B. M.'s Consul, that you meditate seizing the English mail from Costa Rica, with American English and letters of merchants of other nativity—besides, there may be money.—Now, I warn you not to touch it, and to allow it to come safely to hand here. If you do not, I will proceed against you without hesitation in the manner I sent you word the other day. In a few days the American as well as the English Commodore will be here, and all your acts of violence will then be more particularly noticed.

Yours, Respectfully,
FRED'K CHATARD, Commander.
This communication was sent to Walker through the English Consul, who attached to it his seal of office, with the British arms, showing that the representatives of both Government were united in the action they intended to take in case the filibusters interfered with the English mail from Costa Rica.

This decided action of Commander Chatard, and his threat to blow the pirates from the Point with shot and shell, must have dumbfounded the man of destiny; he could make no reply.—
The next day the following letter was sent to him:

U. S. S. SARATOGA,
SAN JUAN DEL NORTE, Dec. 1, 1857.
Sir: Lieut. Cilley, the bearer of this, is one of the officers to whom you yesterday offered the gross indignity of threatening to shoot them.
Now such an insult to officers of the United States Navy is a national offense. You certainly act with very little policy; for surely, if you were to dare to touch one of my officers I would feel justified to retaliate to the extreme, and would not hesitate to do so. I will lay the matter before the Commodore when he arrives, and no doubt he will feel the insult more deeply than myself. I received your dispatch and will forward it to him.

Respectfully,
FRED'K CHATARD, Commander.
Genl. Wm. Walker,
The gross insult which called forth the above, was Walker's threatening to order his soldiers to fire on United States Naval Officers, who had presumed to land on Punta Arenas, should they again do so without regarding the hail of his sentinel, or obtaining permission from his officer of the day. A pretty state of affairs, truly, when a burglar takes possession of your house, and prohibits an honored guest the liberty of roaming your grounds. Walker's sentinels in good sooth! What right has he to place sentinels, or interfere with any man's movements?
When taking this letter on shore, Lieut. Cilley very properly disregarded the sentinel's hail, and marched with his men, armed and ready for action, with their guns loaded with ball and on the full cock, into the presence of the would-be-ruler of Nicaragua. When he saw Lieut.
Cilley, with his brave little band of sailors and marines, the grey-eyed man trembled; he found that Capt. Chatard was not to be trifled with, and that Lieut. Cilley was prepared to shoot as well as he. Had this infuriated man possessed a grain of common sense, he would have apologized to Lieut. Cilley; but he did not; and only remarked that "he would be very happy to see the Commodore."

In the afternoon the boats of the 'Saratoga' were out practising the men with the howitzer and small arms; they went near the point below the Transit Company's premises, where a company of Walker's men were stationed. These fools drew themselves in battle array, as if to resist the sailors had they wished to land, which they had no orders to do; but amused themselves by firing round shot and minnie balls across the point and over the heads of the filbusters into the sea. This demonstration on the part of the commander of the 'Saratoga,' evidently frightened Walker, for that evening he withdrew all his men from the point below the Company's works, and concentrated his whole force around the shanty which he dignified as the head-quarters of the Nicaraguan army.— Another letter was sent him on 2d inst.

U. S. S. SARATOGA, Dec. 2, 1857.
Sir:—As I am entirely opposed to harming any one unless I know I have full right, and very good reason to do so, I wish to notify you in time, that your men on the point are in the way of any shot I may have to fire to bring vessels to, so that I may fully inquire into their character. Of course I do not admit your claim to the soil, nor can you yourself in earnest imagine that any nation of the civilized world can do so either.

Respectfully, FREDERICK CHATARD, Gen. WILLIAM WALKER, Commander.
To none of these letters from Captain Chatard has Walker been able to reply one word, and now that he is distinctly informed by a United States officer that he has no rights in the country, it is to be hoped he will remove before blood is shed. Captain Chatard has informed the people in Greytown, and we have also been assured by Dr. Green, the British Consul, that Walker shall be sent out of the country by English or American men-of-war, and to this assurance we confidently rely.

On the excellent American Consul, Mr. Cottrel, and to Captain Joseph N. Scott, we are indebted for having Walker painted in his true colors to the estimable commander of the 'Saratoga'; to him truly are the inhabitants of Greytown greatly indebted, and we sincerely trust the United States Government may reward him as he deserves.

Here is a placard which was posted up about town:
"WANTED!—For the Commander of the United States sloop-of-war 'Saratoga,' Private Tutor; one who understands the rudiments of the English Grammar will answer. Apply on board, or to Dr. Green, her British Majesty's Consul, Greytown."

This was posted on the American and British Consulates, the Mayor's residence, the Station-House and Mrs. St. Nicholas Hotel. Several officers from the 'Saratoga' came on shore after men; the offensive placards were speedily torn down and great indignation expressed. I never saw gentlemen so excited, and it would have gone hard with the author had he fallen in to their hands. The British Consul offered a reward of $20 for the discovery of the perpetrator and the officers of the 'Saratoga' have sworn his destruction whenever found. It was doubtless the work of some private from the Point.

