THE GUARDIAN.

PUBLISHED EVERY THURSDAY, Independence, Buchanan County, Iowa,

BY RICH & JORDAN. OFFICE OVER P. C. WILCOX'STORE.

Terms $1,50 per Annum, in Advance. Rates of Advertising. One square, (12 lines or less) 1 insertion, $1,00 Each subsequent insertion, One square three months,

Doctrp.

THE SMACK IN SCHOOL.

[The following incident in a district school.

A district school, not far away, Mid Berkshire hills, one winter's day. Was humming with its wonted noise Of three-score mingled girls and boys, Some few upon their tasks intent, But more on furtive mischief bent : The while the master's downward look Was fastened on a copy-book— When suddenly behind his back, Rose sharp and clear a rousing SMACK! As 'twere a battery of bliss Let off in one tremendous kiss! "What's that ?" the startled master cries ; " That Thir," a little imp replies,

" Wath William Willith, if you pleathe I thaw him kith Thuthannah Peathe!" With frown to make a statue thrill, The master thundered "Hither, Will !" Like wretch o'ertaken in his track, With stolen chattles on his back, Will hung his head in fear or shame, And to the awful presence came-A great, green, bashful simpleton, The butt of all good-natured fun-With smile suppressed, and birch upraised, The threatener faltered—"I'm amazed That you, my biggest pupil, should Beguilty of an act so rude! Before the whole set school to boot-

What evil genius put you to't ?" "Twas she, herself, sir," sobbed the lad ; " I didn't mean to be so bad-But when Susannah shook her curls And whispered I was 'feared of girls, And dussn't kiss a baby's doll, I couldn't stand it, sir, at all ! But up and kissed her on the spot; I know-boo-hoo-I ought to not, But somehow from her looks-boo-hoo I thought she kind o' wished me to !"

MARRIED LOVE MAKING: OR.

A SKETCH FROM THE FRENCH.

There lived in Vienna a young man of rank and fortune, who bore a strong resemblance to many other young men he was playing with his fork," someof that and every city, for he was the dupe to all the follies of fashion and high life. He combined a flexible heart with a handsome person; it had cost his mother a great deal of trouble to make him what is called a puppy; but by indefatigable diligence, she had at last effected her purpose. All the ladies, consequently, loved him, and he loved them all in return. It has been said that once or twice his attachment had even been of more than a month's duration, but never had so much rustic bashfulness, it is did he impose any constraint upon himself or the object of his affection, by an irksome fidelity. He possessed the nice st powers of perception, whenever any word or look summoned him to the victory; but he always had the good manners to pay every attention to the clock, when it announced the hour of parting.

With these qualifications, he was certain of success with the ladies. He paid his devoirs to all, enjoyed all, and was at last tired of all. In one of his moments of torpid satiety, our hero had returned home before supper. Happy is he who feels the time least oppressive kind of men. Our young count threw denly he turned round. himself upon the sofa, stretched his limbs, vawned, &c. Suddenly it occurred to him that he was married. No wonder that we should have forgotten it, since he only just now recollected it.

"Apropos," said he, and rung the bell-a servant entered.

"Go to your mistress and ask her if I may have the pleasure of seeing her."

the servant at length obeyed, shaking went slowly over to Amelia.

tle of each other, and after it they had day," said Amelia, "if my company is little time to devote to such an employ- pleasant to you ?" ment. There were people enough who gratified her vanity.

4,00 mind was much the same as his—she your ladyship's husband." 60,00 knew not what to think of this unexpect-35,00 ed visit—she replied, however, that she 10,00 should be happy to see him. He enter- returned he, "how much I love you." ed-hoped he was not troublesome; took a chair-made remarks on the weather- "if only for the sake of novelty." vivacity, and Amelia's genius, inspired two very agreeable tete-a-tetes at supperdescribed by Wm. Pitt Palmer, of New York, President of the Manhattan Insurance Company, in an address before the Literary Society in Stockbridge, Mass., his native home, will take many whose heads are now streaked with silvery hairs, a journey back to boyhood and early life:] it with interest. The time passed they how if this evening you were to allow a knew not how; the Count looked at his third ?" and requested permission to sup with his countess.

