THE GUARDIAN.

BY RICH & JORDAN, OFFICE OVER P. C. WILCON'STORE.

Terms $1,50 per Annum, in Adoc

Doetry.

For the Guardian. THE STRANGER'S HEART.

The stranger's heart, 'tis a holy thing, Whatever his garb may be,
As rich or poor he stands beneath
The shade of thy household tree. Thy home, with its wealth of love, ma To thee like an Eden here, But his eye grows dim as its t Fall on his listening ear.

He hears in fancy his mother's voice And a sister's gentle tone, And tears will come, for the stranger's hear Speak gently, then, to him who strays From home and its joys apart; Oh ye who dwell among your own, Be kind to the stranger's heart.

TO P. R.

Oh! could I from my bosom tear That one dark, bitter thought Or at the fabled Lethian street Quaff the oblivious draught.

Aye gladly would I part with all
The heart's best memories,
If burying neath its sable pall
The terturing power of this.

But yet 'twere vain, 'twere idle all. And useless to complain, The gladness that my life of Twill never know again.

And youth, and hope, and joy will fade
Before Time's ruthless power, But this dark thought on memory's page Will live when life is o'er.

Miscellancons

DON'T GET DISCOURAGED

BY MRS. F. D. PAGE.

Independence, Nov. 24.

said sweet Carrie Linton, as she stood by when scarcely able to bear the fatigue. though his heart was sore over the treachhas been hard, and we have had trial upon trial : but we have had many blessings head upon his hand, and his chair tilted sun gilded all the rest with brightness. wife by his side, he bade Carrie the seback against the log cabin.

and the winds sweeping us ten months in went forth to his work with a renewed the year like tornadoes. Last year I must resolution to conquer. have the ague, so that I could not tend Let us skip over a score of years. Do 'I know, that's the way you always would change, and keep saying. 'Don't back to old Oneida.

ever do here, in this heathen country ! chinery, the mill and the factory, the was the pettish and almost profane reply bustle of trade. Have you taken it all an utterly bankrupt concern. of the young farmer who had sought a in?

mon laborer. So she checked the rising very and cheerful. otion, and again answered with a tone of cheerful encouragement and mild re- will come out right."

THE GUARDIAN.

the wolves have killed my sheep, and now my best cow must die. You may lose with others?'

THE GUARDIAN.

The wolves have killed my sheep, and now my best cow must die. You may lose with others?'

The wolves have killed my sheep, and now my best cow must die. You may lose with others?'

The wolves have killed my sheep, and now my best cow must die. You may lose with others?'

The wolves have killed my sheep, and now my best cow must die. You may lose with others?'

The wolves have killed my sheep, and now my best cow must die. You may lose with others?'

The wolves have killed my sheep, and now my best cow must die. You may lose with others?'

The wolves have killed my sheep, and honor them with confidence and love.

Waltham, or to Robbing & Appleton, 15 Maiden Lane, New York, General determined to sell out to the first white tial proprietor of the town, the judge of the complete of the confidence and love.

AMERICAN WATCHES. country.

laying a crowing baby boy, the very im- the railroad man and the bank director

The father smiled faintly; his heart and deprivations of a new country were ant wife, laying her hand again upon his nore than he could bear : but with his brow. ' Yes, Carrie, Dick is a blessing.

'And is not Carrie a blessing?' she 'Then don't give me occasion, my added as she left the warm kies of affec- dear. I pledge you I will not. But, tion upon his brow.

his response in a lightened tone.

'And is not good health a blessing?' 'Yes, I suppose so,' said he, almost laughing.

'And is not this soft cool air, this mellow moonlight, and the star spangled neavens a blessing!

'Of course.' toes for ourselves and our neighbors, if looked over this lonely landscape."

ings, to hear you tell the story.'

