I will mail you free, to prove merit, samples of my Dr. Shoop's Restorative and my Book on either Dyspepsia, the Heart, or the Kidneys. Troubles of the Stomach, Heart or Kidneys, are merely symptoms of a deeper ail- ment. Don't make the common error of treating symptoms only. Symptoms treatment is treating the result of your ailment, and not the cause. Weak Stomach nerves—the inside nerves—mean Stomach weakness, always. And the Heart, and Kidneys as well, have their controlling or inside nerves. Weaken these nerves and you inevit- ably have weak vital organs. Here is where Dr. Shoop's Restorative has made its fame. No other remedy even claims to treat the "inside nerves." Also for bloating, biliousness, bad breath or complexion, use Dr. Shoop's Restorative. Write me to-day for sam- ple and free book. Dr. Shoop, Racine, Wis. The Restorative is sold by E. A. Billingslea & Co.

ROOSEVELT VOICES HIS DIS- BELIEF IN CLUBS.

The President's Plea for the Home and His Admonition to Men Who Try to Reform the Country and Neglect Their Own Homes—Good Word for the Farmer's Wife, Who, Says the President, is Often the Hardest Worker on the Farm.

WASHINGTON, July 9.—The De- partment of Agriculture has issued in neat pamphlet form, under the title "The Man Who Works With His Hands," the address which President Roosevelt delivered at the semi-cen- tennial celebration of the founding of agricultural colleges in the United States at Lansing, Mich., on May 31. That portion of Mr. Roosevelt's ad- dress devoted to the great value of the work of agricultural colleges was printed in the papers at the time of its delivery, but the pamphlet issued prints a beautiful tribute to the farm- er's wife. After talking to the farm- ers about the dignity and the grandeur of their station and their work, Mr. Roosevelt concluded his remarks by addressing himself to the wives, and he laid down the principle that the home and not the club room is wo- man's best and noblest sphere.

"Most important of all," he said, "I want to say a special word on behalf of one who is too often the very hard- est-worked laborer on the farm—the farmer's wife.

"Reform, like charity, while it should not end at home, should certainly be- gin there; and the man, whether he lives on a farm or in a town, who is anxious to see better social and econ- omic conditions prevail through the country at large, should be exceedingly careful that they prevail first as regards his own womankind. I em- phatically believe that for the great majority of women the really indis- pensible industry in which they should engage is the industry of the home. There are exceptions, of course; but exactly as the first duty of the nor- mal man is the duty of being the homemaker, so the first duty of the normal woman is to be the homekeep- er; and exactly as no other learning is as important for the average wo- man as the learning which will make her a good housewife and mother.

"But this does not mean that she should be an overworked drudge. I have hearty sympathy with the move- ment to better the condition of the average tiller of the soil, of the aver- age wageworker, and I have an even heartier sympathy and applause for the movement which is to better the con- dition of their respective wives. There is plenty that is hard and rough and disagreeable in the necessary work of actual life, and under the best cir- cumstances, and no matter how tender will have at least her full share of and considerate the husband, the wife work and worry and anxiety; but if the man is worth his salt he will try to take as much as possible of the bur- den off the shoulders of his help- mate.

"There is nothing utopian in the movement; all that is necessary is to strive toward raising the average, both of men and women, to the level on which the highest type of family now stands, among American farmers, among American skilled mechanics, among American citizens generally; for in all the world there is no better and healthier home life, no finer fac- tory of individual character, nothing more representative of what is best and most characteristic in American life than that which exists in the high- er type of American family; and this higher type of family is to be found everywhere among us, and is the prop- erty of no special group of citizens.

"The best crop is the crop of chil- dren; the best products of the farm are the men and women raised there- on, and the most instructive and prac- tical treatises on farming, necessary though they be, are no more neces- sary than the books which teach us our duty to our neighbor and a love all to the neighbor who is of our own household."

MORGAN FAMILY REUNION.