"if you can be content with my homely was this time less lively, less brilliant-

were merry, without being noisy. This influence, and even arrived so far that calm pleasure possessed to them the they once during a pause, involuntarily charm of novelty; they were both pleas- squeezed each other's hand across the generally the case with most people .- the room. Who could have believed it? hours flew swiftly away, and the time for was late, but she did not look at her retiring to rest being arrived, the count watch. Her husband made not the took leave of the countess, highly pleas- slightest effort to depart; he complained cert, and did not learn, till it was late, ted in the morning instead of midnight that one of the virtuosos being ill, the because they were then both ready to concert was deferred. How was he to breakfast together. pass the tedious evening? He inquired, The count, enchanted with his as he passed, after his wife, and was in- conquest, eloped with Amelia into the formed that she was somewhat indis- country, where they, with astonishment, invited to a cassino party after the con- same box with Amelia. than that of the preceding visit.

"Do you know." said Amelia. "that mournful example of our count. WHO COULD HAVE BELIEVED IT? the party to which you were invited would find a little trouble in discovering the cause of your absence ?"

> He smiled, and paused for a few moments. "I must tell you something of confidence," began he at length, while thing which you will perhaps think rather candid than gallant : you cannot imagine how much you are improved since your marriage."

> "My marriage!" answered Amelia. in a jocose tone, "I believe it took place about the same time as your own."

"Very true, my lady," replied he, "but it is inconceivable how so happy an alteration can have taken place in you. At that time-pardon me-you scarcely possible to recognize you-your genius no longer the same, even your features are improved."

"Well, my lord," replied the countess, without wishing to return the complithought of you. But upon my word," us, for it almost seems that we were making love."

The dialogue continued long in the same style, till Amelia at length looked at her watch, and, in a fascinating tone, remarked that it was late. The count when at home—he belongs to the better and as slowly retired to the door—sudarose unwillingly, slowly took his leave,

"My lady," said he, "I find it very tedious to breakfast alone-may I be allowed to take my chocolate with you?"

count these frequent visits to his wife might give rise to scandalous reports .-The servant listened attentively, not He then desired his valet not to mention believing the testimony of his own ears. the circumstance to any one. He then The count repeated his orders, which put on an elegant morning gown, and his head as he went. The countess was Amelia had just risen in the most thing li-like my-myself." the amiable daughter of a country gen- cheerful humor. The bloom on her cheek tleman-she was a flower which from rivalled the blush of morning. She was the pressure of the court atmosphere, animated, and witty-in short, she was drooped, but did not wither; to avoid enchanting, and her husband, in an hour tempted to hug a beautiful young woman, she had no resource but to swim the high tide of life. She and her hus- to breakfest in company than to sit alone. Then," replied that a man who at the condition of these slaves was a distriking him in the eye. Why should grace to their owner; that they were bad"Can't spare but the arm," replied to hug a beautiful young woman, has sued her for the condition of these slaves was a distriking him in the eye. Why should grace to their owner; that they were bad"Then," replied she, "I shan't take the high tide of life. She and her hus-band sometimes met—they never avoid-band sometimes met—they never avoid-to breakfast in company than to sit alone, he squeeze a lemon unless he wants a ly fed, badly clothed, and excessively overworked!"

Am I to make one bolster of my belly !'
overworked!"

ed or never courted each others's socie- and looking into his yawning mouth. ty. Before marriage they had seen lit- "Why don't you come here every

He answered that he feared his pres spared the count the trouble of admiring ence might prevent the visits of others. his wife's perfections, and if they made "I shall miss no one," replied she, no impression on her heart, they at least as long as you indemnify me by your society."

Her husband's message was delivered "Upon my word," said the count, " to her in a moment, when her state of have more than once wished I was not

"Why so ?" demanded Amelia "That I might be allowed to tell you,

"Oh! tell me so, I pray," cried she and recounted the news of the day. The "Fear not," answered the count conversation, as far as related to the sub- "I hope, my lady. I shall never so far ject of it, was quite common, but his forget myself; but we have had, I think,

"With all my heart," answered the

The appointment was on both side "With all my heart," replied Amelia, exactly adhered to. Their conversation they gazed at each other oftener, and Supper was brought-they ate, and spoke less; the heart began to assert its that he was somewhat tired, but not slee-The next day he was invited to a con- py. In a word, from this day they par-discovered that the theatre of nature and about equal to the number of women.— dant compared with recent years. The

