

Everybody Will Attend

The great Providence Agricultural Fair

FIVE - BIG DAYS - FIVE

Beginning THURSDAY September 22nd 1908

Live Stock Dept.

Will contain a magnificent exhibit of the finest breeds of cattle, sheep and swine and will interest all and amply repay any one for their visit. Every stock raiser will learn something to his advantage. Horses for general purposes, Coach horses, Roadsters, Saddle horses, Pedigreed Draft horses, Fancy matched teams, Yearlings, Colts, Ponies and Mules in competitive classes.

TAKE A DAY OFF

and meet all your friends and neighbors at the fair. See what's going on. Forget your troubles. See the Races and Special Free attractions.

Poultry Exhibit

Will be almost a whole show in itself. All the noted strains of chickens, ducks, geese, turkeys, pigeons, etc., as well as many rare and wonderful specimens. No person interested in poultry can afford to miss the Poultry Exhibit. Something to please and instruct everybody.

The Flower Show

A bower of beauty, a bewildering display of fragrant flowers. Odd specimens of nature.

Fruits and Vegetables

Beautiful specimens of all kinds of fruits in competitive array. Interesting display of all kinds of vegetables.

Women's Department

A splendid display of canned fruits, preserves, artistic needle work, embroidery, laces and other articles of the household.

Exciting Races and Special Attractions Daily

MANY LIBERAL PREMIUMS AND LARGE PURSES

D. B. Baker, Pres.

The Great Providence Agricultural Fair

A. O. Williams, Sec.

Providence, - - Kentucky.

HUGHES WINS RENOMINATION

IS AGAIN NAMED AFTER MOST STRENUOUS CAMPAIGN IN STATE'S HISTORY.

WHITE GETS SECOND PLACE

New York's Governor is Named by Overwhelming Majority; Received 527 Out of Possible 1,009 Votes Cast.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 16.—Charles Evans Hughes, of New York, was nominated Tuesday by the Republican state convention by an overwhelming majority and on the first ballot to succeed himself as governor of the state of New York.

He received 527 out of a possible 1,009, as against 151 for James W. Wadsworth Jr., of Livingston county, speaker of the state assembly, and 31 for former Congressman John K. Stewart, of Montgomery.

The nomination was made unanimous upon motion of State Committeeman William Barns Jr., of Albany, who has been perhaps the bitterest and most outspoken opponent of the governor's re-nomination.

The governor's re-nomination followed the utter failure of a desperate struggle on the part of a number of the county leaders who for four days have spared no effort to discover a candidate upon whom to unite to defeat him. The balance of the ticket was made up in the "good old fashioned way," as an organization "slate" announced an hour or more before the session of the convention began by Timothy L. Woodruff, chairman of the state committee, after a conference of the local leaders.

White for Second Place.

Senator White, who was chosen as a candidate for lieutenant governor was "in the running" for the governorship until the early afternoon when after a meeting of his delegation he requested his friends not to present his name.

It was the 183 votes of all but one district in New York county that carried the governor's total beyond the 500, a majority of the convention required to nominate.

The nine votes of Nassau county had brought the Hughes total to 395. Amid a breathless hush, in which was incarnate all the intense bitterness and suspense which up to that moment had characterized the struggle to prevent the re-nomination of

Hughes, the secretary of the convention called "New York."

Herbert Parsons, president of the New York county Republican general committee, rose in his place, his slender figure alert and tense with the excitement at the crucial moment said: "New York county, second assembly district, gives four for Wadsworth, the balance of the county, 183, for Charles Evans Hughes."

And the pencils had footed the Hughes total to 578 in as many heart-beats every person in the great hall knew that the battle was over and the place was instantly a bedlam of cheering.

Kings County for Hughes.

Hardly less sensational had been the moment when State Chairman Woodruff delivered to Hughes, in spite of a general expectation to the contrary, the entire vote of Kings county, 128, bringing the governor's total to 342, for Woodruff had been avowedly opposed to the governor's re-nomination. It was really the action of Kings which signified what might be called the "stampede to Hughes," and when the 183 votes were cast in a block for the governor, any remaining doubt of his nomination was swept away.

The convention went fairly wild with the first real surprise of the roll call, when Saratoga answered "eleven for Charles E. Hughes." For Saratoga is the famous home of racing. The balloting concluded, Secretary Lafayette B. Gleason came forward to announce the result.

"John K. Stewart receives 31, James W. Wadsworth receives 151, Charles E. Hughes receives 527," read the secretary and then it was pandemonium.

Attempt to Murder Priest.

New York, Sept. 16.—A man found unconscious in Central Park with a bullet wound in the back of his head during the night, was identified as a Roman Catholic priest from Santiago, Santo Domingo, Arturo Arsenicio by name. He arrived here a few weeks ago with several companions, all of whom are said to have left the country Tuesday morning on a German liner. The police are inclined to the theory of an attempt at murder. It is said that the priest and friends were seriously involved in revolutionary plots in their home country.

Sharpshooters Rout Bandits.

Paris, Sept. 16.—A dispatch has been received from the governor-general of Indo-China reporting that a band of sharpshooters surprised a body of Chinese bandits on Sept. 6 on the Sangke River. Many of the bandits were killed and the rest were drowned while seeking to escape by swimming. The French lost one man killed.

FIRE BUGS AT WORK

ILLINOIS NIGHT RIDERS CHARGED WITH DESTROYING RESIDENCE.

FINE COUNTRY HOME BURNED

Vandals Make Second Appearance Near Arcola—Barns and Haystacks Fired Last Week.

Arcola, Ill., Sept. 16.—Illinois night riders were active again Tuesday morning and burned the fine country home of John Moore, south of Arcola, a few hours before daybreak. The loss is estimated at about $7,000.

This is the second appearance of the vandals near Arcola, and while Mr. Moore is loath to believe that his home was deliberately set afire, there is little doubt in the minds of the authorities that the blaze was the work of incendiaries, and in all probability, the same gang that operated last week.

The fire was discovered at 3 o'clock, several hours before any member of the family was up, and there being no fire in any stove at that time, the incendiary theory is all that is left for the authorities to work on.

The Night Riders burned four barns and haystacks, belonging to four different farmers, in a single night last week. The fires were all within a radius of a few miles of each other, and occurred in less than an hour. Two men, on horses, were seen riding rapidly away from one of the farms just as the fire was discovered, and chased by a party in an automobile.

TAFT QUITS INK FIGHT.

is Willing That Bryan Should Have Last Word in Controversy.

Cincinnati, Sept. 16.—Candidate William H. Taft Tuesday declined to go farther with Mr. Bryan in a newspaper controversy over the issues of the campaign.

"There is nothing in Mr. Bryan's statement of today which seems to require an answer. Should it appear so later, I will take up the subject in my public speeches."

This was Mr. Taft's ultimatum, as he expressed a willingness that Mr. Bryan should have the last word of comment on President Roosevelt's Taft letter.

Tuesday, the fifty-first anniversary of Mr. Taft's birth, proved to be the busiest day he has had since his arrival here, a week ago. He delivered an address Tuesday to an audience of ministers, composing the Ohio conference of the African Methodist Episcopal church, the first speech of his campaign to negroes.

STATE FINISHES CASE.

Springfield Officers Are Threatened By "Black Hand" Letter.

Springfield, Ill., Sept. 16.—The state case was finished Tuesday in the trial of Joseph James, colored, charged with murder for having stabbed C. A. Ballard to death. This murder helped to cause the recent riots. Blanché Ballard, daughter of the slain man, testified Tuesday that James crept into her room, approached her bed and took hold of her hand. She screamed. Her father awoke and drove the intruder from the house. Mrs. Ballard testified that her husband went out on the porch, that James rushed at him and plunged a knife into Ballard's right lung. Doctors testified that this wound caused death. James will be placed on the stand Wednesday.

Sheriff Warner Tuesday received a "black hand" letter, threatening the officers if James is not hanged.

Bryan Scorches Republicans.

Thenton, N. J., Sept. 16.—Pouring hot shot into Mr. Taft and the Republican party at every point where he stopped, William J. Bryan Tuesday night in this city, concluded a strenuous day of campaigning in New Jersey, following a few hours in Philadelphia, where in front of a newspaper office and before an enthusiastic throng he arraigned the Republican organization of that city and expressed his sorrow for people who he said were compelled to live under its rule.

Bogus Firm Locked Up.

Peoria, Ill., Sept. 16.—A bogus firm, Martin & Co., worked a confidence game on Wisconsin and Illinois dairymen, taking their cheese to the extent of $10,000, and failing to make returns for it. Joseph Mulhall was the firm and is now under arrest at Minneapolis. He operated at Peoria, Springfield, Cairo and Los Angeles.

Utah Republicans Nominate.

Salt Lake City, Sept. 16.—The Republican state convention Tuesday nominated a complete state ticket including congressman and three presidential electors, and adopted a platform which warmly endorses the administration of President Roosevelt and the nominees of the national convention.

James J. Hill is Seventy.

St. Paul, Minn., Sept. 16.—James J. Hill, of the Great Northern Railroad celebrates his seventieth birthday anniversary Wednesday and in honor of the event the railroad magnate will be banqueted by the employees of the Great Northern who have been in the service since 1859.

Gladis Walker, the daughter of Mr. Y. Q. Walker, while playing in the yard of Mr. Foster's Monday fell and dislocated her elbow. The doctor was called in and she is resting very well at the time of going to press.

The employees of the Nortonville Coal Company on Tuesday night made their retiring superintendent a present of a handsome chest of silver. The presentation speech was made by Major F. B. Harris on behalf of the men and was accepted with thanks by John Robinson, who has been with the coal company as superintendent for the past year. Mr. Robinson, by his kind treatment to the men under him has made them all love him and it is with regret they see him leave. He has accepted a position with the Consumers Oil Company at a handsome salary, and there is no question as to his success with them. Mr. Thomas Rutland succeeds Mr. Robinson as superintendent of the mine.

On last Friday afternoon the East End Card Club reorganized at the residence of Mrs. W. H. Kline. The following ladies are the members: Mesdames George Atkinson, J. B. Atkinson, W. E. Daves, Thos. Featherston, W. H. Kline, N. E. McKinnon, Frank Kash, Ed Buis, W. K. Nisbet, Della Southworth, and Misses Carrie and Lucy Crenshaw. The ladies assembled at two o'clock and played ten games, after which grape juice and grapes were served, followed by Bohemian cream and cake. The tallies were quite unique, being original pen and ink sketches, no two of which were alike. Mesdames Chas. H. McGary and Wm. Bradley and Miss Frances Moore were guests of the club.

L. A. Hearin, a former Earlinton boy whose home is in Manchester, England, was in the city Wednesday shaking hands with old friends. Fonne, as he is known here, has made good. He is the British representative for the National Cash Register Co., and holds the record as the best salesman for that company, they having men in all countries. We are always glad to see our boys come to the front. Mr. Hearin, being compelled by a business engagement to be in London on Nov. 1st, will not stay here but a short time. His daughter is with him. Mr. Hearin formerly worked in No. 9, as a trapper, at 60c. per day, but now commands an immense salary in addition to a percentage, which last year amounted to over $1,000, in our money $5,000.

Bradley Stone entertained about eighteen of his girl and boy friends Saturday evening on a hay ride. The party started at 7:30, chaperoned by Miss Richie Stone and Miss Minnie Goodell. After riding around an hour and a half, the merry little party returned to the house of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Stone and were served delightful refreshments. All spent a happy evening. Dan Griffin, while driving Saturday afternoon, had the misfortune to be thrown from his buggy and sprained his left ankle. The harness broke, frightening the horse and causing him to run away. Mr. Griffin was carried to his home and at last accounts was resting easy.

Notice in Bankruptcy.

In the District Court of the United States for the Western District of Kentucky, Owensboro Division.

In the matter of Clore & Waller bankrupt, in bankruptcy.

To the creditors of Clore & Waller, of Madisonville, in the county of Hopkins and District aforesaid, bankrupt.

Notice is hereby given that on the 8th day of September A. D. 1908, the said Clore & Waller was duly adjudged bankrupt, and that the first meeting of creditors will be held at the law office of Yeaman & Yeaman in Henderson Kentucky, on the 25th day of September A. D., 1908, at 2 p. m., at which time the said creditor man attend prove their claims, appoint a trustee, examine the bankrupt, and transact such other business as may properly come before said meeting.

J. A. DEAN, Referee in Bankruptcy, September 15th, 1908.

State of Ohio, City of Toledo, Lucas County.

Frank J. Cheney makes oath that he is sole partner of the firm of F. J. Cheney & Co., doing business in the city of Toledo, County and State aforesaid, and that said firm will pay the sum of One Hundred Dollars for each and every case of Catarrh that cannot be cured by the use of Hall's Catarrh Cure. FRANK J. CHENEY.

Sworn to before me and subscribed in my presence, this 6th day of December, A. D. 1908.

(SEAL) A. W. GLEASON, Notary Public.

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, and acts directly on the blood and mucous surface of the system. Send for testimonials free.

F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O.

Sold by all Druggists, 75c.

Take Hall's Family Pills for constipation.

For cuts, sprains, bruises, burns rheumatic and all other pains, use McLean's Volcanic Oil Liniment. First sold in 1852, still the same effective remedy in 1908. Good for men or beast. 25c., 50c. and $1.00.