The Warsaw Gate City

Warsaw, Ill., June 17, 1916.

Frank N. Hashman of Wiggins, Colo., formerly of near Warsaw, was visiting here and in this vicinity, having been called to Keokuk by the death of his mother.

Warsaw's first chautauqua will be advertised by auto in all the surrounding towns during the coming three days and because of the excellent quality of the talent engaged and the being shown to the public, every ticket should be sold before the opening day. Of course, our Keokuk friends will assist us and remember at $1.50 per season ticket, patrons are paying only 12 1/2¢ per entertainment.

Geo. W. Frazer of Walker township was a Warsaw visitor this week. He seems much improved though still suffering from the paralytic stroke received last year.

The Sand and Crushed Rock Co., that the W. C. C. urged Warsaw to join with Mr. John Markman of Galesburg, months ago in forming, is reported capitalized in Hamilton at over twice what was asked here, and then to think that the sand pump and switch are located within Warsaw's corporate limits, and worst of all, Warsaw lost a good would-be citizen in our friend Markman. Cannot Warsaw pinch herself and wake up?

Keokuk has done the right and appropriate thing by adopting the glorious red, white and blue as the colors for the fall celebration in October. Especially is it right because this is presidential election year.

Mayor and Mrs. Wm. L. Hill spent a few days in St. Louis this week.

Mrs. William Price and Mrs. David Price of Hannibal, Mo., and Mrs. David Ayres of Wythe, The Ladies' husbands arrived Friday.

Captain Frank Myers, usually so active, has been laid up for four weeks with rheumatism, and is barely able to be on the street.

Dr. Thos. A. Hartley will attend the meeting of the Adams-Hancock County Dental society, to be held at Hamilton next Monday and Tuesday. He has a prominent place on the program.

Mr. and Mrs. William Flood of Chicago are guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Hammond. Nineteen years have passed since William left here.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Leach and son Willis of Quincy are here visiting relatives.

William Bell is employed as line-man for the Mississippi Valley Telephone Co., at Carthage. He left Wednesday.

Mrs. A. H. McGregor and sons.

Malcolm and John and Miss Eudocia Bardsen have gone to Thermopolis, Wyo., to spend the summer. They will stop at Minneapolis for a day or so to visit Mrs. John P. Hill.

Dr. J. E. Johnston is in receipt of Bulletin No. 1 Portland Cement, published by the State Geological Survey, Urbana, Ill. The book is handsomely bound in cloth and profusely illustrated by photogravures accompanying a description of the manufacture of Portland cement. It fully describes where cement materials may be found in the state. Professor F. E. Wolfe, director of the State Geological Survey, is the donor.

Main street for the past two weeks has certainly made good progress in the remodeling. The old macadam has been torn up by the scarifier, then rolled with the steam roller, then top dressed and re-rolled and most of it is nearly ready for the crude oil.

Miss Freda Berry of Carthage, has been elected assistant principal of the high school at a salary of $70.00 per month.

The board of education has ordered that music, drawing, and physical culture be added to the high school curriculum, provided it may be arranged by the employment of one additional teacher. A science teacher has not yet been secured.

There was a select dancing party Friday night, given by several of our young men, at Odd Fellows hall. Music by Warsaw orchestra.

The following parties representing the Farmers' National bank of Warsaw, on Thursday, June 15th, attended the Hancock County Bankers' convention at Carthage, going over by auto: John M. Hungeate, cashier; Fred Schildman, teller; Henry Zobel, assistant teller; J. C. Crawford, director; W. H. Gray, director; Mrs. Fred Schildman, Mrs. J. C. Crawford. The occasion was a most delightful one, every minute of the time was enjoyed; an elegant dinner was served in the ladies' club, and other entertainment was given; Carthage is noted for her hospitality and she fully sustained her reputation.

Fred Schildman has a strawberry barrel growing in his garden at home, which is a beautiful curiosity and the plants are bearing.

Salt Lake City's manufacturing interests, united for business expansion, plan to cover its trade territory with boosters who are expected to copper every order in sight. New fields are to be invaded as rapidly as means permit.

Hamilton Gate City

Hamilton, Ill., June 17

Mr. Ingle of the Water Power Co. came over to Hamilton Friday evening and met the directors of the Hamilton Rock & Sand Co. Arrangements have been made for furnishing the electric power for this company's sand pump, and the poles have been placed for sending power to the crushing plant. The terms for this part of the work remain to be considered a little longer. If an agreement is not arrived at, the power will be furnished by steam. However, the chances are that a satisfactory conclusion will be arrived at. We have no doubt the electric company wishes to supply all such enterprises as this, with needed power. We also think the Rock company will be glad to have such power unless they find they can get all the power they need for less money.