Commodore Paulding arrived here on the 6th and soon received news that the pirates, under Anderson, had surprised the garrison at Castillo, and taken all the lake steamers. We were also at once made aware, through the Consul, Mr.
Cottrel, that decisive measures would be taken against the filibusters. In company with the Wabash came the English line-of-battle ship Brunswick and English steamer Leopold. Next day the U. S. steamer Fulton, from Boca del Toro came into port, but as the rain came down in torrents, with a heavy sea outside, nothing was done. Com. Paulding had sent word to Walker that he considered him a pirate, and would take him and all his men prisoners. Walker sent Capt. Fayssoux on board the Wabash, to tell the Commodore that he should resist to the last. This was on the 8th, and Capt. Fayssoux and sailors were sent on shore. These united with the men from the Fulton and Saratoga, made a force of 750 men; 450 on the Point, and 300 in boats. The force on shore surrounded the filibuster camp, and the boats advanced to the headquarters of the pirate chief. An officer thereon, jumped on shore, and called upon Walker to haul down his flag and surrender to the United States. After all his boasting, the man of destiny made no resistance, but surrendered himself and his whole force. The whole affair did not occupy ten minutes. The flag was hailed down, and Walker carried a prisoner on board the Fulton, just as the steamboat Morgan came down the river. She was immediately surrounded by the armed boats, and taken possession of for the United States; she was under the command of De Brissot, an old filibuster with Mr. Macdonald, an agent of Garrison and Morgan, on board. There were also on the steamer 40 or 50 Costa Ricans, taken prisoners by Anderson at Castillo, and on board the steamer La Virgen. As soon as the filibusters were made prisoners, the English steamer Leopold left for Jamaica.

Thus ended the second raid of the filibusters in Nicaragua, and the civilized world are indebted to Commodore Paulding for the prompt action he has taken in the business. Walker and the men were sent on board the Wabash; Walker's officers on board the Saratoga. A guard of marines was placed in the deserted camp of the filibusters, some of whom were hiding in the bushes, plundering provisions, arms and ammunition, with the intention of going up the river to join Anderson. On the 10th all these stragglers were captured, including the agents of the New York filibusters, Morgan and Garrison—and this day they will all be on their way to the United States, all the men having been transferred to the Saratoga, which vessel proceeded to New Orleans, Walker alone going on the Wabash to Aspinwall, he having given his parole to proceed to New York and deliver himself to the United States Marshal.
There you may well imagine that the inhabitants of this place are rejoiced at the exodus of these adventurers, and now only await the surrender of Anderson and his party in Castillo, who on their arrival here are to be received on board a man-of-war. I subjoin a copy of the letter from Commodore Paulding calling upon Walker to surrender:

UNITED STATES FLAG-SHIP WABASH, OFF SAN JUAN DEL NORTE, Dec. 7, 1857.
Sir: Your letter of Nov. 30 was received at Aspinwall, and sent with my dispatches to the Government. That of Dec. 2 came to hand yesterday.

These letters surprised me with their tone of audacity and falsification of facts.
Your rude discourtesy in speaking of Capt.
Chatard of the Saratoga I pass without comment. The mistake he made was in not driving you from Punta Arenas when you landed there in defiance of his guns.
In occupying the Point Arenas and assuming it to be the head quarters of the army of Nic-ragua, and your its Commander-in-Chief, you and your associates being lawless adventurers, deceive no one by their absurdity.
Lieutenant Cilley of the Saratoga informs me that he was in uniform, and you say he was in plain clothes when you threatened to shoot him.
While you use such threats it may be of some importance for you to know that if any person belonging to my command shall receive injury from your lawless violence, the penalty to you shall be tribute to humanity.

Now, Sir, you and your fellows are here in violation of the laws of the United States, and greatly to its dishonor, making war upon a people with whom we are at peace; and, for the sake of humanity, public and private justice, as well as what is due to the honor and integrity of the Government of the United States, I command you, and the people here associated with you, to surrender your arms without delay, and embark in such vessels as I may provide for that purpose.

I am, Sir, Very Respectfully, Your Obedient Servant,
H. PAULDING.
Flag Officer, Commanding U. S. Home Squadron.

We have no later news from Castillo or the interior.
It is a most undoubted fact that Dr. Sanford's Invigorator, or Liver Remedy, is one of the greatest discoveries made in medicine the past century. It has been a study of the Dr. during twenty years' practice to find what particular organ, when diseased, caused the greatest number of ills or pains, and his conclusion is, that the liver is the greatest regulator of the system and the most liable to disease, while if kept free from disease is preventive of Dyspepsia, Jaundice, general debility, &c., while last but far from least we mention consumption; for our experience is that more cases of consumption occur from diseased liver than from all other causes put together.

Taking this to be a correct hypothesis, we have but to find a remedy with which to correct the liver, and we have a cure of nearly all the diseases we are subject to by simply using a preventive. That the Invigorator is such a remedy, is beyond doubt to all who try it, for its virtues are such that for all complaints arising from liver derangements, it is an unfailing remedy, while as a family medicine, for all diseases of the stomach or bowels, which are caused in a greater or less degree by liver derangement, it is the safest, surest and most efficacious remedy known.—Pain. Press. dec 7

THE UNION LINE.