Will be Held at Jerome Park Next Wednesday.

MORGANTOWN, July 9.—The Mor- gan family will hold a reunion Wed- nesday, July 10, at Jerome Park. About fifty from Pittsburgh will arrive here this evening to attend the affair. The Morgans were among the very first settlers here and several of them were famous Indian fighters. The original plot of ground on which Mor- gantown was built was granted for the purpose by Zaqueell Morgan. A large number of the descendants live in different parts of West Virginia and many of them will be here for the re- union, which promises to be an enjoy- able occasion.

SPICY LETTERS FROM OUR ASSISTANT EDITORS

Rivesville Items

RIVESVILLE, July 9.—Everybody seems to report a very enjoyable time on the fourth of July, and no calamities to report, of course, no drunks no fights, makes the news of Rivesville a little shy this week.

We will have to swipe a few items from New Central, Pharaoh's run, Gray's Flat and elsewhere to make out a letter at all but nevertheless the Lone Star goes at random anyhow, so Hello!

Rumor has it that Rev. Carter, of Amos, this county, delivered an ad- dress to the many hearers at the Sun- day school exercises on Pharaoh's run Sunday last which was complimented with praise by scores of people. Also Mrs. R. T. Manley, of Fairmont, well known throughout this section as a fluent and impressive talker on any and all religious occasions, was present and it is useless to say that her presence was welcome and her say- ings very much appreciated. Several others took part which added success and power to the occasion, among them being the old standby of the church and Sabbath school in the per- son of Uncle George Smith who is never afraid to speak the Lord on any oc- casion. Success and three cheers for Pharaoh's run, and Beech grove, New Central, Stafford, Baxter, three prom- inent names but to make a short cut to explain where all these three in one places is located, mention may be made of old frog pond where the mouth of little Pawpaw creek empties into big Pawpaw creek, and it is use- less to say that that section of coun- try has with the last few years be- come famous as a coal and coke cen- ter of no small renown. The people up there celebrated to no little extent base ball games galore, music all over the hills, country people a thousand strong at the station by 9 o'clock in the morning, and as many that late at night. Dance, box supper and other amusements and doings to numer- ous to mention made the day at Bax- ter or old frog pond long to be re- membered.

Several cases of typhoid fever are reported by Drs. Peters and Trippett, of Gray's Flat.

Mrs. Lock, of that place, was taken to Cook's Hospital recently. While others were taken to the Miners' Hos- pital, being miners from the various coal mines in that section.

Gray's Flat is in need of a newspa- per correspondent and that's no joke. See here, who in the world outside of a few Gray's Flaters would ever have known that the gigantic Santford Up- ton, the man who can come nearer shaking hands with the man in the moon than most any other man in the county without tiptoeing, is running a barber shop at Gray's Flat. Sant is well known at Rivesville, having once upon a time clerked on swift occa- sions for Smith Hood, Jr., who op- erates a large general store at this place. Mr. Hood had several other clerks in his employment but none so handy as Santford who had no need for a step ladder, so he was christ- ened the name of high clerk. Sant kept the top shelves dusted, the snow swept off the storehouse roof and the big icicles pulled from the eaves. While the little short runty clerks were doomed to measure up potatoes, pick the bad ones out and throw them over the river bank, Sant had the hon- or of handing down silks and ribbons from the high shelves to the lady cus- tomers. This same identical giant gentleman is barbering at Gray's Flat every Saturday. Rumor has it that once upon a time Sant started from Fairmont with a load of goods for Mr. Hood and on Meredith hill the horse stalled and wouldn't pull the load out of the mud. Sant unloaded the goods shouldered about not much less than a thousand pounds and started for Rivesville right in the middle of the muddy road. Next morning the ground was frozen and the report was that some one had set a row of post holes right in the middle of the road and that they were narrow at the top and a foot wider at the bottom. Sant de- livered the goods, but Hood had to de- liver the horse and wagon.

In time of high water panics at Rivesville Sant came in handy and as a hero many times. It is said that on different occasions he would carry out more children and cooking stoves than any six men in the town.

Hon. Fred Martin, the largest law- yer in the State, in the way of avoid- dupes as well as being a giant by profession, came to Rivesville once upon a time to make a speech in his own behalf. Of course Mr. Martin was a candidate and got beat because he was a Democrat though we all liked Fred, but he had no subject as a rule among Democrats, but he said in his speech that he hoped the cam- paign would soon end as his leg had been pulled for money so much and so often that if the campaign lasted a week longer, his legs would be as long as Sant Upton's.

Now, who would have ever known that this same identical giant was op- erating a barber shop at Gray's Flat every Saturday if not for a newspaper correspondent or a sort of one anyhow?

Next Saturday Mr. Upton will grind two razors and shave the

Shinnston Notes

The Celebration. Without the least doubt the celebra- tion of the 4th of July just passed sur- passed anything of the kind ever at- tempted by the town of Shinnston. The attractions were such as are usu- ally seen on such occasions, speak- ing, music, the greased pole and pig, etc. All furnished ample amusement to the vast crowd present.

To be brief, it was one of those old time celebrations wherein every body seemed well pleased, and were really glad they came.

Death of Henry Gill.

After an illness extending over a period of six months, Mr. Henry Gill died at the home of his aunt, Mrs. Lottie Nutter, on Walnut street, Mon- day. Interment was made in the Hardesty graveyard Tuesday.

Restaurant Closed.

The restaurant on Pike street has discontinued business, the proprietor having sold his outfit and gone to Clarksburg to enter the hotel busi- ness. We wish him success.

Personals.

Mr. and Mrs. John Kirk and Miss Bessie Vandergrift were at Fairmont Friday.

Mr. Will Davis, of Mt. Clare, spent the 4th at this place.

Mr. Ingle Malone, foreman at Riv- erdale, went to Fairmont Thursday. Mr. and Mrs. Fred Nay, of Mudlick run, were in town a few days this week.

A corps of engineers are completing the survey for a switch up Mudlick run, which was begun in the early spring. A coal mine will be opened up in that country right away.

Mrs. Elizabeth Davis, of Worthing- ton, who has been visiting her daugh- ter-in-law, Mrs. Will Davis, returned home Friday.

W. R. Robey spent the 4th at Fair- mont.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Freeman were visiting relatives at Enterprise one day last week.

Farmington Notes

Mr. Peter Henderson, of Littleton, foreman for the Philadelphia Gas Co., was a business visitor here Wednes- day.

Mr. Phalen Anderson, of Hundred, is here doing some work for the Car- negie Natural Gas Company, in the place of Mr. S. N. Elliott, who is sick.

The Fairmont & Mannington rail- road seems to be a sure thing, as there are about one hundred men here now, together with some teams, and other paraphernalia to do the con- structing of the road. The work prom- ises to be pushed with energy.

Several of our people went to the ball game yesterday at Traction Park. They are talking over that three base hit yet.

Mr. A. M. Kuhn and wife were at Clarksburg Sunday.

Mrs. John B. Simpson and daugh- ter, Jesse, of Laurel Point, have left here to visit some friends in Barrack- ville.

Mrs. Beatty, of Ohio, and who for- merly lived here, is visiting among us again.

Mr. L. L. Hupp, of this place, was at Littleton Sunday.

Mr. Lloyd Canning, of Grafton, was here one day last week.

Mr. Howard Burnett is back from Jamestown. He was there with the Fairmont Company. He reports the exposition as not being what he thought it should be, neither the mil- itary company as he was in the hos- pital some of the time.

Life Sentence For Hatfield

MINGO MAN WHO POISONED HIS WIFE HAS NARROW ESCAPE FROM HANGING.

Harrison Hatfield, brother of "Dev- il Anse" Hatfield, was convicted of murder in the first degree at William- son in Judge Wilkinson's court and was sentenced to a life time term in State prison.

