OUT-THE-PIKE

Christmas Party.

The children of the First M. E. church Sunday school and all the members of the church will enjoy themselves this evening in the church with an Xmas party. This is something new in this line, and no doubt will be a success. Not only the members, but an invitation is extended to all. A short, but interesting, program will be carried out, after which the social part will take place.

Bridge Completed.

Work will be suspended on the trestle south of Wheeling Park on the inbound track, and nothing else will be done until spring. A concrete foundation has been built and new uprights have been placed in temporarily for the winter. In the spring this will be torn down and a new steel structure will be built, and the track at this point will be straight instead of on a curve. New rails are being laid along the line, and by spring this will be about finished and then the whole line will receive an overhauling.

Triadelphia Xmas Entertainment.

The Triadelphia M. E. church entertainment will be held in the church next Thursday evening, December 26, beginning at 7:30. There will be no Xmas tree at this entertainment, and the treat was given out last Sunday, but a fine program has been prepared for the occasion, and no doubt a large crowd will be present.

Lecture.

A lecture will be given in the Triadelphia M. E. church next Monday evening, December 30, beginning at 7:30, under the auspices of the Epworth League of this place. Rev. D. L. Reed, pastor of the church, will lecture on "Fun-a-Foot; or, Humor of a Hustler." Judging from the subject, and the ability of the speaker, no doubt it will be largely attended. The proceeds will be used for the benefit of the Epworth League.

Stone Church Entertainment.

An Xmas entertainment was held in the old Stone church last evening, and the house was filled to its capacity. An excellent program was rendered, consisting of songs, recitations, dialogues and both vocal and instrumental solos, after which Santa Claus made his appearance through the window and distributed the presents and the treat.

NEW WARE

Nicely silvered in the newest in plated ware for the table and it not only wears well, but is pretty to look upon.

An engraving dish in the ware is very rare and novel. It has a ribbed section for the reception of cards, so we can see name or cut each end of the dish, which is shaped like a tray.

A stand set contains two cruets, three little bottles for salt and two kinds of pepper, and a bowl for mixing the dressing at the table is another novelty.

An oblong water tray with six tumblers set into nickle silver rims is new and attractive. The middle part of the tray is movable.

A condiment tray in rich new ware shows the lovely old fashioned grape pattern seen on the silver tea trays owned by the grandparents of this generation.

How About This?

A nice home of eight rooms will complete almost now, right on the car line, arranged for two families.

The first two parties to call and accept, can get the property now and only be required to pay $1 a week, each after making a small payment down now or call.

MIDNIGHT BELLS TOLL ANOTHER JOYOUS XMAS

POOR AND DESTITUTE WILL BE MADE HAPPY BY SOCIETIES.

Business Will be Suspended, While All Will Unite in the Festivities in the City.

BY B. B. C.

With the tolling of bells and the wild tooting of whistles, at midnight another Christmas was ushered in—the happiest day of all the year. Never in the history of these nineteen centuries will the day be made so bright and happy to men, women and children as the one that dawned upon the earth today. From the four corners of the globe will come the tidings of "Peace on earth and good will toward men." It will renew the Christ-like spirit, and rich and poor, high and low, will enjoy the day in a manner that will be of joy and thanksgiving to all.

Not only in Wheeling but throughout all the land children last night hung their stockings on the mantle and then went to bed to dream of Santa and his deers. To the children Christmas is always looked upon as the happiest day of all the year, to give and to receive. The story of the wise men of the East who followed the star of Bethlehem to the manger, where they presented gifts to the Christ-child, is all renewed and is retold within their little hearts.

Practically every charitable society of this city united in an effort to bring cheer and happiness to the homes of the poverty-stricken, and Santa Claus did not forget the children of these families in the tenement district and slums of Wheeling—the little ragged boys and girls will climb from their beds at a nearly hour to find their stockings filled with candies and toys. The fathers and mothers will be presented with more useful presents, such as blankets, bed clothing and food.

Many Contribute.

Showing the same civic spirit that has characterized them in all similar affairs, the residents of this city contributed liberally to the cause. Every one of the 42,000 residents of Wheeling and the 125,000 residents of Greater Wheeling will today be given a square meal. Hunger will be banished and the tables of the destitute will contain all the dainties of the day.