BY THE UNION LINE.
TO THE DAILY INTELLIGENCER.
OFFICE, CORNER WATER AND MONROE STREETS.

FROM WASHINGTON.
Dec. 29.—The instructions to Commodore Paulding were necessarily general in their nature, it being impossible for Government to anticipate every state of circumstances, and not until his official dispatches shall have been considered, will it be determined whether or not he was justified in Gen. Walker's arrest.

The Herald's Washington correspondent says it is stated that Commodore Paulding acted without instructions, in his demonstration against the filibusters. The only orders issued, being simply those promulgated sometime since to all officers of the Federal Government, to prevent infractions of neutrality laws; it is furthermore stated, that the administration disclaimed and disapproved of the conduct of the Commodore, and that he will be held to strict account. It was not anticipated that any attempt would be made to arrest Walker on land.
The act being a violation of the international law, but as the administration is without any information upon the subject, nothing can be known as to their views until they receive official dispatches, which will reach here to-morrow.
(Tuesday.)

The Times correspondent says that Sec'y Cass denounces the arrest of Walker and his men by Com. Paulding as illegal, inexorable and unauthorized. Com. Paulding will doubtless be court martialled.
Walker's friends express the conviction that Com. Paulding acted under secret instructions, in proof of this they cite the fact that it has been repeatedly predicted that England and the U. S. would pursue them upon Nicaraguan soil.
Nevertheless the administration positively denounces Paulding's course, denying that it was ever anticipated. The administration is very emphatic in repudiating the action of Com.
Paulding, and denouncing it as a violation of the sovereignty of Nicaragua, and of the American constitution. Our power over the filibbusters, it is held, ceased the moment they had entered upon the jurisdiction of foreign power.
There is no doubt that Com. Paulding will be at once ordered home for trial. The southern men are very violent in their denunciation of Paulding, denying his right to decide that Walker is a citizen of the U. S., and claiming it to be the duty of government to send him and his men back in a National vessel.

Official information has been received, denying the truth of the report, that the dissection of the Indians in Utah, created by the Mormons had been communicated to the Indian borders of California. All remained quiet and so far as appearances were concerned, there was no reason to anticipate a different state of things. Private letters from California, state that two regiments of volunteers are ready to advance against the Mormons, and that ten regiments could be mustered in less than sixty days, for the same service.

Flag officer, Paulding, details in his letter the circumstances under which he arrested Walker. He says, "the merits of the whole question will be fully comprehended after an examination.
He could not regard Walker and his followers in other light than as outlaws, who left our shores for the purpose of doing rapine and murder. He saw no other way to vindicate the law and redeem the country's honor than by disarming them and sending them home. The letter is principally a rehearsal of what is already known. The Cabinet had the matter before them to-day. Although the arrest of Walker is not strictly justified by instructions to Paulding, it is considered that the case is very much palliated by the circumstances under which he acted, as explained by himself.

Walker will be released from present arrest, and it is probable that a process will be commenced to bring him to trial for violation of neutrality laws.
Gen. Walker arrived this evening, accompanied by Marshall Rynders, T. F. Meagher and Malcolm Campbell. He was received with cheers by a large concourse of people as he entered Brown's Hotel.

LOUISVILLE, KY., Dec. 29.—One hundred and ninety-eight thousand Hogs have been killed around the falls and the pens, this year, up to last evening.

CLEVELAND, Dec. 29th.—Edwin Forrest the eminent tragedian lies dangerously ill at the American Hotel in this city.

RIVER AND WEATHER.
PITTSBURGH, Dec. 29.—River unchanged.— Weather damp and cloudy.

MOBILE, Dec. 29.—Great excitement here in consequence of the alleged intervention of government in Nicaraguan affairs, in the capture of Gen. Walker, by Commodore Paulding.

NEW YORK, Dec. 29.—The U. S. Mail steamship Empire City, from Havana on the 23d, inst., arrived at Havana on the 23d, with California mails. The filibuster's steamer Fashion, and the U. S. sloop Saratoga, were at Havana.

NEW YORK MARKET.
Dec. 29.—Flour declined; 10,000 bbls. sold at $4.20, 25 for State, and $4.65, 45 for Ohio, and $4.50, 47 for Southern. Wheat quiet.— Corn quiet. Mess pork advanced 25c, sales at $15.60, 16, 00. Stocks lower.

BALTIMORE MARKET.
Dec. 29.—Flour dull; sales of Howard street and City Mills at $4.50, 47, 48, on time. Wheat steady. Corn quiet at 45-48c, for white, and 47-50c for yellow. Whisky dull.

HATS AND CAPS.

AT VERY REDUCED RATES.
What a fine day!—A very large lot of Men's, Youth's and Boys' Hats and Caps, which were purchased since the advent of the present money crisis and were bought for cash, consequently were purchased at unusually low rates, and we will sell them from 20 to 35 percent lower than they were ever offered in this city. We can offer good cloth caps at 30 cents and upwards, and plush caps from 25. Therefore all persons in want of a good fall or winter cap, and wishing to save money these
