LAWKENCEBURG, April 14. — Chris LAWRENCEBURG, Aprif 14.—Chris. Frederick, a resident of this piace, was yesterday arrested on a warrant sworn out by some parties in Louisville. The warrant alleges that Frederick sold to the parties named five hogsheads of to-bacco for some $500, and that on opening them they proved to be filled with cornhusks and stalks surrounded by a thin layer of tobacco. Frederick acknowledges the sale of the hogsheads, but says he purchased them in Cincinnati supposing them to be filled with nothing but tobacco, and sold them under the same impression and in perfectly good faith. He is now in jail awaiting examination. He has only resided here a short time.