'And I am not done yet; I think I so faint-hearted?' have a blessed little home here in this 'Yes, I remember all.' clean, sweet, pleasant cabin, and the best husband in this pleasant world, if he pair, when the old ox died ?" would not get the blues, and threaten to leave this beautiful land and go back to 'And'-and he looked up with a laugh wrong way. Aye, George, 'Don't get railroad through my farm?' discouraged;' all will yet go well, and 'Oh, George, George ! one would supstakes on the prairie.

nights of wearisome watching and care, on his brow, as of old. Oh, George, don't get discouraged," of the days of careless exertions, often And though he had lost his thousa was to her, joy in being true and ear. of future speculation had to be aba

Here we have been toiling and toil- ted at their humble door, and her gentle paniment, while he sung the following: ing for the last year and a half, on this words and kind encouragement lifted un ak, miserable prairie, not a hill in sight, his heart, and he rose on the morow and my crops, and this year the spring frost you see that fine flourishing village, with must kill all my corn, and then the a railroad track coursing through its very centre? Do you see those fine brick Oh, well, George these things may school houses with their belfries and clear sounding bell, calling together the hundreds of children, to teach them of the son. So you said last year, that luck mysteries of science, and put into their hand that weapon of defence and power get discouraged.' If it hadn't been for for the future— a good common educayou, I'd have quit last fall, and gone tion? Do you see you imposing building in the distance, with its massive walls And what would you have done there, and towering roof? That is a college. Mark those church spires, that point Done a darned sight better than I'll heavenward; listen to the hum of ma-home for himself and his wife on the prairies of Illinois, in the year 18—. Now look again. See you that matron- in helpless despondency, for the want of ly woman, upon whose brow forty sum-Carrie was hurt. A tear sprang to her mers have scarcely left a foot-print?—

a one, in time of powerful pressure and eye and a quicker throb to her heart; but The glossy hair shows no mingling of misfortune, by cold words of represent she knew too, that were she to speak one silver; the rose has not faded from her and murmuring, has been driven from esponding word, he would give up ut- cheek, though its budding brightness the paths of duty and honesty, to crime, terly, and insist upon returning again to has expanded into full bloom, and the insanity and even suicide; many a one, the haunts of his childhod, where his red at the heart was not quite so deep; too, by reckleseness and wild spec situation would only be that of a com- the voice is still soft, and the laugh sil-

'Oh, don't speak so, George. I know 'don't get discouraged, George,' these el spirit, that goaded him through all There is no article of common use that we have not been very successful, but twenty years, Carrie; I am tired of it.— his future years—a spirit that might, is so little understood, and about which then we are settling in a new country, Just think what a fix I am in now, after had it been allowed to sympathise and so much deception, charlatanism, and man that will take it and then quit the the county, the owner and indweller of that beautiful mansion, who held posses-'Is not this a blessing?' she asked, sion of half the surrounding lands cape what to say next.

was really sad. The hardships, trials, 'But what, George?' asked his pleasaint smile came a low acknowledgment. 'I don't want you to say 'Don't get iscouraged.

really, I don't see why you should dis-'Aye, and Carrie is a blessing,' was like the phrase, for out of it has grown time-keepers, and may well be joined much of the success of your life.' 'And this is the very reason, Carrie.

to be reminded of his own weakness .-But really, Carrie, I will own up. That hopeful heart of yours has kept me up 'See our beautiful garden, how softly let the waves roll over me. I felt this La Chaux de Fonds in the northern canit sleeps in the moonlight. Did you not morning about as gloomy as I did when tons of Switzerland, by Lake Geneva, supply small and elegantly finished millions per year. tell me to-day, that you never saw such we traveled here on the prairie with one have been and are the world's famed watches for ladies. beets and cabbage, such onions and yoke of oxen, a cow, and household stuff seats of watch manufacture; but now it we should only be so blessed as to have Do you remember how hard I beg- machinery, system and intelligent skill, passing beauty, covering an area of 100 ged your consent to turn around and unaided by protection of any kind, al- x100 feet, forming a quadrangle, with an 'Why, Carrie,' said he, taking the soft plod back? how I even accused you of ready produces the most thoroughly ex- open court in the centre. The building hand in his, that was putting back the unwifely disobedience, and of setting up act timekeepers, at about half the cost of is two stories in height, and has eight hair soothingly from his forehead, 'one your will, when you declared you would the best foreign watches. would think we had nothing but bless- rather make a bed of prairie grass, or All imported watches are made by modation of the one hundred male and whether it is best or not, you are so de- ous at the time, and hard to be borne, vain attempts to improve them.