Five hundred baskets were yesterday morning distributed by the Wheeling lodge of Elks, in accordance to the custom established some years ago. These baskets each contained a chicken and all other dainties to be found on the table of the rich. The salvation Army distributed nearly the same number of baskets, and their workers visited the slums, where they distributed them. The Guild of the Cathedral distributed 125 baskets, each containing a turkey and 50 baskets of cooked food for the sick.

The little tots whose parents are unable to provide toys were made happy through the work of the Toy Mission, Associated Charities and the various church societies. The orphans were well supplied with toys, the majority being furnished by the Catholic churches.

For several weeks the ladies who launched the toy mission movement have been working faithfully at their quarters over Trusell's millinery store gathering toys to rthe poor. Nearly two wagon loads of toys were contributed, and these ladies had them distributed throughout Greater Wheeling. Their hard work made many homes happ that otherwise would have been darkened by the children being passed by the old man from the North.

Down in the tenement district on the South Side, where hundreds of foreigners are huddled like a car load of sheep, the writer yesterday, on a tour with a party distributing toys to the poor, had an experience he will never forget. Here in one of the tenement houses was a family of six little children. The father was unable to work owing to a broken leg, while his wife lay ill in bed with an infant child. The family were being poorly provided for by the neighborhood. The poor little children were crying for food and asking about Santa Claus. The family was well provided for with clothing, food and toys, and to see the expression of relief and joy on the faces of these poor ignorant people was worth going miles on one of the way for presents for them. If the rich could see more pictures of poverty of this kind there would be more work among the destitute.

Social Functions.

Many social functions will take place in the city. Table d'hote dinners will be given at the Manufacturers and the Windsor, which will be largely attended. Many of the residents of the city will eat their Christmas dinners at the hotels and cafes. Both the White Front and Antler are having special features of an elaborate nature.

Convicts' Xmas.

Behind the gray walls of the Moundsville Penitentiary 1,200 convicts will today celebrate Christmas in an elaborate manner. Warden Brown has arranged a tempting menu which contains turkeys and other tempting dishes and will be quite a contrast from the regular prison fare. In the morning a musical will be staged in the chapel, which will be attended by all the prisoners.

Hundreds of presents have been received by the convicts from their families and friends on the outside. There is an air of joy even among the men who wear the stripes. Eleven convicts were pardoned by Governor Hadley, as a Christmas gift, and they will today for the first time in many years celebrate Christmas at home with their loved ones.

Business Suspends.

With all the industries and department stores closed, business will be almost at a standstill today. Thousands of dollars will spend a day of recreation with their families. While the stores were well crowded Saturday afternoon and evening, there was no eleventh hour rush. The early shopping crowds has had its effect, which is greatly appreciated by the clerks. They are now able to enjoy the day instead of being so tired out from eleventh hour rushes that to them the day is one dreaded.

Weather predictions are for colder weather with probably snow flurries.

WAITING FOR AMBULANCE; FOREIGNER DIES

Augustus Kubsky, a foreigner residing at the Garden boarding house on Twenty-sixth street, died Monday night while waiting for the ambulance to take him to the hospital. Death was caused by pneumonia, which was complicated by acute alcoholism.

Funeral services will be held from the Bertschy morgue on Thursday.

PEACE CELEBRATION

Anniversary of Peace Between English-Speaking People Occasion Yesterday for Expressions

BELFAST, Ireland, Dec. 24.—The celebration of the 98th anniversary of peace between the United States and the British empire was made the occasion today for expressions of appreciation by many of the leading public men in Great Britain, the United States and Canada through the medium of the Belfast Telegraph.

Earl Grey, former Governor General of Canada, wrote:

"The hundred years of peace has been of untold value to the political and social development alike of Great Britain, the United States and the Canadian Dominion. We hope to have a worthy celebration of the event two years hence."

Secretary of State Philander C. Knox wrote:

"This anniversary serves to remind us not of the termination of a great struggle, but of the subsequent passing of almost a century of peace and good will. In this long era of unbroken friendship an English-speaking empire has realized and benefited from our kinship. Neighborly intercourse and trade have developed and grown to colossal proportions."

W. Burnell, Canadian minister for agriculture, wrote:
