J. Genge, Dr. E. J. Lent, John A. Swysart, Charles L. Zigler, John G. Grimm, Jacob Lay, Frank Kline, Ralph Seely, Dr. T. P. Moyer and Roy Breckinridge.

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Cleis assisted by Mr. and Mrs. M. J. Harley entertained the members of the Old Time Friends' club and their husbands at a delightful dinner at their home, 114 E. Marion st., Monday evening. Covers were placed for 30 at two large tables, the centerpieces of which were clusters of narcissi and carnations.

The Married Folks' Dancing club gave its fortnightly party in American hall Tuesday evening. The committee was composed of Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Horst, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Parker, Mr. and Mrs. C. Loring and Dr. and Mrs. George V. Nienstedt.

To introduce Miss Alice Goldthwaite of Marion, Ind., president of the Women's auxiliary of the Michigan City diocese of the Episcopal church, Bishop John Hazen White will entertain with an informal reception at the rectory at 8 o'clock this evening. Miss Goldthwaite is in the city to give a series of mission talks before the women of the auxiliary of St. James' church. She gave two talks in the chapel this afternoon and will give two Thursday afternoon.

Invitations have been issued in Cincinnati, O., for several pre-nuptial affairs to be given for Miss Ella Keen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Keen of that city, whose marriage to Ernest M. Morris of South Bend, will take place the latter part of the month.

FLORENCE SQUIRES.

NEW YORK, Jan. 7.—Your not in style in the theatrical profession unless you are wed at an early age. I guess that is why I married John Squires when I was only 15. This was the explanation for her early marriage given by Mrs. Florence Squires, a pretty danseuse, who is now seeking a separation from her husband. Mrs. Squires believes that she can not divide her attentions between her art and her husband and do justice to both. So she has decided to remain loyal to her art.

WILL ENTERTAIN HIGH STUDENTS

Special Program Arranged for Boys' Night Wednesday at the Y. M. C. A.

The high school boys will be entertained by the Y. M. C. A. Wednesday night at the Y. M. interclass contests, with pool, shuffleboard, and bowling as features of the evening. First place in the contest will count 10 points for the class winning it, and the class scoring the most points will receive a burlesque loving cup.

A social hour will be held around the big fireplace in the basement of the new boys' building, where refreshments will be served. A blind-folded boxing contest between representatives of the classes will feature this session.

Enrollment for the high school Bible study class will be taken up by a dozen of the upper classmen, the first meeting of which will be held Wednesday, Feb. 14.

The older boys of the Y. M. have organized a Twilight club to meet around the big fireplace every Sunday afternoon at 5 o'clock, where talks on life problems will be given by prominent business and professional men of the city. The illumination at these meetings will be only the light from the fireplace. "Legitimate Rewards of Life Work," "Recreation—It's Place and Development," "Engagement and Marriage," "Sex and Health" and "Responsibilities of a Citizen" will be some of the subjects used by the speakers. The Round Table will hold a meeting Friday night for the purpose of electing officers and completing a program for the winter. Several farces and a declamation contest will be staged by the club.