'And I sat down and growled in des-'Yes.'

nest, in working out one's destiny, that ed, though his bank had suspended, and made all the hours and days worth liv. his railroad operations a dead loss-his watch and each part of every watch, of a Long and earnestly they sat and chat-"When the black lettered list of the Gods was presented,

A list of what fate for each mortal intends

The fund ill secured, oft in bankruptcy ends;

The storm cloud had passed over, and he earnest, energetic man, fell of power and force, gathered up his strength and went forth to his business, and righted up in a few days, what he had in his for failure by breakage are diminished moments of despon dency, set down as

There is many a man who sinks down by spurning all counsel and help from her, who is compelled to be a sufferer 'Don't get discouraged, George; all in all mistakes, has worn out a cheerful and faithful heart, and brought upon 'I have not heard anything else but himself the torture of a wailing and cru- no other. asant, to be sure ; but blighted, and the cow lost in the prairies; Shall we complain, if out of our abund- burthens, and husbands, fail not to trust take, that may not be easily, promptly,

Their Manufacture at Waltham, Mass.

—Comparison with the Foreign Product. fection of machinery that has made Colt's world, after patient experiment has been successfully applied to the manufacture of watches

The introduction of American watches bug. marks an era in the history of time and with the Atlantic Telegraph, the Sewing Machine, and other kindred successes of distinguishes the present period.

Hitherto, England and Switzerland would have sunk down in despair, and Warwicshire, in England, and Locle and racy than ever before attained.

sleep in the old cart, than to turn about hand, the movements and parts of movements by different persons, and at differ-New York every time the wind blows the of half shame- when they located the movement-no two watches being in all -New Yorker. respects, approximately alike.

A large majority of these watches are we shall bless the day that we stuck our pose you would never have the blues worthless, as timekeepers, and a constant again; for with all these accidents, and bill of expense to their owners, over $5,-Well I suppose I shall have to stay, they have been many, which were griev- 000,000 being annually thrown away in termined to be blessed by everything; we have had so much of good luck and The American watches are constructbut women folks don't have to suffer as prosperity, that when I look back over ed upon the most scientific and approved Carrie smiled to herself, as she took up with blessings, that I see only bright mity, simplicity, durability, cheapness her babe again upon her breast, and re- ness and beauty over all the way. So, and unvarying perfection of movement, nembered the hours of toil and trial don't get discouraged, George,' and she and are sold with a certificate of warranthrough which she had passed, of the stooped down again, and left her kiss up- ty in all cases, ten years, signed by the

The specific advantages of these watch es to dealers, and wearers, as compared her husband's side, one bright moonlight But she did not feel to murmur. There ery of trusted friends, though his plans with the best imported handmade watches, will be most readily apprehended by the following enumeration, to wit? Each ing for, though there were here and there, heart rose from its despondency, and given style, is the unvarying counterpart I should like to know what you call as she looked over the past, dark shad. seating himself by his pleasant, vine-cov- of every watch of the same style, so that lessings, said the moody husband, his ows over the billowy prairie, while the ered window, in his old arm-chair, with any sigle part is exactly fitted, and may be transposed indiscriminately to make up any one of any number of watches The movements are made to fit any number of cases, thus enabling the dealer to keep a large and varied stock of movements with a limited number of cases, to suit the demands of trade.

The ease and facility with which any part can be restored, when broken or lost by accident-each part being registered at the factory-a counterpart can be had for a mere cost of reproduction, and with whole movements changed and sent by mail or express to any part of the world. Dealers are thus brought directly in contact with the manufacturer, and a single retail profit is the only added cost to the rearer, to manufacturer's prices.

