Social and Other Interests of Women

The Sunday school classes of the First Brihren church gave a miscellaneous shower for Mr. and Mrs. Harry Beadles, 748 S. Main st., Friday evening. The evening was spent at games and music. Refreshments were served marking the close. The honored guests were married recently and were recipient of many pretty

The Women's Missionary society of the First Baptist church met Friday afternoon with Mrs. D. M. Calvert, 523 E. Moaroe st. A program was rendered in charge of Mrs. A. G. Keltner, the subject being "The Red Man's Social Life." Those assisting in the program were Mrs. S. G. Chard, Miss Alice Mac-Rae, Mrs. C. Robertson, Mrs. W. W. Davis, Mrs. J. Goodenough, and Mrs. E. Sholly. Miss Dorothy Chard told a very interesting missionary story.

The Woman's Dining club left today for a house party Sunday and Monday at Hain Villa, Diamond lake. This meeting will be in place of the regular monthly meeting.

An attractive summer dancing party was given last evening in American hall by 25 young women of the high school younger set. The decorations were in read, white and blue, suggestive of the fourth. Large flags shaded the lights and were draped over the entrance door. A cosey corner occupied one corner of the room. Each person carried a lighted 'sparkler' during the first dance. Messick's orchestra played the program of 12 dances after which light refreshments were enjoyed. There were 50 guests present, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Millhouse, Mr. and Mrs. John A. Kaufer, Mrs. George L. Hager and Mrs. Flora S. Guthrie were the chaperons for the evening.

Mrs. Edgar Wilson, 523 Cleveland av., was hostess to the Women's Missionary society of Westminster Presbyterian church at the regular meeting Friday. She was assisted by Mrs. J. D. J. Farneman, Mrs. Howard Dawley and Mrs. Alfred E. Beyrer. Miss Ruth Hardy gave a talk on the "Need of Missions Among Women;" Miss Cleo Young talked on "What is Being Accomplished Among Foreign Women;" Mrs. A. S. Roos had a reading on the "Summer Work of the Associated Charities;" Mrh. L. Whitcomb gave a pleasing account of the summer Bible school of the First Presbyterian church which concluded the program. Light refreshments marked the close of the meeting. Guest day will be observed Aug. 6.

WIFE AGREED SAYS SLATON

GOVERNOR AND MRS. SLATONAGA

NEW YORK .- Before leaving for the west on a "second honeymoon" as they phrased it, ex-Gov, and Mrs. John M. Slaton spent a few days in this city and posed for their photograph. In talking of his recent decision in the Frank case, Mr. Slaton said

"There were about 10,000 pages in the record of the case and I read them all. They did not satisfy me of Frank's guilt. I spent a night considering the matter and then I went to my good wife " 'Sally,' I said, 'I have finished considering this case and I am not satisfied that the man should hang. It may mean my death, and it will certainly mean the end of my political career, but I have decided to commute the sentence."