Miss Mabel Marshall, who has been teaching at Fairbault, Minn., for several years, is spending the summer vacation at the home of her father, Harvey Marshall, this city.

Mrs. Jessie Barlow of Abingdon, Ill., is visiting for several days with her sister, Mrs. Clara Rigg and other relatives in town.

—The road between Keokuk and Alexandria which has been out of commission because of heavy rains, has been repaired and is open for traffic now.

—Mr. and Mrs. Allen J. Woolley will arrive in Keokuk this evening from Enid, Okla. Mr. Woolley will be assistant manager of the Swift and Company's plant here.

—W. B. Woolley and wife went to Fort Madison this afternoon to meet them and bring them to Keokuk in the automobile.

A Whistling Murderer.
SEATTLE, Wash., June 17.—Her throat cut by a murderer who whistled a popular tune as he committed the crime, Mrs. Blanch Coleman, 35, was found by neighbors, dead in her apartment at the Christy hotel here today.

John T. Doudas, cigar dealer, 23, was held on suspicion, after detectives found a bundle of bloody clothing in his room.

Neighbors heard a man and woman quarreling Friday evening. At 4 a. m. today they heard a stifled cry of the woman and a man whistling. The whistling continued for some time. Then the man left.

Mrs. Coleman was the foster daughter of A. R. Grosvenor, Council Bluffs, Iowa. She recently divorced Clyde Harpool here.

Painting, "The Doctor," Brought Fame.

If you have ever visited a physician's office you have seen a picture of "The Doctor." No doubt you have often wondered whether or not the light the tense faced physician was wearing for the life of the baby was successful. Well, it was. That baby is still alive and has a baby of her own.

The baby who posed for the sick child in that famous painting is now Mrs. J. S. Darrie. She is a Belgian refugee and is now living in Philadelphia with her husband and little son. The painting was made twenty-five years ago by her uncle, Sir Luke Fildes, and it is only necessary to look at a picture of the painter to know that he used himself as a model for the doctor.

Mrs. Darrie and her husband, J. Strumpe, were driven from Antwerp, Belgium, in September, 1914, when the German army swept through and besieged Antwerp. They went to England with thousands of other Belgians and from there came to this country. Professor Darrie was instructor with the Belgian Royal Naval association, and on departing from England for New York was offered the management of a school of languages in Philadelphia.

Mrs. Darrie says her uncle, the painter, is becoming feeble and does no work other than a bit of portraiture. "The Doctor" won for him a prize of one quarter million dollars offered by Sir Henry Tate, who gave the famous Tate galleries.

The Darries expect to return to Belgium after the war, as they have valuable property holdings at and near Antwerp. Mrs. Darrie was a resident of Belgium for ten years prior to coming to this country. It was while working in dramatic art that she met her husband, then a professor at the University of Ghent.

A big bull moose held up the St. John express near Bangor, Me., the other day and escaped with slight injuries. A locomotive seems less dangerous than a steam roller.

There are 2,603,766 persons of German birth in the United States.

Paint Boxes Green.
The Civic league has donated $15 toward the white way boxes.

The following is a list of people who have placed window boxes in their places of business. These boxes will add greatly to the appearance of the street, and the committee is thankful for the co-operation given in this respect. There is one request, however, and that is that people who in placing window boxes should paint them green in order to have all of the boxes uniform in color. This is a list of those who have placed window boxes: Blom-Coller Co., Public Library, Duncan-Schell, Dr. Brownlee, Dr. Rankin, S. H. Johnston, Estes House, Golden Rule Dry Goods Co., R. G. Schlottter, Dr. O. T. Clark, Tenth street fire station, Geo. Merriam, Y. M. C. A. building, Grand opera house, Sixth street fire station, C. M. Owens, N. H. Pyle and L. D. Sheppard.

More Mexican Troops.
EL PASO, Texas, June 17.—Three hundred troops in the Juarez garrison were reinforced today by several hundred fresh soldiers who arrived during the night and encamped twelve miles east of El Paso.

With Juarez civilians arming and General Bell at Fort Bliss holding every man in his command ready for any emergency, the situation this afternoon was admittedly dangerous.

However, several alarming reports were discounted by official advisers. General Oregon, Carranza's war minister, telegraphed Consul Garcia at El Paso a denial that Gen. Gavira had been executed as a morning news service reported. Gavira has not reached Mexico City, Oregon stated.

The statement that 1,000 Juarez civilians had been armed by the Carranza commander was proven false.

"LATENT" EYE STRAIN

Do your eye lids stick together when you wake up in the morning? The cause usually is "Latent" eye strain. The most aggravated kind, because it works while you sleep.

Consult our expert. He will gladly tell you what your needs are, what the cost will be and you can follow it or not, as you please.

also. Only forty Juarez residents answered the call for military training and they were armed. A civilian who answered the call have been promised Carranza weapons. Anti-American demonstrations plotted in secret meetings in Juarez are said to have been prevented by cooler heads.

Wheat Takes Slump.

CHICAGO, June 17.—Before the war prices were approached in the wheat market today. Traders who have seen American wheat shoot upward below the dollar mark to some place around $1.70, saw the market back near the dollar mark today. Some said the boom was over—that the dollar mark, claimed to be the highest actual value for wheat, would stand pat again. Others said a new boom would come.

July wheat sold today at $1.00 1/2, the lowest since the first war boom. September sold at $1.02 1/2. Traders said the slump is due to two causes—Great Britain's determination to buy wheat from her own colonies only and the fact that warring nations now seem to have large surplus supplies from their own fields or from orders previously placed.

Daily Stock Letter.

NEW YORK, June 17.—The New York Evening Sun financial review today said: The reactionary tendency which developed in the stock market toward the close of the session yesterday on rumors of impending mobilization of the natural guard for service in Mexico were accentuated this morning by the definite announcement that General Carranza had issued orders that if any more troops crossed the border or if any attempt was made to move the troops already there east, west or south, they would be attacked by Mexican forces.

An irregularly heavy opening was followed by an interval of weakness in the course of which Mexican Petroleum declined about two points while losses ranging from a large fraction to a full point and more were freely distributed throughout the list. Standard railway issues offered greater resistance to the forces of reaction than other groups, but St. Paul declined a full point and Reading, Union Pacific and Southern Pacific and others of that general character gained large fractions. Losses were not much if any in the closing half session. But the market while a shade better, developed no pronounced rally.

Stock Market Notes.

NEW YORK, June 17.—Losses ranging up to a full point were general among market leaders at the opening of the stock exchange today. Willys Overland was an exception with a gain of 3/4. Crucible was off 1/2, Mexican Petroleum 1; Studebaker 1, and Union Pacific 3/4. The market closed dull.

Socialist Found Guilty.

PITTSBURGH, Pa., June 17.—Fred Meick, the socialist publisher, Union orator was found guilty of inciting to riot here today in connection with the Westinghouse strike disorders May 21-22. Rudolph Bloom and Anna Goldberg were found guilty on the same charge.

Killed in Strike Riot.

OAKLAND, Calif., June 17.—M. F. Morey, a lumber handler, was shot and instantly killed early today during a strike riot at the Sunset Lumber company yards. Four suspects have been arrested. It is reported that trouble has started on the water front.

Rioting Resulted from the Strike of Longshoremen and River Boat Men.

The rioting resulted from the strike of longshoremen and river boat men.

Appeal by Railway.

ALTOONA, Pa., June 17.—An appeal was issued today by General Manager Long of the Pennsylvania railroad, asking all employees of the company not engaged in the service, to stand by the company during the crisis threatened by the trainmen, and promises that all who volunteer and are accepted will be retained in the positions assigned them. This is the first time in the history of the company such an appeal has been made.

Axe Murder Suspect.

DES MOINES, Iowa, June 17.—Governor Clarke today issued requisition papers today for the return to Iowa of "Insane Blackie" Mansfield, held at Kansas City, Kansas, as a suspect in connection with the murder of six people at Villisca, Iowa, with an axe, four years ago. County Attorney O. T. Gillett will go after him tonight, first taking his papers to Topeka.

Detectives at Red Oak, Iowa, today secured three more John Doe warrants in the case, and say at least two more arrests in the murder mystery will be made within forty-eight hours.

No License Issued.

BAR HARBOR, Maine, June 17.—Through her secretary, Mrs. Madeline Force Astor denied this afternoon that a license for her marriage to Wm. Dick of Brooklyn, had been obtained. She would not, however, deny the report of the engagement.

The famous Stephen Girard estate is now valued at $32,000,000.