The watches have fewer parts, are more substantially made than any others, are easily kept clean, and the chances four-fiths as compared with the English watch, which has upwards of eight hundred separate parts, and most of these are the best opportunities for the improvewould be very difficult to break them.

The American watch is eminently adapted for railroad engineers and conduc-

But how am I ever to get where I to the old haunts? What if the com- In times of trouble, let wives be cheer- which there can be no deception or mis- ning away.

Waltham, or to Robbing & Appleton, 15 Webster and Clay dead. Maiden Lane, New York, General difficulty is experienced in finding good to respect : and Adam and Eve were In this age of splendid mechanical tri- watch repairers and reliable time-keep- alone "created" and all the rest of manamphs, in which our own country stands ers. By the introduction of American kind are born. stopped short, as if he did not know so proudly foremost, there is one that is watches this difficulty may be almost enjust begining to rec ive the attention and tirely obviated, so that the country mer- borers" are the "mud-sills" of society, was cyphering on my log slate how long prominence it deserves. The same per- chant can obtain adjusted watches as a only fit to be regarded as the "capital of I should possibly be from home, when I part of his miscellaneous stock, and the the rich." firearms the acknowledged best in the customer will buy his regulated timeother article without mystery or hum- to the President.

The manufacturers, Messrs. Appleton, Tracy & Co., with their present means can furnish 20,000 watches per annum and they intend to furnish, from time to Man, when he gets the blues, don't love mind over matter, which so wonderfully time, as the wants of the trade may re- have ninety-three thousand inhabitants. quire, other styles and sizes of watches, including an entire new form of sporting Democracy is as old as Noah's Ark. have been the watchmakers of the world. or timing watch, which will indicate the through a thousand misfortunes, when I Coventry and Prescott in Lancashire and minutest division of time with more accu-

The manufactory stands upon the banks squashes? and shall we not have pota- in a cart, and ten dollars in a purse, and seems that Waltham, Mass., has surpas- of Charles River, in the town of Walsed these old world competitors, and with ham, Mass., and occupies a site of sur- der. hundred feet of floor line, for the accomfemale artizans employed.

The motive power is a twelve-horse ent times and places; and each watch is steam engine, which gives motion to finally finished with special reference to lines of shafting in all the rooms, to itself-every part being made to suit on- which are attached the numerous delicate ly one place, and the whole movement and wonderful machines which are used fitted to a case which will suit no other in the various processes of manufacture. democrats, when on the stump, to change of his flowery speeches, which termina-

To Make a Poor Pastor.

excuse for staying at home. 2. When at church be either asleep or the sermon as light and chaffy, or dry and uninteresting. 4. Treat your pastor with a cold and secretly enjoin all to pray for its sucuninviting civility, and then complain of cess. him for not visiting you. 5. Neglect to pray for a blessing on

6. Be always finding fault with your pastor, and yet regret that he is more popular with the people. 7. Be very lukewarm and worldlywant of zeal.

8. Neglect to provide for his necessary wants, and complain of him because he wants his salary.

9. Do these things, and you will nev- they must fall .- Iowa City Republican. er fail to have a poor pastor.

Nature's Nobility.

"No man," says Seneca, " is nobler be death, not only to the cunning little born than another, unless he is born gopher, but squirrels, snakes and other counties in Ohio and one in Indiana, at with better abilities, or a more smiable disposition. They whe make such a parade with their family pictures and pedigrees are, properly speaking, rather to the size of the finger, and six inches igrees are, properly speaking, rather to the size of the finger, and six inches county. He would only have to pass be called noted or notorius, than noble long, then take rosin and melt the same; from one room into another, in his dwelso substantial, and all so perfect, that it ment of the mind; is the least exposed happiness and virtue."

VIRTUE IS NOBILITY; merit, useful, as a timekeeper. Many eminent engi- In ages of ignorance they might strike neers and conductors on the leading rail- with awe. Those ages are no more; nor in ignorance.

Democracy's Articles of Faith. We believe in Calhoun living, and in

In many parts of the country great have no rights that a democrat is bound any other man about this place."

We believe a Slave State ought to bethirty-five thousand inhabitants.

We believe a Free State ought not to become a partner of the Union unless she you get?" We believe Buchanan and Douglas

We believe in hard money generally, scarcely crowd the head in. with an occasional issue of treasury rags, which ought not, under any ordinary con-Arrangements are now being made to dition of government, to exceed forty

> We believe to the "victors belong the spoils," and if there be more victors than a dollar a-piece for your herrin', you spoils, then spoils should be made to or- couldn't have half filled the barrel.'

We believe Jefferson was a superannuated old fool, and that Republicanism which takes its roots from him is 'black.' We believe this is a great country, but iner.' South Carolina is greater.

We believe in a national party if it includes the South and leaves out the We believe in the great principle of be good, then two are better. We believe in the inestimable right of their principles with the degrees of lati- ted somewhat as follows : tude and longitude. We believe the history of political par-public plunder. We believe there are no principles so in, deserves to lie in a bed—in a bed—I staring about. Do not listen to the ser- dear to the thousands of office seekers say, gentlemen, he deserves to lie in a prise of Walker and his followers, and period. The laugh was tremendous.

We believe Kansas needs another Gov-to staunch her blood.

We believe Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Iowa, are "outside the pale of healthy organizations," and we humbly shouted to his son John, who was stand pray the President to appoint a fast day, ing by:
"John, did you see me kick that 'ere minded, and yet complain of him for that they may return to the true faith, hoss?" the mighty faith of the President.

Finally, we believe Democracy, Whiskey and Niggers, are one and indivisible. United they will stand, divided of us got badly hoisted. 'Taint me,

How to Destroy Gophers.

The question, "How to get rid of the We have no copy-right patricians in gopher without using poison?" is often this country, nor orders of nobility secu- asked us and to which we have as often red by letters patent; nevertheless, the replied to the extent of our knowledge. following thoughts may receive an appli- But here we have something new from the California Farmer, which is said to der ground. Try it : " Prepare strips of pine wood, about dip the point of the stick in the melted ling, to be out of the jurisdiction of an "Give me neither poverty nor riches," rosin, about two and a half inches, and officer, by going into Butler county.—

And if officials from both counties should be rosing the rolled around the point. was the prayer founded on a knowledge let the rosin be rolled around the point was the prayer founded on a knowledge of the rosin be rolled around the point come at him at once, he takes to the of human nature, and fully justified by experience. The middle station affords rosin; then take of powdered sulphur be, and he is safe beyond their reach (flour of sulphur) and roll the dipped another State, although he might be end in the sulphur till it is well coated; within arms length of the officers. ment of the mind; is the least exposed to temptations, and the most capable of happiness and virtue."

end in the sulphur till it is well coated; would take three warrants to catch a man so peculiarly domiciled, and if wanted in the sulphur, and give a last this State, he would not be compelled to coat of rosin, making four coats of rosin cross his own door-sill without a requi importance, and where the constant jar HONORABLE distinction. The trappings the stick, of one-half to three-quarters of The house of an old citizen in this importance, and where the constant jar distinction. The trappings of the moving train offers the most trying test to prove the quality of a watch poor puny mortal, adds no real dignity.

The trappings an inch; prepare as many sticks as there line just cuts off the porch of his house, are gopher holes, and take them to the so that he sleeps in the country, and place; insert the stick a little distance in takes his ease on the porch in the city, the hole and light it; then cover the hole Where he sleeps and eats, is, of course, roads of the country have been supplied will they ever return, notwithstanding the with these watches and now will have efforts of petty despots to keep the people light, and leave the remedy to work a ents."—Cincinnati Guzette. cure. The match will burn freely, although the hole is closed, and will speed-BONE SPAVIN .- Take two ounces of ily generate sulphuric acid gas, which is mercurial ointment, one ounce of iodine and must be certain death to all that Pennsylvania ointment, two ounces of camphor and breathes below the surface, within reach and beginning a new life. We must all my struggling.'

