The Senatorial Concention at Moundsvile yesterday nominated Mr. James Neeson, of out upon the ice and dipped up a bucket . Marion, as the candidate of the Democracy for water Placing the bucket on the shore sl the State Senate on the 11th ballot. Mr. Wm. Bewman, of Tyler, was the next best, among had purposely left on the outer edge of the ice sone balf dozen candidates. There was a full atendance at the Convention, and considerable arthusisem was manifested

The Weekly Intelligencer will be ready today, and can be had at the counting room, with or without wrappers. We could more readily tell what is not in the paper for this week than we could enumerate its contents. It is sufficient to say that it contains the usual variety of interesting news and miscellaneous matter.

Accident on the Hempfield .- Yesterday morning a man named Patrick M'Cune, met with an accident an Claysville, on the Hempfield railroad, by which he had a leg broken.-There was a land slide at or near Claysville, and the train for this city was running backwards lie. and forwards endeavoring to work through .-McCune being engaged between two cars, had his leg crushed by a movement of the train.

More Suits on Railroad Bonds .- Suits have been instituted in the Circuit Court of the United States, against Washington county, Pa. by Lewis H. Meyer and Nicholas Stradlman, two of the holders of Bonds, issued by that county to the Hempfield Railroad company. The plaintiffs, as we understand, reside in the city of New York, and have brought suit to recover the interest due upon the bonds in their pessession. The writs were served on Saturday last.

Delegates Arrived .- The McLure House was besieged last night by the unterrified democracy from the mountains, who came in swarms to attend the Congressional Convention at the Court House to-day. That committee of Mr. Clemens, and there is no doubt entertained Druggists. of his easy nomination this afternoon.

Runaway .- Yesterday morning two very large mules hitched to a two horse wagon, were observed to be coming down Market street at a fearfully rapid rate. The driver was doing his utmost to check the long eared quadrupeds by pulling at the lines, but it was momentarily expected that he would be dashed to the ground and very bady injured. At Wickham's Auction Rooms, a young man relieved the suspense of bystanders by rushing into the street, seizing the bridle reins and bringing the runaways to a Drowned Almost. - On Tuesday evening 1859. a Hibernian drove a horse into the river at the landing for the purpose of allowing him to drink. Seeing the animal going beyond his depth, the driver pulled so hard on the lines as to draw his (the horse's) head under water. The horse, after floundering about for a while, fell down and floated out with the current, carrying cart and driver along. A line was thrown out to the struggling driver, and upon taking hold of it he was pulled ashore. The mate of the steamer Courier, with the assistance of others, also succeeded in rescuing the horse and cart, after considerable labor.

The Steamboat Wenona, bas arrived safely at Cincinnati, after all her trials and troubles in getting away from White's ripple.-The Pittsburgh Dispatch of yesterday gives the particulars of a threatened battle between those persons who attempted to capture the boat at White's ripple and the Captain and crew of the Wenona. On Friday last the Wenona was hard aground at White's ripple, Capt. Florer on board apparently taking things easy. The three fourths owners who desired to capture the runaway boat chartered the steam tog Hawkeye for the purpose, and backed by at least thirty men, consisting of draymen, truckmen, porters, &1, &e., bearing handspikes, dray-pins, &c., and proceeded on their journey.

O'd Capt. Florer, happening out on the guards of the Wenona, observed the Hawkeye approaching, and anticipating her arrival, had not been idle. He drummed up some twenty-five men, arming the greater portion of them with old flint muskets, some of them with no locks; others were armed with old rusty sabres. Capt. F. gave orders for every man to take a stateroom and not to show himself until the signal was given.

The Hawkeye came up close, and the leader of the formidable party on board sung, "We have come to pull this boat off and take her back to Pittsburgh." Capt. F .- "All right; what assistance I can give will be at your disposal." The Wenona was soon afloat, lines were attached, and all was in readiness for a trip back to the city. Capt. F. stepped down to the boiler deck; and with two strokes of a hatchet severed the line. Simultaneous with this, the men rushed from the state-rooms of the Wenona, and with pointed guns and drawn sabres overawed the Hawkeye party, who took refuge in the hold, cook house and water closets, each seeming extremely anxious to put himself out

The Wenona dropped quietly down the Ohio, and met with no further molestation.

She we rescued and managed to behave herself and at stain from drink until Monday, when she walkwent back after her bonnet, which it seems sl and after gazing for a short time into the turbu lent water, she leaped into the current and wr carried away to be thrown up after many day a ghastly corpse.

BUSINESS NOTICES.

To the Citizens of the Commonwealth of Virginia: On Monday, the 14th inst., there appeared a paragraph in a sheet known as the Dully Times, the sum total of which was, that an unfortunate German woman made application to Alderman Wright to have a rowdy brought to justice, said rowdy belonging to our town; and furthermore, that he (the rowdy) had given me fifty cents to get his hat for him. She had applied to me also to have him brought to justice, which I had refused to do. I am now prepared to prove (to any citizen of the State), that this is a base tie. This very unfortunate woman is the proprietress of a beer shop, known by the name and style of the "Utah House," not only notorious for its bad whiskey, but many other things to numerous to mention. This innocent woman is as full of veracity as a poor man's packet is of sold. I went to the mental mandate of sold. pocket is of gold. I went to the sanctum made notorious for its pistols, and asked one of the men there to cerrect the report of the 14th inst. He said he would see that it was done in the very next issue, which he failed to do. I do not know this mun's name, but I presume he is the fellow that wipes the ink off the editor's fingers when he gets done scribbling, hence the failure. Indignation prevents me from saying more. I remain, Gentlemen, Your most obedient servant,

Washington, Feb. 16. Senate. - Nearly an hour was wasted in a call of the House, there being no quorum present at the usual time of meeting. 1. On anotion the bill increasing the number of surgeons, assistant surgeons and pursers in the navy, was laid on the table.

Mr. Stephens, of Ga., from the Committee on Territories, reported a bill providing a temporary government for Arizonia. He asked that it be considered now. It makes no appropriation

Mr. Kellogg, of Ill., moved an amenament providing that when there are 10,000 actual residents in Arizonia, the Legislature shall provide by law for the election of a Governor.—

The Sec'y of State, Marshall and Judges to be commissioned by the President.
Mr. Stephens said that his bill had been formed on the model of other Territorial bills. It was now too late to change our policy as the gentleman from Ill. proposed.

Mr. Haskin, of N. Y., proposed a new section providing that when Arizona contains the requisite population to entitle her to a member of Congress, that it shall be lawful for the Leg islature to provide for the election of delegate to form a constitution, which shall be submitted to the people for ratification. This provision to be incorporated and constitute the rule of action Appropriate the Senate of Pa., from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, reported the Senate bill granting a pension of $50 per month to the widow of Gen. Gaines, from June 10th, 1849, for her natural life. The bill was passed.

The House then went into Committee of the House then went into Committee of the Marreau from Whole on the Indian Appropriation Bill. The amendment to transfer the Indian Bureau from the Interior to the War Department, was debated. Mr. Blair of Mo, reiterated his former remarks, charging that while the War Depart-ment was arming the troops to assail hostile Indians, the late Commissioner in Indian Affairs, Mr. Manypenny, was arming these very Indi-ans. He quoted from documents to support his

Mr. Greenwood of Ark., said he knew Ur. Manypenny as a honest man. The policy of the Burean is that in all cases where the Indidians are in a hostile attitude, their annuitie u.d every thing else are withheid.

Mr. Cox of O., said such charges as that made by the member from Missour., Mr. Blair, ought not to be made except on the best testimony. The arms alluded to were not furnished the Indians till Mr. Manypenny went out of office, but provision had been previously made from motives of humanity to facilitate the killing of game. There was not a man on the floor who knew anything of Mr. Manypenny, who did not know that he stood here for years fighting the Missouri cormorants.

Mr. Blair interposing.—Yes, fighting them with the Indians. Mr. Cox resuming, remarked that Mr. Manypenny was figting the plundering schems of the arks which the gentleman from Missouri is ndirectly defending

Mr. Bryan of Texas, said that arms are furnished by the U. S. Agents to Indians who use them against the citizens of Texas, and after further debate the amendment was rejected. The sion, such public documents as both houses re-The Citizens' Deposit Bank of quire shall be printed in one lot, thus saving the expanse of separate jobs, was agreed to. Mr. Sewards bill of January 13th, entitled an

> On motion of Mr. Hunter of Va., the Consular and Diplomatic Appropriation Bill was taken Mr. Clay of Ala , moved to strike out the item of appropriation of $75,000 for the expense attending the return to Africa of the negroes kidnapped by the brig Echo.

