

WALL PAPER SPECIAL SALE WALL PAPER

To make room for our spring stock we are going to hold a special sale on Thursday the 16th, Friday the 17th, and Saturday the 18th of January. One wishing Wall Paper can't miss this sale as paper will be sold at a very low price.

PHONOGRAPHS

A new invoice of Edison and Columbia Disc Records and Machines just arrived. Come in and hear the up-to-date records. We always have them.

COUGH SYRUP

Take White Pine and Tar for that cough. Every bottle guaranteed. Beware of Imitations. Put up only in the Red Cartoon.

DRUGS

Our drug stock was never more complete than at the present time, especially our prescription department, which we always keep supplied with fresh Drugs.

Yours for Business

TISS & McMORRAN

Newport, Wash.

The Newport Miner

OFFICIAL PAPER OF STEVENS COUNTY

A weekly journal devoted to the interests of Newport and the Callispel valley in particular and the remainder of the earth in general. A progressive paper for progressive people in a progressive country.

FRED L. WOLF, Editor and Publisher.

Entered in the postoffice at Newport, Wash. tonight as second class mail matter.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE $1.50 EACH YEAR

JUST AMONG OURSELVES

I. & W. N. Railroad Time Table.

Passenger Train No. 2 leaves O. R. & N. depot at Spokane, via Spokane International Railway, daily at 7:00 a. m. Arrives at Newport at 9:20 a. m.

Passenger Train No. 3 leaves Newport daily at 5:15 p. m. Arrives at Spokane at 7:45 p. m.

Daily freight from Spokane arrives at Newport at 8:45 a. m. Leaves Newport at 11 a. m.

Several new business structures are being planned to be erected during the coming season.

FOR RENT—Good 4-room house close in; city water; electric lights; $10 per month. A. M. Harris.

D. D. Rosenberry, formerly of this city, but now of St. Maries, Idaho, was transacting business in this city Monday.

FOR SALE—Tamarack or fir wood cheap, delivered; special prices on 10 or more cords. J. Kreiger, Box 164, Tel. 41.

Chief Engineer McCoy, of the Idaho & Washington Northern Railroad, was surveying in the local yards of the company Tuesday.

LOST—One large 2-year-old bull, dark red, very short horns, no brand; liberal reward will be paid. R. S. Proctor, Dalkena, Wash.

The river has fallen so low that the Newport now goes no further down than Blueside. The launch "Skiddoo," Capt. Arnold, master, is making the trips between Blueside and Cement.

County Commissioners Beggs and Fountain were in Newport today, Mr. Fountain on his way home at Locke and Mr. Beggs bound for Metaline to inspect the work being done on the Metaline-Tiger road.

Mrs. Charles Fiedler entertained a number of friends to a sleighride party last Saturday evening. They went out to the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Bobier, about six miles from this city, where they had a very enjoyable time.

Charles S. Freeman, recently appointed city marshal, was badly injured by a cave-in while working at the sand pit east of town getting out material for the concrete work at the Falls. One leg was badly bruised and Mr. Freeman will be laid up for several weeks so that he cannot accept the appointment as city marshal for some time.

Captain Napoleon LeClerc, of the Metaline, returned Wednesday evening from his trip to Portland. As a result of his trip and investigation the Metaline will be equipped with an oil burner, which will greatly improve the service given by the boat and render it more economical of operation. The work of putting in the oil burner will start in about three weeks.

Mrs. W. H. Nebergall, arrived at her home in this city last week after having spent some time at Goldendale, Wash. She was accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. G. O. Hardin, formerly Miss Lela Huggins, of this city, now of Vancouver. The ladies are much pleased to get back to Newport. Mr. Nebergall will arrive here after transacting business in Portland, and Mr. Hardin will also join his wife here later.

To Trade for Newport Property.

A good ranch near Callispel Lake. Inquire at the First National Bank.

J. A. Buchanan, of Lenora, was a Newport visitor last Saturday.

E. T. Montgomery, of Elk, was a business visitor in this city Monday.

Miss Ethel Slack entertained a party of friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Tiss Monday evening.

E. N. Shoemaker, of Usk, and J. W. Cusick, of Cusick, were among lower river visitors in this city Monday.

Thoroughbred S. C. B. Leghorns, two pullets and cockerell, $2.25 per trio if taken soon. Hal E. Fremming. 34-3

Remember Dr. Vinton, of the King Co., will be at Desart's Jewelry Store Jan. 18. See him about your eyes. 34-2

Walter N. Rogers, manager of the Northern Mercantile Co., was a business visitor at Spokane Tuesday and Wednesday.

Bring your pictures to Miller, the furniture man, to have them framed. A complete stock of fine mouldings always on hand to select from.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the Baptist Church will meet at the home of Mrs. R. H. Reid, corner of Cass avenue and Second street, Thursday, Jan. 23.

The new tower on the city hall is rapidly assuming its proposed proportions under the hands of Carpenters Wren and Crickmore. The tower will be used to dry hose and for a location for the fire alarm.

B. T. Foote is at Mead, attending the funeral of his brother-in-law. The young man, who was but recently married, was accidentally killed. While driving a team the singletree of his wagon broke, throwing him out and breaking his neck.

Mrs. Winifreda Motor McClung secured a divorce from her husband, John E. McClung. The decree was granted Dec. 12, 1907. She was also awarded the care and custody of their minor child, a girl 3 years old.

LOST—Between Phillips' barber shop and Torreson's residence, pocketbook containing two certificates of deposit of First State Bank and about $9 in currency. Finder may retain money upon returning certificates to Miner office.

This section of the country will soon be rid of clearing house certificates. Only about 20 per cent of those issued by the Spokane Clearing House remain in circulation, and they will be retired as fast as they come into the Spokane banks.

To the Ladies of Newport—Mrs. Nebergall wishes to announce that she is prepared to do all kinds of plain and fancy sewing at her home on the south side. Children's clothes a specialty. Satisfaction guaranteed. Mrs. Nebergall.

F. D. Eckerson and wife started Wednesday noon for a trip to Michigan, where they will spend several months visiting relatives and friends at their old home. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Jas. Rearick, who have spent several months in Newport.

Away back in September a lot of fire plugs arrived that were ordered by the city and paid for, and were supposed to assist in giving Newport needed fire protection this winter. However, the council failed to order the water company to install them, and the work cannot now be done until spring. The town may consider itself mighty lucky if it does not seriously feel the want of these fire plugs before spring.

Mrs. Hadley, wife of Gene Hadley, died of tuberculosis at her residence in this city Thursday morning. Mrs. Hadley had been sick for some months, and her condition gradually became worse until the end came today. The funeral services will be held from the family residence in this city Saturday morning and interment will take place at Priest River. Undertaker Miller has charge of the funeral arrangements.

The local offices of the Forest Reserve last week sent out to Newport people a handsome booklet entitled "The Use of the National Forests," which gives its readers a better idea of the plans of the government in setting aside vast tracts for the preservation of the forests. The Priest River Forest Reserve, which has its office at Newport, contains a total of 1,221,620 acres, of which 815,100 acres are in Idaho and 406,520 acres are in Washington.

H. Hahder, of Rockford, was in town last Sunday.

J. T. Sullivan, of Coeur d'Alene, was in this city Tuesday.

W. D. Starbird, of Chance, Idaho, was in Newport last Saturday.

Dance at Kelly's Hall Friday evening, Jan. 17. Music by Kirkpatrick's orchestra.

Miller the furniture man has a fine line of jardinières and glassware. Call and see him.

S. J. Appleman, of the firm of D. Caldwell & Co., was a business visitor at Spokane Wednesday.

FOR SALE—Good livery and feed stable location on the south side. Inquire of Reid Hardware Co.

LOST—Brown and white spaniel about six months old. Finder please bring to the postoffice and receive reward.

B. S. Defenbach, of Sandpoint, was in town Monday on his monthly visit to the Northern Mercantile Co.'s store.

The Rebekah lodge had initiatory work Tuesday evening, followed by the serving of refreshments and a social session.

FOR SALE—Span of geldings 3 and 4 years old, weight about 1600; $400 will take them and time given if desired. G. W. Cooper, Cusick, Wn. 34-2

Chas. M. Talmadge has established a wood cutting camp south of town and will employ about twenty-five men getting out ties and cord wood.

A force of men has been at work the past week building the transfer or connecting track between the Great Northern and Idaho & Washington Northern railroads on Third street.

Would like to correspond with parties having to sell 35 foot and longer cedar poles, and also 4 and 5 inch cedar posts 7 to 12 feet in length. Address H. J. Anderson, Box 250, Newport.