Hatfield's crime was a heinous one, he having administered strychnine to his wife at a morning meal, a few weeks ago.

Hatfield's attorneys made a des- perate effort to save him, but the jury on the first ballot stood eleven for hanging and one for life time im- prisonment. After deliberating for almost a day the latter verdict was decided upon and Judge Wilkinson imposed sentence.

Fined for Fighting.

Salvatore Pillireto and Frank Pre- vete were fined six dollars and fifty cents for fighting. The fines were paid.

The French Offer of Good Offices

NOW REMARKED IN PARIS THAT THE POSSIBILITY OF COM- PLICATIONS WAS FORE- SEEN.

PARIS, July 9.—President Roose- velt's decision to dispatch a fleet of warships to the Pacific has led the more sensational newspapers in France to jump at the conclusion that the situation is more delicate than ap- pears on the surface. This view, how- ever, is absolutely repudiated in re- sponsible circles where the utmost confidence is expressed that existing or future differences between the United States and Japan will be amicably adjusted.

Nevertheless, the possibility of com- plications was foreseen when France two months ago in the spirit of friend- ship tendered her good offices with a view to having Japan and the United States conclude an arrangement cov- ering all questions relating to the Pa- cific.

In military circles, where the situa- tion is regarded from a different standpoint, the dispatch of battle ships is considered an elementary measure of prudence, on the ground that strategically it will protect the United States against being caught napping, and, diplomatically, it will force Japan's hand, if that nation har- bors aggressive designs.

A significant feature of the French comment is that the possibility of trou- ble occurring is considered only from the side of Japan.

The Solel regards the San Francis- co incidents as a mere cloak to the real issue, which, it thinks, may be traced to the determination of Japan to enforce her commercial supremacy in China and the Pacific.

"For Japan, now or never," it adds. "In 10 years, when the American fleet's predominance is unchallenge- able and the Panama Canal has been completed, it will be too late."

A Square Deal

Is assured you when you buy Dr. Pierce's family medicines—for all the ingredi- ents entering into them are printed on the bottle-wrappers and their formulas are attested under oath as being complete and correct. You know just what you are getting for each of the ingredients are gathered from Nature's laboratory, being selected from the most valuable native medicinal roots found growing in our American forests and while potent to cure are perfectly harmless even to the most delicate women and children. Not a drop of alcohol enters into their composition. A much better remedy is used both for coughing and for the most distressing cases of whooping cough, croup, and bronchitis. This agent possesses intrinsic medicinal properties of its own, being a most valuable antiseptic and anti- ferment, nutritive and soothing demul- cent.

Dr. Pierce plays an important part in Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery in the cure of indigestion, dyspepsia and weak stomach, attended by sour risings, heart-burn, foul breath, coated tongue, poor appetite, gas, bloating, flatulency, biliousness and kindred derange- ments of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Besides curing all the above distressing ailments, the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a specific for all diseases of the mucous membranes, as catarrh, whether of the nasal passages or of the stomach, bowels or pelvic organs. Even in its ulcerative stages it will yield to this sovereign rem- edy if its use be persevered in. In Chronic Catarrh of the Nasal passages, it is well, while taking the "Golden Medical Discovery" for the necessary constitutional treatment, to cleanse the passages freely two or three times a day with Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy. This thorough course of treatment generally cures the worst cases.

In coughs and hoarseness caused by bron- chial, throat and lung affections, except con- sumption in its advanced stages the "Golden Medical Discovery" is a most efficient rem- edy, especially in those obstinate, hang- ing coughs caused by irritation and excoriation of the bronchial mucous membranes. The "Dis- covery" is not so good for acute coughs arising from sudden colds, nor must it be ex- pected to cure consumption in its advanced stages—no medicine will do that—but for all the obstinate, chronic coughs which, if as- serted, or badly treated, lead up to consump- tion, it is the best medicine that can be taken.