After a few years, our locust trees will break the wind, and the loss of one planting of corn or wheat, I hope will not prostrate us as it does new.'

It is very unpleasant, to be sure; but don't you remember how often, when in trusting faith and love, to the end of earth's pilgrimage, blessing and being it does new.'

In the dit been allowed to sympathise and observable and it been allowed to sympathise and swindling may be and is continually practiced, as attaches to the watch; and of its power, and it will perforate every neck and corner of earth where there is tudes of life and gone down with him, in trusting faith and love, to the end of earth's pilgrimage, blessing and being blessed.

In the deception, charactanism, and observable and is continually swindling may be and is continually and the changing violation in trusting faith and love, to the end of earth's pilgrimage, blessing and being blessed. als they have had to encounter. We was in prison for libeling a justice of trust to hear good results. If so, we the peace, he was requested by the jailor shall rejoice."

around old Uncle Johnny Coggershill's grocery store one winter's day. Says We believe the Declaration of Inde- old Captain Ben Nash, "I guess I got pendence a self-evident lie, for niggers more in the West Indies for herrin' than

' How much did you get, Uncle Ben? 'Well, you see, I was bound to the Windward Islands and a market, and We believe that "mechanics and la- just as I had got all my cargo aboard, I found I should, with luck, reach Kitt's We believe in " Squatter Sovereignty" about Lent. Thinks I, I'll take a barrel keeper, wind it up, and go about his busi- during a Presidential election, but after of herrin' on speculation. I had a good ness, as he would after purchasing any election all Squatter Sovereignty reverts passage, and got there just in the nick of time, and sold 'em off well.' 'How much did you get, Uncle Ben ?' come a partner of the Union if it have said some one of the old salts, who, with pencil in hand, was making notes to try to catch Uncle Ben foul; how much did

"Well, I can't say exactly how much, but I put the money back into the barrel after the herrin' was out, and could

'How much did you get a-piece for the herrin' ?'

'I sold 'em for a dollar a-piece,' said Uncle Ben. 'Ah, yes. Well, now, Uncle Ben, at

'Well,' says Uncle Ben, 'that's all very true; but I sold the pickle at five dollars a spoonful.' A hard boy-that same 'Ancient Mar-

Squire J- recently aspired to represent this place in the next legislature, and in hopes of obtaining the nomination he seizes all favorable opportunities voting early and often," for if one vote to address the million. A few nights since, there was a caucus at the schoolhouse, when Squire J-delivered one

"I say, fellow-citizens, that the inalienable rights of man are paramount 1. Be very careless in attending church. ties establishes the fact that there is no and catamount to all others, and he who Never go except when you can find no cohesiveness equal to the cohesiveness of cannot put his hand on his heart, and thank God that nothing is rankling withthat swarm the hosts of Democratic Is- bed - in a bed-" "With cracker We believe in the missionary enter- voice of a person anxious to round the

A DISPUTED QUESTION .- An old toper. after indulging quite freely in his accus-tomed beverage, amused himself in teas-5. Neglect to pray for a blessing on ernor, or she will soon commence bleeding a mettlesome horse. The animal, him because the church does not prosing, and no physician will be found able not fancying his familiarities, suddenly reared, and the disciple of Bacchus found himself sprawling in an adjacent mud-puddle. Gathering himself up as com-posedly as his situation would allow, he

"Why, no, father, the horse kicked "Reckon not, John. One or t'other

A RESIDENCE IN TWO STATES AND THREE COUNTIES AT ONCE.—At a place called "College Corner," an individual ly situated. One half of the house the State of Indiana and the other half in the State of Ohio. The boundary line between Butler and Preble counties in this State, runs directly through the 'varmints' that find a hiding place un- the same time. Of course, if he was charged with any offence, it would be right sharp work for an officer to catch him, armed with a process from Preble

The following inscription may found on a sign in North Phænixvi

Popular Sovereignty NO North, NO South, Recognized in Business. But a general Stiding Scale

An editor out West says that when he to give the prison a puff