The average of human life is 33 years, wheat crop of Scotland is availant of the indignation and of the moral till sufficiently cured. 1.000,000,000 inhabitants. Of these determined. 33,333 333 die every year ; 91,824 evtric Medical Journal.

plows, wagons and other articles, should have a good coat of paint early in every autumn. They are now dry, and all cracks will absorb the paint and prevent the ingress of water at a later season .-Wash them perfectly clean, of course. "If you please," answered Amelia, A light colored paint is best, as it aband they parted still more pleased with sorbs least of the sun's rays. Dark be the food given, two indispensibles abolition of the law of celibacy, should

> A stuttering man at a public table, had occasion to use a pepper box. After shaking and turning it in various known animals to waste more flesh by ways, he remarked ;

T-th-this p-pepper b-box is so-some the food restored.

" P-poor de-delivery."

A "Smart Woman" at Stewart's---One

the price being five hundred dollars. feature at any exhibition in the world.— ged through the streets of Alexandria, ance of the unturned prairie. The input upon her. She was not a character cade of brave Bedouins chasing a retreat- St. Peter.—This apostle was crucified tions: him, declaring that she would not take line, whose front seemed as impregnable beheaded at Jerusalem. similar affront. The clerk was profuse in gallant horsemen. apologies as he did up the article, and At the call of the marshall, they rein- flayed alive by the command of a barbar- dollars. the two thousand dollar bill was taken by ed up in the presence of their venerable ous king. the cashier, and fifteen hundred dollars mother, who was looking with tears of St. Andrew .-- This apostle was bound ant without wishing to appear so, as is table, although the servants were still in promptly paid back to her, when without pride and joy, on her array of gallant to a cross, where he preached to the peobidding good night, she took her leave. sons, and on behalf of the Association, ple until he expired. generally the case with most people.— the room. Who could have believed it?

They were quite new acquaintances—the Amelia very plainly preceived that it

The bill this time proved to be a counter—Major N. E. Gray presented her with a St. Thomas.—This apostle was run St. Thomas.—This apostle was run one from the one first exhibited .- Eve. very beautiful, touching, sublime and ap- mandel, in the East Indies.

> Boston Journal thus epitomizes the infor- Absalom, Gravenor S., Augustus W., crucified in Persia. mation respecting the European grain Robert S., William, John A. E., Thomas St. Matthias.—This apostle was first crop of 1858, as derived from latest for- F., Samuel M., and Milton D. All but stoned and then beheaded.

Mediterranean, the crop is variously re- traders, and steady, thrifty, respectable at Salonis. ported, but upon the whole may be re- men. That day was the first time for fif- St. Paul .-- This apostle was beheaded "Well," thought he, "common civili- the concert of the nightingales surpassed garded as equal to if not exceeding an teen years since they had all met, and an at Rome by the tyrant Nero. ty requires that I should wait upon her, all other theatres and concerts. They at average. Egypt will furnish a full aver- affecting meeting it was, both to them and ask her personally how she does." first thought of staying only a few days, age. Spain and Portugal will not require and all who beheld it. He sent a message requesting that he every morning they intended to depart, any supplies from other countries. In per, and was very politely received. He intentions. When autumn, however, ap. crop: while in the Baltic regions, incluwas cheerful, lively, and gallant. The proached, they returned to Vienna. The ding Northern Germany and Western supper hour arrived, and this time Ame- same evening they went to the play, and Russia, the yield is below an average, allia begged him to stay. He had been our hero had the courage to sit in the though high prices may induce exports bands in high life, take warning by the ordinary wheat field of last year still remains in the hands of farmers, to be addspoken is 5,064. The number of men is In Ireland all kinds of produce are abun-ery day; 7,780 every hour, and 60 per If the disposition to speak well of othminute, or 1 every second. These loss- ers were universally prevalent, the world es are about balanced by an equal num- would become a comparative paradise. Memorial complains of the wretched pay, ber of births. The married are longer The opposite disposition is the Pandora's (sometimes less than that of a cab-driver) fore be occasionally boiled down a little stopped under the shade to let his horse lived than the single; and above all, box, which, when opened, fill every those who observe a sober and industri- house and every neighborhood with pain bouse and every neighborhood with pain bouse and every neighborhood with pain and large, and the young man thinking those who observe a sober and industri- house and every neighborhood with pain of fees and taxes which are the source of ous conduct. Tall men live longer than and sorrow. How many enmities and the most disgraceful and disgusting conshort ones. Women have more chances heart-burnings flow from this source!— flicts with the people. Religion is thus of life previous to the age of 50 years, How much happiness is interrupted and made to appear in the light of an insufthan men, but fewer after. The number destroyed! Envy, jealousy, and the maof marriages is in the proportion of 76 to lignant spirit of evil, when they find vent 100. Marriages are more frequent after by the lips, go forth on their mission like ment, all that you have said of me I have the equinoxes, that is, during the month foul fiends to blast the reputation and ops are revelling. In the next place the by the hand, remarked: of June and December. Those born in peace of others. Every one has his imadded she, "it is well that no one hears spring are generally more robust than perfections, and in the conduct of the others. Births and deaths are more best there will be occasional faults, which frequent by night than by day. The might seem to justify animadversion. It really working priests. number of men capable of bearing arms is a good rule, however, when there is is one-quarter of the population .- Elec- occasion for fault-finding, to do it privately to the erring one. This may PAINT YOUR FARM Tools.—Carts, prove salutary. It is a proof of interest the victim of suspicions of sneering and The Parson, with the eccentric look taken kindly, if the manner of doing the clergy, thus rendering them con- and answered:

it is not offensive. The common and unit is not offensive. The common and unchristian rule, on the contrary, is to proclaim the failing of others to all but JUDGE DOUGLAS' SLAVES .- The Chiengo Press & Tribune says :- "We be- you take my arm ?" It is an actual fact that a man who at tray no confidence when we say that Mr.

Doing it Brown.

Last evening an elegantly dressed wo- our amphitheatre on the last day of the gelist is supposed to have suffered mar- came off at Decatur, Illinois, but one man entered Stewart's and asked to see fair, says the Hopkinsville (Ky.) Mercu-tyrdom, or was slain with a sword at a plow was present—that of J. W. Fawkes. some shawls. After assorting and com- ry, one perhaps never before witnessed, City of Ethiopia. paring, she at length made a selection, and which would have been a noticeable St. Mark.—This Evangelist was drag- was not constructed to meet the resist-Gracefully producing her portmonaie, Ten brothers, named Brown, all fine look- in Egypt, until he expired. she tendered the clerk a two thousand ing fellows, with a very strongly marked St. Luke .- This Evangelist was hang- come all the difficulties he has had to dollar bill in payment. He took it im- family likeness, with long flowing beards, ed upon an olive tree in Greece. mediately to the cashier, who examined dressed in a similar apparel, and mount- St. John.—This apostle and Evangel- of the English steam plow and cultivator it carefully, sent a clerk out to an expert ed on ten superb gray charges, which ist was put into a cauldron of boiling oil was present, and signified his mtention to obtain his opinion. Meanwhile the they rode in fine style, entered the am- at Rome, and escaped death. He after- tion to compete for the $500 premium. lady became very indignant, and resent phitheatre and dashed around the arena wards died a natural death at Ephesus in At the close of the trial the Executive ed the affront which she said had been as gracefully and as fearlessly as a caval- Asia. to receive or pass off bad currency, and ing enemy over a desert. They twined at Rome with his head downwards, by would never come again to Stewart's to and intertwined in every variety of grace-his own request, thinking himself unperformance of J. W. Fawkes' "steam plow" and intertwined in every variety of grace-his own request, thinking himself unperformance of J. W. Fawkes' "steam plow" and only to receive or pass off bad currency, and ing enemy over a desert. do any shopping. Presently the messen- ful evolutions. Now in lengthened line, worthy to die in the same posture and ger returned with the intelligence that now whirling in intersecting circles, now manner of his blessed master. the bill was good. She caught it from thundering all abreast in one unbroken St. James the great.—This apostle was farm purposes, and that with improvethe shawl. After a little while, hower- as a Macedonian phalanx, and whose ad- St. James the less. - This apostle was on our prairies; but that it is not as yet lishments, and that the shawl was the on- excitement was intense, unbounded, and with a fuller's club. ly one that had suited her, she remarked universal, and the spectators cheered long St. Philip.—This apostle was hanged chine at Centralia and Decatur, the cormination not to expose herself again to a rained from the hands of beauty on the Phryiga.