Mr. Brown of Miss., spoke in favor of Clay's

Mr. Hunter reasoned that if the Constitution sanctions the suppression of the slave trade, it sanctions the humanity with which it is done.

Mr. Seward, Mr. Wilson and all the Republi-can Senators supported the appropriation bill. Mr. Doolittle denied that the American coloby was a failure, in reply to Mr. Clay, who had read an extract showing that the colony is de-creasing by the number of deaths over the births and importations in ratio that will depopulate it in a hundred years.

Mr. Clay's amendment was lost by a vote of 40 yeas, 10 nays, but Mr. Pugh having an amendment to propose and on which to speak, the bill was set aside by special order.

The Cuba bill was then taken up. Mr. Thomon, of Ky.,made a speech on the bill.

He spoke for about two hours in a factious but somewhat rambling vein, interrupted by continued laughter from the crowd, numbering about 2000, that thronged the galleries. He was wholly against the acquisition of Cuba, and expressed himself astonished that the Senators from Louisiana should favor it. The acquisi-Cabas,

RICH GLOSSY HAIR.

TALK of beauty, it cannot exist without a fine head color, then read the following, and if you ask more, and color around such bottle, and no one can doubt: PROF. WOOD'S HAIR RESTORATIVE. We call the attention of al, old and joung, to this won-burful preparation which turns back to its original coorr, that hale—covers the head of the ball with a linuriant growth—repoves the dandruf, itching and allectancets or a place of a continual law or the natural fants or and hence, it used as a r pulper decader for the hair will preserve its color, and keep it from failure to taken a day, age, in all its natural beauty. We call then upon the bald, the gray, or diseased to scape to use it; and surely the young will not, as they value the flux tig lotter, or the witching carl, over, he without it. Its praise is lapped, the tongue of thousances.

curi, over be without it. Its praise shapes the teague of thousands.

The Agent for Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative to Mew Haven, received the following latter in regard to the Restorative, a few weeks since:

Mr. Leavenworth.—Sir: I have been troubled with dandrail or sent for my head for more than a year, my hair began to come out, scurf and hair together. I waw in a New Haven paper about "Wood's Hair Restorative" as a oure. I called at your store on the list of April last, and purchased one bottle to try it, and found to my satisfaction it was the thing; it removed the sent and new hair began to grow; it is now two or three! come in the she for the sent in the place of the was an any of the kind is used in this place, you may have a market for many buttles after it is known here.

Yours with respect, RUFUS PRATT.

PROF. WOOD-Denr Sir: Your Bair Residiative is paying Pany, Woop—Deny Sir; Your Hair Residiative by poving self beneficial to me. The front, and site the fact part of my head almost lost the covering—in tact mate. I have he top of my head is scell stunded with a promising crop of roung hair, and the front is also receiving its benefit. I are tried other preparations without my benefit wherever, think from my own personal recommendation I can induce many others to try it.

Yours respectfully, D. R. THOMAS, M. D. No. 464 Vinestreet.

PROP. O. J. WOOD: As you are alout to manufacture and your recently discovered Hair Restorative, I will take, for whomscever it may concern, that I have used it and known others to use it -that, I have, for several years, seen in the habit of using other hair disconsitive, and that

STOMACH OR LIVER,
Such as Indigestion, Acidity of the Stomach, Colicky Palns
Heartburn, Loss of Appetite, Despondency, Costiveness, Blind and Bleeding Piles. In all Nervous, Ihe unatic, and Neuralgic Affections, it has in numerous instances proved highly beneficial, and in others effected a decided cure.

This is a purely vegetable compound, prepared on strict ly schentific principles, after the manner of the celebrated Holland Professor, Boerhave. Because of its great success in most of the European States, its introduction into the United States was intended more especially for those of our fatherland scattered here and shere over the face of this mighty country. Meeting with great success among theme,
I now offer it to the American public, knowing that list ruly wonderful medicinal virtues must be acknowledged.

It is particularly recommended to those persons whose constitutions may have been impaired by the continuous use of ardent spiritie, for other forms of dissipation. Gerally instantaneous in effect, it finds its way directly to the scattof life, thrilling and quickening every nerve, rasing up the drooping spirit, and, in fact, in tesing hew health and virgor in the system.

Notice—whoever expects to fird this a beverage will be disappointed; but to the sick, weak and Jow spirited, it will prove a grateful aromatic cordial, possessed of singular remedial properties.
