

ORANGE AND THE GREEN.

Narrow Escape From a Bloody Riot in Ireland.

The Lord Mayor of Dublin Hooded and Seated in the Streets of Londonderry—Roofing Slates and Revolver Shots Fired Down Upon a Land League Street Procession—Many Persons Wounded.

LONDONDERRY, Nov. 2.—STILL LATER.—After the announcement of the decision of the City Council rescinding the motion to grant them the use of the City Hall for the purpose of holding a meeting, the Nationalists proceeded in a body to the railway station to await the arrival of Mr. Dawson, the Lord Mayor of Dublin. The train bearing His Lordship had scarcely halted at the depot when he appeared and was quickly seized and hurried to a carriage by a reception committee. A procession was then formed and the line of march taken through the principal streets to the hotel, where a banquet had been prepared. Wherever possible along the line of the route of the procession Orangemen had taken positions in the windows and upon the roofs of the buildings. For a short time, as the Nationalists were passing along the roadway, the Orangemen above contended themselves with hooting, jeering, and showering imprecations upon the Land Leaguers. Suddenly a pistol shot was heard. This was apparently the signal for an attack, as revolvers were fired in rapid succession all along the line, while slates were torn from the roof and hurled upon the heads of the Nationalists. Having given vent to their excess of bad feeling the Orangemen made no further demonstrations and the violence subsided after a few desultory shots. Considering the extent of the firing and the number of missiles thrown, the casualties were few. One Catholic, a boy, was shot and may die from the effect of his wound, and perhaps ten or twelve others were more or less seriously hurt. The hotel was reached without further interruption and the Nationalists dispersed. Mr. Dawson in the afternoon issued a request to his friends and supporters to abstain from acts of violence in retaliation for the outrage. In the evening Mr. Dawson delivered a lecture at the National Institute on the subject of "Franchise." His audience was large and enthusiastic. No attempt was made to interfere with the progress of the lecture. The town is now perfectly quiet and no further outbreak is apprehended. Several Orangemen were arrested for firing revolvers at the procession and search is being made for others who are known to have been concerned in the attack.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs: none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured. "In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL a permanent cure was effected. I am now 63 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER, Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Group.—A Mother's Tribute. "While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours, MRS. EMMA GEDNEY." 150 West 128th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effectual remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CRANE." Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882. "I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN." Ryhalia, Miss., April 5, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung troubles. E. BRADON." Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882. No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
