Dallinger Me sung
by McCormack

Both are McCormack

The Victor Record of McCormack's voice is just as truly McCormack as McCormack himself.

Whether you hear the great Irish tenor on the Victrola or on the concert stage, it is all the same.

The same natural voice of surpassing beauty, the same distinctness of enunciation—the same McCormack.

The proof is in the hearing. Stop in any time and we will gladly play for you any of the ninety-three McCormack records, or Victor Records by any other of the world's greatest artists.

There are Victors and Victrolas in great variety of styles from $10 to $250. Terms to suit your convenience, if desired.

—That busy waist and dress department. Why? New models daily from New York. Popular priced. Lowitz. (No two alike.)

—A marriage license has been issued to Arnold H. Mueller, 24, of Alexandria, and Ethel A. Rubie, 16, of Alexandria.

—Keokuk camp J. W. A. No. 622 will hold its regular meeting tonight at Woodman hall. All members are requested to be present.

—Rev. J. H. Helm left last night for Bevis, Mo. He will return tonight or Thursday morning. He has gone to attend a conference.

—Regular meeting of Keokuk aerie No. 683, F. O. E., tonight at Eagles hall, 523 Main, at 8 o'clock. Visitors brothers always welcome. Chas. A. Neakes, Secretary. Business of importance.

—O. B. French who pleaded guilty to a charge of assault and battery filed by M. J. Burke was fined $5 and costs by Justice James S. Burrows. French pleaded not guilty last night, but changed his plea.

—The classes in physics in the Denver, Colo., high school are studying the Keokuk dam and power house. Considerable time is being spent on this subject and it is being covered in a very thorough fashion.

—Those who come to Keokuk during the big free fall celebration will not be disappointed in the character of entertainment furnished. Keokuk is not offering to her visitors a cheap carnival company proposition. High class attractions have been secured.

—The directors of the Keokuk Industrial association held their regular monthly meeting last night at the Hotel Iowa. Several matters pertaining to industrial advancement in Keokuk were discussed. Several prospects were reported to the directors, and received consideration.

—The decision of the federal district court of Iowa holding four members of the National Association of Master Plumbers guilty of violation of the Sherman anti-trust law has been upheld by the United States court of appeals now sitting in Denver. The defendants, Robert Knauer, Hugh B. McCarten, John P. Cunningham and George H. Wentz, were indicted with 240 other dealers and manufacturers in 1914.

—Jas. M. Fulton, manager Keokuk Industrial association; P. C. Smith, city editor of the Gate City, and Dr. G. Walter Barr were callers Thursday, says the Nauvoo Rustler. They came up in the latter's car to post bills for Keokuk's big fall celebration in October. (See ad. today.) They put up big signs on the country roads, and they wanted us to secure a Nauvoo couple for the wedding to occur at the celebration. This is a fine opportunity for some couple to get a good start in housekeeping, for the Keokuk merchants are going to fit them out in splendid shape. Who will volunteer? Send in your names before someone beats you to it.

—Judge W. S. Hamilton who is holding court here, received a message today from Rockford, Ill., stating that his daughter Miss Sarah Hamilton, who is ill there, is better, and that her condition shows no cause for worry. Miss Hamilton was ill with a cold when she left for Rockford to enter college there. Yesterday a message was received saying she had been taken to the hospital. Mrs. Hamilton and Dr. J. M. Casey immediately drove to Rockford. Dr. Casey reports in his message to Judge Hamilton that Miss Sarah is better and that there is nothing about her condition to cause alarm. Miss Hamilton is quite a favorite among the younger society set in Keokuk. Her friends here will be sorry to learn of her illness, but glad to know that her condition shows improvement.

—Rev. J. W. Wilson spoke at Pilgrim's Rest Baptist church last night. He used as his subject, "Make Yourself a Pattern." Quite a large attendance listened to Dr. Wilson last night, and also on Monday night, at the First African Baptist church. Tonight he will preach again, using as his subject, "Dry Bones in the Valley." He urgently requests that the congregation present themselves by 8 o'clock sharp, and he will deliver one of his most famous discourses. Devotional services will be conducted from 7:30 till 8:00 p. m. Dr. Wilson will preach for the congregation of Rev. Mr. Helms' church each night excepting Saturday, and also on Sunday morning and Sunday evening. Sunday afternoon he will preach to the congregation of the First African Baptist church at the hour of 3 o'clock. Sunday night he will preach his farewell sermon at Pilgrim's Rest Baptist church.

KEOKUK'S ATTITUDE

Merchants Here Give Up Fourth of July Event so as Not to Conflict with Fort Madison.

The following from The Gate City of June 1 is interesting and pertinent right now, inasmuch as Fort Madison has chosen the same dates for putting a carnival on its streets as Keokuk selected months ago for its big fall festival. The clipping aptly shows the difference in the attitude of the two cities:

JULY 4TH PICNIC PLANS GIVEN UP

Local Merchants Withdraw in Favor of Fort Madison People Who Plan Big Celebration.

The plans of the Keokuk merchants for a Fourth of July picnic with the farmers of the county as their guests have been given up on account of the big celebration which will be held at Fort Madison. Keokuk will have a big fall celebration with the very best attractions that can be secured, and in view of the fact that Fort Madison has already started active preparations for its celebration of the nation's birthday, the local merchants are willing to let their plans lay over for that day. The local merchants planned to entertain Lee county people here, providing no other points in the county had celebrations. Fort Madison's plans were announced today, and the Keokuk merchants feel that it is only courteous to the up-river neighbor to withdraw its proposed events for July 4.

MAYOR GRANTS TWO REQUESTS

St. Louis Auto Club Wants Permission to Put up Banner and to Have Police Protection.

The St. Louis Automobile club which is to participate in a reliability tour to Keokuk has written to Mayor Lofton asking for certain privileges. The tourists expect to arrive about 5:30 o'clock Saturday afternoon. They have asked permission to place a banner across Main street pointing the way to the building they have leased as a check room for their luggage which they carry. They have also asked police protection for their automobiles.

The mayor has written the St. Louisans that they may put up the banner and that police protection will be furnished.

BRIDE TO BE SELECTS DATE

Fall Celebration Wedding Will be Staged on Saturday Afternoon at 4 P. M.

The bride to be in the Keokuk fall celebration wedding has asked that the ceremony be performed on Saturday afternoon rather than Wednesday, the tentative date chosen by the committee at its meeting Monday night. Chairman Overton said this morning that the wedding would be set for Saturday, at four o'clock.

An additional gift reported today was that from the Independent Baking company of a case of crackers.

REICHSTAG TO BE STORMY

Exciting Session of German Body When it Reconvenes on September 23.

[By Carl W. Ackerman, United Press Staff Correspondent.]
BERLIN, Sept. 20.—Supported by Field Marshal Von Hindenburg and the majority of the German people, Chancellor Von Bethmann-Hollweg is expected to weather the storm that will probably break in the reichstag when that body reconvenes September 23.

The campaign for a resumption of submarine warfare has been renewed by the reichstag critics of Bethmann-Hollweg. The submarine advocates who have never been able to forgive the chancellor for yielding to the United States, are expected to make trouble and some are already proposing the formation of a coalition ministry.

Three hundred socialists met here today in a most important session, preceding the reichstag gathering. The socialists, who supported the chancellor during the submarine disputes, are being urged by their leaders to forget factional differences and present a solid front in view of the coming crisis.

The attention of the whole country is centered on the socialist meeting.

The wise motorist will avoid making the mistake of draining his battery completely—for this has a tendency to cause "buckling" of plates (causing a short circuit in the battery) and also results in various other injuries to the battery.

If your battery is run down or weak, don't try to start the car with it or use the lights too much—better have us recharge and return it in a healthy condition.
