The Fair—First Day.—Yesterday was a very good specimen of the miscellany of the day. If the day had been manufactured expressly for the occasion, the strong wind that prevailed would have been omitted, and the threatening aspect of the clouds at one time, would have been less so, but upon the whole the weather was auspicious. The railroads brought in a goodly number of people from abroad, some of whom brought stock for exhibition, and others came to see the various attractions of these Fair times. The hotels were pretty well crowded and throughout the city there was that bustling, hurrying, holiday appearance peculiar to all such occasions. As usual, there was not a great rush of visitors on the Fair Grounds, besides those engaged in preparing articles or stock for exhibition. The first day of our Fair has come to be regarded more as a day of preparation, than for attractive sight seeing. Thanks to the tasteful eyes and delicate fingers of those ministering angels—the ladies—Floral Hall was beginning to look more beautiful and attractive than we ever saw it. When all its arrangements are perfect it will resemble Aladdin's subterranean Paradise. The Agricultural, Mechanical and other Halls, are filling up rapidly, and there is a most commendable pride and public spirit manifested by many exhibitors. The showmen were in full blast, but owing to the meagre number of the "discriminating public" on the ground, the big men, bearded women, Pike's Peak colts, and ready upases, were not very extensively patronized.

At 2 o'clock most of the stock on exhibition was brought out and paraded several times around the track, lead by that splendid old blood animal, Grey Eagle, and followed by Irreducible, Kansas, and so forth. A finer lot of horses were never before exhibited in this part of the country. The number of entries of horses, cattle, sheep, hogs, &c., is larger than ever before. Notwithstanding the vast number of stalls with which the enclosure is surrounded, a deficiency was discovered yesterday in this regard, and carpenters were sent for to commence the process of erecting more.

In the Agricultural Halls there were a number of valuable patent machines and agricultural implements which attracted no small degree of attention. There were also some vegetables, and particularly "some pumpkins" that were the observed of all observers owing to their immense dimensions.

The Wheeling Watchman.—This is the title of a neat little paper newly issued by J. T. Scott, the enterprising Main street jeweler. The paper is devoted partly to amusement and instruction, but its principal object is to bring to the notice of the public one of the finest stocks of watches, clocks, jewelry, silver ware, and variety goods ever brought to this city. The stock has been collected with great care to meet the demands of this market, and will be sold at prices which cannot fail to ensure satisfaction to the purchaser. Mr. Scott cordially invites the public to an examination of his goods and the full assurance that their style, quality and prices will commend them to general favor.

The Concert To Night.—The immense concert company under the direction of Mr. W. B. Slack, gave another rehearsal last evening, and their singing and playing was even more admired than ever. Miss Burgess, of Pittsburgh, a fine alto singer, has consented to assist in the concert, and will, no doubt, attract much attention by her splendid voice. We expect to see Washington Hall crowded this evening by a music loving and brilliant audience. All who attend will be repaid with a rich and rare musical treat; besides, they will have an opportunity of encouraging genuine home talent. Let all lovers of fine vocal and instrumental music attend.

T. J. Edwards, Main Street, has a large and splendid stock of excellent boots and shoes of all descriptions, for men, women and children. Look over his advertisement in another column and give him a call. Mr. E. has some fine shoes for the ladies that would do a bachelors heart good to look at, and will excite as much interest among the fair sex only equalled by the fare of a bonnet.

Federal Court.—The jury in the case of Young Kemp, charged with robbing the mail, yesterday returned a verdict of not guilty, after an absence of less than half an hour. The case lasted four days.

The case of Charles Price, charged with uttering and attempting to pass as true, counterfeit coin, was commenced yesterday.

City Council.—A regular meeting of the City Council was held last evening. Twelve members answered to their names. The minutes of the last meeting were read, and the Committee on Accounts reported in favor of paying the usual monthly bills. The report was adopted.

Mr. Knott, from Finance Committee, made a report announcing a satisfactory settlement with the city collector for the year 1888. The report was received, and the clerk was instructed to settle with said collector as per report.

The report of the Committee on Streets and Alleys was received and their recommendations adopted, except as to the resolution authorizing the laying of a curbstone in front of Richard Porter's residence.

A discussion arose upon a petition of Mr. Ibbotson as to what is and what is not Webster street, there being some doubt as to the ownership of certain highway heretofore regarded as Webster street, but now claimed to be private property. The matter was postponed for the present.

The Committee on Cemeteries reported the cost of the Peninsula Cemetery at about $10,000, and the proceeds of sales of lots at $4,000. The committee recommended the passage of an ordinance to protect the cemetery and to regulate the price of lots.

The committee also recommended the improvement of the road leading to the Cemetery, the repairing of the fences, &c. No decisive action was taken upon the report, except that portion in relation to the repairs, which were ordered to be made.

The Street Commissioner reported that he had repaired such streets as seemed most in need. He asked an appropriation of $200. The report was adopted.

A bill from the Crescent Iron Works for deduction on Water Rent (as granted by Council) was read and referred.

Mr. Bickel asked for the reconstruction of the footway on Virginia street, Wheeling Island. Referred.

Stealing Gaiters.—Elizabeth Doyle, a young woman of some local celebrity in a reputable way, who wears her dresses a little too long at the bottom and too short at the top, engaged herself as a domestic, recently, in the family of a gentleman who resides on the Island. Elizabeth staid about six hours in her new place and then disappeared in a mysterious manner. A pair of new gaiter shoes disappeared about the same time and in consequence of Elizabeth's peculiar antecedents it was supposed that she might have taken the pedestal coverings with the intention of running them a trip or two. A warrant was issued for her apprehension but she had gone to Parkersburg on a pleasure excursion, and having notified no one of her proposed visit, it was not known how long she would be absent, and the circumstance was forgotten. Yesterday Elizabeth returned and being approached upon the gaiter subject, she became penitent, gave up the new shoes and cried for mercy. She was permitted to go free in consideration of a solemn promise to quit stealing.
