

Autumn Millinery Opening

We have arranged to make the first authentic display of Autumn Millinery for both street and dress wear at our store in Leon on

Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 16, 17 and 18

WE have this year given the selection and preparation of our stock greater care than ever before. We were in the market early and made our purchases long before the stocks of the most exclusive styles in the principal Chicago wholesale millinery houses were depleted. Thus we were able to buy to the greatest advantage. We gave much of our time to the careful study of the new creations, both of the French Milliners and of the American adaptations. Rest assured that any hat on display at our opening is correct in shape, style and trimming. We wish to make our store the home of all that is correct in millinery and to that end we strive continually. We are proud of the splendid display that we shall have ready for Thursday, Friday and Saturday, Sept. 16, 17 and 18.

Make a note of the dates and plan to be a member of the great throng that will be our guests at that time. You will be most welcome

Elderly People Helped Free

The last years of life are the sweetest, and yet the most difficult to prolong. It is then that the greatest care is exercised in maintaining bodily health. But the chief care should always be with regard to the food you eat and whether you are digesting it properly. You should not allow yourself to become constipated.

No doubt you have tried salts and cathartic pills, purgative tablets, etc., and have come to the conclusion that they are violent in action and do but temporary good. Listen, then, to the voice of experience with regard to a wonderful and mild laxative, Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. It is not new, only we are trying to find new friends for it. A. A. Feltz, of Johnston City, Ill., suffered from stomach trouble for six years and found his cure in Dr. Caldwell's Syrup Pepsin. His wife uses it too with success. We could name hundreds of others. Some heard of it first through neighbors or friends; others through the doctor's offer to send any sufferer from a stomach, liver or bowel complaint a free sample bottle for trial, without charge. If you will send your name and address he will send you a trial bottle direct to your home. If it proves itself as he claims then continue the treatment by buying a 50-cent or $1 bottle of your druggist, as all of them sell it. Old people, like children, should look for purity, and it is well to mention that the purity of this remedy is vouched for with the U. S. government. Also, though a free bottle is sent to prove its merits, results are always guaranteed from the regular bottles bought of druggists, who will refund your money if it does not satisfy you. Send at least for the free test bottle today.

If there is anything about your ailment that you don't understand, or if you want any medical advice, write to the doctor, and he will answer you fully. There is no charge for this service. The address is Dr. W. B. Caldwell, 500 Caldwell bldg., Monticello, Ill.

Go to their store if you are troubled with Rheumatism, in any form, Excess or Salt Rheum. Buy a bottle of Irish Liniment, follow directions as found on page three of the Little Book that goes with the bottle, give it a fair trial and then if Irish Liniment does not relieve you, to your entire satisfaction, go back to Bell & Robinson, tell them so, and they will on your word, pay back the amount of money you paid them. Besides the ailments mentioned, please see the Little Book about a burn or sprain. It will remove soreness and stop Neuralgia pain instantly. This leaves the matter entirely in your hands.

Locked In Des Moines Court House.

Miss Clara Leahy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Leahy, of Blockley, had quite an experience in Des Moines last week, being locked in the new court house for several hours before she could attract the attention of anyone to release her. The Register and Leader has the following account of the incident:

Miss Clara Leahy of Thirty-first street and Terrace drive was accidentally locked in the women's rest room on the fourth floor of the court house yesterday and held a prisoner until almost 6:30 o'clock. She was then rescued by deputy county clerks who happened to be working late and heard her beating on the door of her prison when they started to leave the building.

Miss Leahy entered the rest room at about 3 o'clock and went out on the south balcony to rest and watch the crowd. A janitor came along soon after and saw the room empty and locked the door. It was a little after 5 o'clock when Miss Leahy discovered that she was a prisoner.

By that time the court house was practically deserted. After beating and rattling the door for some time in vain, the girl conceived the idea of writing notes and dropping them to the street below, hoping some one would read one and come to her rescue.

She had no lead pencil, but she had an old key and plenty of paper. She began frantically to scrawl: "I am in distress, unlock the door," on pieces of paper. She dropped one after another until the ground and sidewalks beneath her was spotted with the distress missives.

Several men picked up the notes and read the hardly legible scrawl, but the notes didn't tell where anyone was in distress or where the locked door was. And besides it was fair week and all visitors were on the lookout for jokes. So Miss Leahy went unaided.

She yelled some, too, in an effort to attract attention to herself, but the noise and hubbub of the state fair rush of vehicles and street cars drowned her cries.

When she had given up hope of rescue from this source she went back to kicking the door and it was then by the merest accident that she attracted the attention of the deputy county clerks. Ordinarily they would all have been home at that hour, but the day's work had been heavy and they had been forced to work late. They rushed upstairs when they heard the sound of her kicks.

"Who is it inquired Chief Deputy Ed Mahan.

"Let me out," came the shrill and only answer.

"Can't have any key," responded Mahan. "We'll find a janitor, though," he added.

Then the deputies began to search for janitors. Their efforts availed them naught, however, until fully three-quarters of an hour later, when they secured a key and released Miss Leahy.

Upon her release Miss Leahy fled from the building. To Deputy James O'Brien she told her name and address and said she was employed at the Royal Cigar stand.

$1000 IN GOLD
For the Best Ears of Corn

We want the best ears of corn that can be grown—not merely the greatest in size—not simply the most bready—but the combination of size, maturity and quality—everything that goes to make a perfect ear. To obtain this we offer one thousand dollars ($1,000) in gold to the persons who send those to Prof. B. W. Crossley, Iowa State Agricultural College, Ames, Iowa, on or before January 5th, 1910.

This contest is open to everybody.

No Entry Fee—No Money—Nothing to Buy or Sell—

no work, simply a little watchfulness, possibly some care in an endeavor to produce these perfect specimens. Millions of bushels of corn have been used during the past few years in the manufacture of Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes. This most delicious of all breakfast foods is made entirely of the Sweetheart of the Best Corn. To further encourage the production of this great American grain—to keep the farmers of the country interested in its development—we make this most liberal offer with absolutely no strings to it.

Prof. P. G. Holden, who has devoted the best years of his life to the improvement of corn, will with his associates be actively in charge of this great contest. Prof. Holden will judge the corn and award the $1000 in Gold, which is now in his possession.

Kellogg's Toasted Corn Flakes is by far the most delicious form in which corn has ever been prepared. If you have never tried it, ask your grocer for a package today. There's a surprise in store for you.

If he doesn't keep it, send us two two-cent stamps to cover mailing expenses and we will send you a liberal test package.