FOR SALE—Two 3-inch McClaren cast knee logging sleds, 31 corner bind chains, 18 top chains, 7 sets of stretchers, skidding tongs, etc. Inquire of Appel Bros., Newport, Wash.

The newly-installed mayor, E. S. Appel, started Wednesday noon for a trip to his old home in Minnesota. This is Mr. Appel's first trip home since coming here five years ago, and he anticipates much pleasure from the visit.

Advice to mothers: Don't let your children waste away. Keep them strong and healthy during the winter with Hollister's Rocky Mountain Tea. It is the greatest tonic for children. Pure and harmless. Does the greatest good. 35c, Tea or Tablets. Adam's Pharmacy.

R. K. Kennedy, of Newport, and C. W. Wheatley, of Priest Lake, are organizing the Priest Lake Development Company to put a steamer on Priest Lake and also to build and operate a sawmill and establish a summer resort, etc., on the lake. The steamer will be built this winter, material and machinery having been purchased.

Don't fail to hear Bob Smith, the humorist entertainer, at the Opera House Friday evening of this week. Mr. Smith ranks high as an entertainer and will furnish an evening of pleasure for his hearers. The entertainment is given under the auspices of the Epworth League for the benefit of its organ fund, and should have the encouragement of our citizens.

A new and independent water works system is being put in throughout Halford's addition west of town, which will add to the desirability of lots in that section. A carload of pipe is being used and a temporary reservoir has been constructed on the hill to store the water supply from the springs on Mr. Halford's property. In the spring a large cement reservoir will be constructed.

The Great Northern Railroad started a steam shovel and work train at the job of filling the big trestle east of town last week. Another steam shovel went through here from the east last week, bound for the shops at Hillyard, where it will be repaired and brought here to work on the job. The work of digging was begun just east of the state line in old town, and when it is finished the track coming into the local yards will be considerably straightened and the grade eased.

John Brown, of Locke, was a Newport visitor this week.

A Terpening drove into town with his ox team Monday.

Go to the Opera House Friday evening to hear Bob Smith, the humorist entertainer.

Miss Laura Dodge, of Priest River, and Mr. Ste. Marie, of Spokane, were guests of Miss Brazeau Sunday.

The Oberammergau Passion Play in moving pictures is booked to appear at the Opera House, Friday evening, February 14th.

Free roller skating at Cusick Hall, Cusick, Saturday evening, Jan. 18. Everybody cordially invited. Shoemaker Bros.

WANTED—To purchase homestead relinquishment; terms $25 per month until paid for. Address Box 142, Coeur d'Alene, Idaho.

W. E. Hanlin and wife, of LeClerc Creek, and C. B. McCready, of Blueside, were among lower river visitors in this city this week.

Acting Supervisor R. L. Fromme was at Priest River this week superintending the transporting of a new launch to Priest Lake, for the use of the forest rangers.

Logs for the Panhandle mill at Spirit Lake are being delivered along the Idaho & Washington Northern right of way in Newport, by ranchers living in this vicinity.

Messrs. Jacobson and Montzheimer, of the Fidelity Lumber Company, were at Spokane this week attending the annual meeting of the company.

Hugo Luleich, who went to Chicago just before the holidays to remain all winter, returned to Newport Saturday and expressed himself as pleased to be back to resume life on his ranch near Indian Creek.

A carload of goods, including horses, cattle, machinery, etc., arrived in Newport Wednesday billed to the Cooper ranch near Cusick. The goods belong to the new owners of the ranch.

Hotel business is picking up along with other lines of business. Tuesday night the Antler was filled to overflowing and the office looked like it did in the good old days of last summer.

Taken up at my ranch, three miles west of Cusick, one light red steer, over one year old, no visible brands or ear marks. Owner can have same by proving property, paying for this ad and paying charges. Adolph Selheim.

James E. Fleming, the surveyor, has taken a partner in his business, Mr. J. S. Thomas, who for several years has been in the employ of the engineering department of the Great Northern Railway. The firm will be known as Fleming & Thomas. Both men take great rank in their profession and a successful career is predicted for them.

The New Mayor

took the oath of office Tuesday. We will have a city of 10,000 or 15,000 people; so stated one of the speakers of the evening. His knowledge of the conditions warranted him in making this statement. Newport is advancing rapidly. Do not wait until the prices of real estate go beyond reach. Buy now and reap the benefits of the advance that is sure to come.

Residence Lots.

$50—Two on Fourth street; terms $1 per week.
$62.50—Two on Newport ave.; $5 per month.
$75—Two on Washington ave.; $5 per month.

Business Lots

$500—For 75-foot corner, Spruce and Washington.
$1500—Fine 60-foot corner on First and Washington.

$2500—The only 60-foot frontage open between Second and Fourth on Washington. These lots are in a rapidly growing business district, graded streets, 12-foot walks, all assessments paid. They are bound to advance rapidly in price. The prices quoted are below actual value. Will exchange two of them for desirable residence.

Splendid Buys in Homes

$450—Good 4-room house, close in.
$600—Neat 3-room cottage, 3 blocks from P. O., 50 foot lot.
$1000—Swell 6-room modern house in first-class condition, best residence section.

Farms

$12 per acre—Quarter section, good soil, four miles out, good 6-room house, large barn, chicken house, small orchard and garden, plenty of wood, everything in good condition, improvements worth almost price asked for entire farm.

$15 per acre—Quarter section, 2 miles from town, good house and 10 acres cleared, enough saw timber and wood on place to pay for it.

$27.50 per acre—160 acres, 8 miles from town on State road, good house, fine soil, all fenced, 60 acres timothy meadow, 400 M standing timber, fine river frontage.

I handle nothing but first-class property. When you buy from me you get the best. I have several other attractive buys. Call or write for complete list. Can save you 10 to 25 per cent over what land and town properties will cost in the spring.

A. M. HARRIS.
NEWPORT, WASH.

STEVE HARRIS

Blacksmith.
Horse Shoeing Wagon Making
OPPOSITE MINER OFFICE

WHARFAGE AT REASONABLE RATES

SCROLL SAWING AND TURNING

NEWPORT BOAT WORKS

E. W. STEVENS, PROPRIETOR

LAUNCHES AND SMALL BOATS A SPECIALTY

NEWPORT, WASH.

Advertised Letters

List of letters remaining uncalled for in the Newport, Wash. P. O. to date, are as follows:

Austin, Jacob	Anderson, Mack
Allen, Alma	Baird, French
Beaudry, Arthur	Bremer, Arthur
Barton, James	Borrow, Fred
Barton, James	Curtis, D. C.
Casey, George	Campbell, Dr. T. A.
Carter, J. A.	Collins, D. C.
Davis, J. P.	Dempsey, M.
Burnit, R. G.	Gustard, Einar
Guiley, Martin	Halls, W. J.
Hodge, Elmer	Kelly, Stanley
Key, Chas	Kinney, F. E.
Holmes, Ray	Kinney, Capt Thos W.
McDonald, Walter	(2)
McCamman, Joseph	McCrory, Miss Laura
Nell, John	Osberg, Eynor
Farmbue, O. B.	Turner, W.
Giovani, Francesco V I	Albad, Antonio
Barro, Arto

When calling for the above please say "advertised." R. I. TOWLE, P. M.

THE LADIES' BAZAAR

FOR
Ladies' Furnishing Goods, Notions, Toys,
China, Candy and School Supplies

BOARD AND ROOM

$5.50 PER WEEK

AT

THE BANQUET RESTAURANT

Chicken Dinner Every Sunday

Home Cooking and Baking at the Home Restaurant

MEALS 25c

Next Door to New Miner Office

W. F. MILLARD:

Plumber and Tinner
NEWPORT, WASH.

Fleming & Thomas

SURVEYORS

ALL WORK GUARANTEED

Newport, - - Wash.

A. RAY WILLIAMS

Furniture and Undertaking...

NEWPORT, - - WASH.

Lund Hardware Co.

The pioneer hardware house of Newport is still at its old stand, corner of Fourth street and Railroad avenue. We have just received a carload of common and good sense bobs; also the Marienette and McClaren sleighs, which we sell at Spokane prices and save you the cost of freight.

Double Bitted Axes at 75c, $1.00 and $1.25. 1-4-in. tested Steel Chain at 15c per lb. All sizes of B. B. and B. B. B. Chain, also Lund's Special, Atkins and Simond Saws on hand.

We still have a good assortment of all kinds of Heating Stove which we are selling at way down prices.

Yours for business

Lund Hardware Co.