aged forty, and the youngest twenty death with arrows. THE GRAIN CROP OF EUROPE.—The years. Their names are Andrew, Julien, St. Simeon.—Zealot.—This apostle was three live in this county, and all but one St. Barnabas .- This apostle of the petitioners lay bare the laziness of monkood, and demand the abolition of these I am happy to see you." begging orders and the appropriation of their revenues to the maintenance of the Governor continued:

PROTEST AGAINST CELIBACY.

is for the abolition of celibacy, on the fellow-citizens-live a good christian- sas papers please copy. ground that the impossibility of entering and last, though not least, become a good into the marriage state renders the priest democrat.' in the individual, which will generally be contempt, and produces laxity amongst peculiar to him, stretched himself up found the sidewalk occupied by a number is invading even the popular classes. In politics, many hundred years ago, took conclusion, the petitioners demand that our Saviour upon a mountain and preach-"such reforms should be introduced as ed just such a sermon." to make the lower clergy no longer appear in the odious light of oppressors of the imagined than described FATTENING ANIMALS.—Whatever may poorer classes; and that the priests by wasted by filth and discomfort,-worse be despised, hierarchy be totally overthan throwing away cash; and we have thrown, and the State become the football of ceaseless attacks and complicafrom the revolutionary party.

LEAP YEAR DIALOGUE .- " Miss, will

Yes, sir, and you too."

The Fate of the Apostles.

A remarkable exhibition took place in St. Matthew .- This apostle and evan-er, she seemed to relent, and saying that vance was as steady and imposing as an thrown from a pinnacle, or the wing of she had been to a large number of estab- approaching billow of the ocean. The the Temple, and then beaten to death that she would take it, adding her deter- and loudly, while showers of bouquets up against a pillar at Hecrapolis a city of responding secretary is hereby authorfeit. She had paid the clerk a different silver goblet, accompanied with some through the body with a lance, at Coro- cess of the largest total ever collected in propriate remarks. The eldest Brown is St. Jude .- This apostle was shot to

"In the countries bordering upon the in this State. They are all farmers and Gentiles was stoned to death by the Jews

Salting Meat.

might be allowed to sit with her till sup- and every evening they changed their Belgium and Holland there is an average limportant Movement in the Catholic killed, the better, as it then possesses smiling comfort. A woman may love considerable absorbent power, which it her husband devotedly, may sacrifice gradually loses by age, and when it once him—she may have the genius of a An extraordinary memorial has been becomes putrid it can never be salted at Sappho, the enchanting beauties of Araddressed by 507 Austrian priests to the author of the Concordat, the Cardinal all. One of the best modes of curing is, mida; but melancholy fact, if with to some extent. In France there is a fair Prince Archbishop of Vienna. In this to rub the meat well with a mixture of these she fail to make his home comforcert, notwithstanding which he remained with his wife, and their conversation with his wife, and their conversation with his wife, and their conversation a dreadful extent may a man be led by was quite as pleasant, and less reserved one thoughtless step. Ye happy husbegins with a rough onslaught on the day, when it should be covered with fresh houshold tastes, than doom yourself to a absolutistic perogatives of the episcopa-salt in such parts as have been most ex- loveless home. Women of the higher THINK.—The number of languages stuffs are somewhat under the average.—

ed to this year's harvest. Other breadcy. "This Concordat," it says, "has posed. It may then be advantageously placed in a proper vessel, and subjected know that their feminine, their domestic

The average of human life is 33 years—wheat crop of Scotland is excellent, other of the age of 7.—wheat crops being medium, and possibly bed and or the indignation and of the moral wheat crops being medium, and possibly bed and created among the people." There is sumciently cured.

When the brine, as it forms, is allowed to drain from the meat, the process is in New York, was the inventor of the One half die before the age of 17. In low. On the whole, the United Kingdom is no doubt," the document continues in called dry-salting; but when, on the conevery 100 only 6 reach 75 years; and will this year require smaller imports of a subsequent paragraph, "but that our trary, it is allowed to remain on it, the by which the walls of the Malakoff and not more than 1 in 500 reaches the age of 80 years. There are on the earth of 80 years. There are on the earth ply power of Central Russia is not yet ed the wrath of the most moderate men formed by rubbing the meat with salt, inventions, from which he reaped no adwith respect to the antiquated, mediæval &c., as above directed; and after it has vantage, but left a wife and children desordinances become louder and more universal from day to day. This sentiment formed by dissolving 4 lbs. of rocksalt, \frac{1}{4} s the more dangerous as it spreads lb. of sugar, and 2 oz. of salpetre in 2 among the main body of the people."- gallons of water. This pickling liquor was riding out in the country with his becomes weaker by use, and should there- lady love, and, as the sun was hot, he ferable burden, and agitators increase the rence took place between Governor their hosses." The young man went on. ill feeling by directing attention, not to Brown and Parson Brownlow. Just bepenury of the lower clergy, but to the luxury and abundance in which the bishBrown came up, and taking the Parson Thomson, who left Illinois some five or

"How do you do, brother Brownlow?

"I hope you will moderate in all your A more important demand follows. It notions of propriety in regard to your Illinois, Wisconsin, Minnesota, and Kan-

The outburst of laughter can be better

THE CHICKEN AND FEATHERS. - At paints cause the wood to become hot in must be observed, namely, cleanliness in be restored to the common ties of family breakfast one morning, in that quiet and The next morning it occurred to the the sun, and warp and crack. Now is both animal and food, and regularity.— and numanity. It this is not done, they assert "all our influence will entired in old York, a foreigner made quick discovered to the the sun, and warp and crack. comfortable old mansion the White Swan, We have known half the value of food ly disappear; the Catholic religion will patch with the eggs. Thrusting his wasted by filth and discomfort,—worse be despised, hierarchy be totally overyolk, devoured it and passed on to the next. When he had got to his seventh fretting long for an expected meal, than hope that they may expect their safety prejudiced against Monsieur by his moustions. They express, too, the significant egg, an old farmer, who had already been aches, could brook the extravagance no longer, and speaking up, said : Why, sir, you leave out all the white

How is Mrs. Lockwood to afford to provide breakfast, at that rate ?" "Vi," replied the outside barbarian.

" you vouldn't have me eat de vite ?-De voke is shicken; de vite de feders.

At the trial of steam plows, which The trial was not successful, as the plow ventor feels confident that he can overcontend with. Mr. Kedev, the inventor Committee passed the following resolu-plow," we deem it our duty to record our opinion, that this ingenious machine is weil adapted as a stationary engine for ment it can be made useful for plowing such as machine as will entitle it to the premium offered by this society.

Resolved, That in consideration of the expenses incurred in exhibiting this maized and required to draw an order on St. Bartholomew.—This apostle was W. Fawks, for the sum of five hundred

> TREMENDOUS PILES OF GOLD .-- The bullion in the Bank of France now stands at about $120,000,000, a far higher sum the Bank of England. At the com-mencement of the present year, the Bank of France held less than $50,000,000. and the influx in nine months has therefore been $70,000,009. At the Bank of England, the total, at the beginning of the year, was $53,000,000, and it is now more than $95,000,000. The highest sum it ever possessed was $111,000,000

Domestic Happiness .- Depend on it, there is a great deal of Domestic happiness in a well-dressed mutton chop, or a tidy breakfast table. Men grow sated of music, are often too wearied of conversation, however intellectual; but they can The sooner meat is salted after being always appreciate a well-swept hearth and and large, and the young man thinking to have a little fun, called out to a far-The other night as the Ministers were mer at work in the field. "Hallo, sir, "We feed 'em on little city fellers and > six years ago. At that time he had three sons and one daughter; their names are: Eliza, Thomas, William and James Thomas. Any information would be very thankfully received by his daughter, Maria Thomson, at Peoria, Ill. Iowa,

One pleasant Sabbath morning, while a minister was on his way to church, he of boys playing marbles, upon which he stopped short and exclaimed-

"What, boys! playing marbles on the Sabbath day? Why you frighten looked up and answered-

"Frightened, ha! why in the ddon't you run then ?"

While Christ was upon earth, he was more among publicans and sinners, than among Scribes and Phrisees; for they were self-righteous, and so not fit com pany for him who came to seek and to

"Ed, did you ever go to the gold "Yes."

"What did you dig ?" "I dug out as quick as the Lord

"So far so good," as the boy said when he had finished the first jar of his mother's preserves: