In a debate in the Senate Sherman, Bayard and Plumb favored an early payment of the National debt. This policy was opposed by Senator Beck.

Mr. Cox, of New York, introduced in the House a bill to reduce to one cent the postage on drop letters. Also, a bill for the enforcement of the eight-hour law.

It is denied that there is a cattle epidemic or contagion in Kansas. The few animals that have died were given unwholesome food which caused an ailment similar to dry murrain.

As both the President and Senator Anthony, who will probably be the acting Vice President, are widowers, the wife of Speaker Carlisle becomes the official lady head of society in Washington.

REPRESENTATIVE HILL, of Ohio, has introduced a bill in the House granting the soldiers of the late war each 160 acres of the public lands. This bill contains the same provisions as the law granting public lands to the soldiers of the war of 1812, and the Mexican war.

A "wish-bone" wedding is the proper idea now. The couple about to combine their miseries stand beneath a floral "wish-bone." After the ceremony the bride and groom are given the wish-bone to pull. The tug results in a break somewhere, and whoever holds the long piece is absolved from getting up and building fires in the morning.

COMMITTEES of the Mexican veterans submitted to Speaker Carlisle the names Townsend, of Illinois; Le Fevre, of Ohio; Holman, of Indiana; and Brohead, of Missouri, with the statement that if either of them be appointed Chairman of the Committee of Pensions, he, in their opinion, would fully advance the interests of the veterans in the matter of pensions.

That the public schools do not exist for the special benefit of the book-makers is a proposition which will perhaps be considered unreasonable by those enterprising gentlemen. A correspondent of the Cleveland Herald complains that school books cost more to the consumer than they did in 1860. Their cost is at present a matter of widespread dissatisfaction, and the rapid multiplication of them is equally condemned.

The scarcity and high price of eggs of which many are now complaining is not chargeable to the hens, but to a "corner" in eggs made during the fall months by speculators buying up through the country and storing them for higher prices but it is now probable, that these same speculators will be glad to sell their stock at lower figures than actual cost. New York dealers are now handling eggs from Germany, several consignments having been received already, and it is now predicted eggs will be plentiful and cheap and that the stock stored in refrigerators will be put upon the market.

ADDRESS TO A CAT.

Sweet warbler, when the radiant moonlight falls
In mellow splendor on the haunted shed,
Oft have I listened to thy plaintive wails
And cursed thee from my sleep-decked bed.
How have I wept to hear thy long drawn wail
About—
"Maria! Oh-h Maria! Comin' on-out!"
Why dost thou rage, vala cat, when sable night
With dewy freshness fills the silent air?
Why dost thou climb the roof to yell and fight,
And rip and spit and snort and claw and swear?
Dost thou not blush, sweet cat, when rosy dawn
Sees half thy fur clawed out, and one eye gone?
[Burlington Hawkeye.]

Masonic Banquet.

Thursday evening a most enjoyable banquet was held at the lodge room of Maysville Commandery No. 10, Knights Templar. Sir Knights from Carlisle, Millersburg, Covington and Lexington were present. Sir Knight Dr. Henderson, of the M. E. Church, South, made the welcoming address, after which all repaired to the banquet hall, where a bountiful supper was spread. The table seated about seventy-five or eighty persons, and literally groaned beneath its pile of luxuries. After blessing by Sir Knight Dr. Gould, everybody went in for the purpose of satisfying the inner man, and after that the second table was served. Even the orange groves of Florida and the islands of the sea furnished the guests with fruits, nuts and flowers. After supper the toasts were many and beautiful, and could you have heard the toast of Sir Knight Bassett, it would have carried you back to the days of Cicero. The toast of Sir Knight Gould was beautiful as a humming bird, and the toasts of Sir Knights Henderson and Boring were very enjoyable, and so it was with all the toasts of the Sir Knights. The benediction of Sir Knight Henderson closed the feast. The music by the Maysville band was exquisitely rendered. The entertainment lacked only one thing to make it the most enjoyable of any banquet the writer ever attended, and that is the absence of fair ladies, the wives and daughters of the gallant Sir Knights. There were no wines. Vox.

A Mound Opened.

Prof. Norris, the ethnologist, who had been examining the mounds in this section for several months, the other day opened the big mound on Col. B. H. Smith's farm, six or eight miles below here. This is the largest mound in the valley, and proved a rich store house.

The mound is fifty feet high and they dug down to the bottom. It was evidently the burial place of a noted chief, who had been interred with unusual honors. At the bottom they found the bones of human beings measuring seven feet in length and nineteen inches across the shoulders. He was lying flat, and at either side, lying at an angle of about forty-five degrees, with their feet pointed towards the chief, were other men—one on one side two and on the other lay another man, with his hands extended towards him and wearing two bracelets of copper.

On each of the chief's wrists were six copper bracelets, while a looking glass of mica lay at his shoulder, and his girdle of copper rested on his breast. Four copper bracelets were under his head, with an arrow in the center. A house twelve feet in diameter and ten feet high, with a ridge pole one foot in diameter had been erected over them and the whole covered by the dirt that had formed the mound.

Each of the men buried there had been enclosed in a bark coffin.

Card.

Circumstances will probably require my removal from Maysville about the first of January, and I therefore withdraw from the race for assessor. I return my sincere thanks to all who have kindly supported me in the contest.

Come to Stay.

A report is in circulation that I have withdrawn from the race for City Marshal. I wish to inform my friends that I am still on the track and will remain there until the close of the polls.

JAMES HASSON.

British Events.

LONDON, Dec. 13.—The hurricane Tuesday caused vessels to break drift in the harbor at Belfast, South Shields, Portsmouth and elsewhere, and did much damage to shipping as well as to buildings in various cities in England and Ireland. Several persons were killed in the streets. The British ship Liverpool, from Quebec, for Greenock, went ashore during the gale, near Stranraer, Scotland. Out of her crew of twenty only two were saved. The Captain, Davidson, is believed to be among the lost. The vessel is almost a total wreck.

DUBLIN, Dec. 13.—During the trial of Elliott and others Wednesday for the murder of Mrs. Smyth an exciting scene occurred in the Court room. Mr. O'Brien, Q. C., counsel for the Crown, called Mr. Boyd, Q. C., of the prisoner's counsel, a coward. He was sternly rebuked by the presiding Judge, and compelled to retract his language.

The Faithless Anita.

VINCENNES, Ind., Dec. 13.—Edwin W. P. Smith, United States Consul to Garthage, South America, was granted a divorce from his wife Anita on the grounds of abandonment. Anita is a Spanish Mexican of rare talent and beauty. She was a woman of easy virtue and an adventurer. The ill-matched couple were married at San Francisco, at the residence of the English Consul in 1871. The divorce gives Anita $500 alimony and the charge of the children. Her attorney, were it not for a breach of professional honor, could give the world letters which would make one of the greatest sensations ever published. It is supposed that Consul Smith wrote them, and no doubt they contain his charges against her, which she did not deny in court.

The Matrimonial Cuckoo.

CLAYLAND, Dec. 13.—John Washington, the crank who has been turning St. Louis upside down by proposing to marry General Sherman's daughter, and who came to this city determined to make Miss Mollie Garfield, daughter of our late President, his bride, has been adjudged insane and handed over to the Sheriff, who will remove him to the Infirmary for Lunatics.

AYER'S Cherry Pectoral.

No other complaints are so insidious in their attack as those affecting the throat and lungs; none so trifled with by the majority of sufferers. The ordinary cough or cold, resulting perhaps from a trifling or unconscious exposure, is often but the beginning of a fatal sickness. AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL has well proven its efficacy in a forty years' fight with throat and lung diseases, and should be taken in all cases without delay.

A Terrible Cough Cured.
"In 1857 I took a severe cold, which affected my lungs. I had a terrible cough, and passed night after night without sleep. The doctors gave me up. I tried AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, which relieved my lungs, induced sleep, and afforded me the rest necessary for the recovery of my strength. By the continued use of the PECTORAL, a permanent cure was effected. I am now 62 years old, hale and hearty, and am satisfied your CHERRY PECTORAL saved me. HORACE FAIRBROTHER, Rockingham, Vt., July 15, 1882.

Group.—A Mother's Tribute.
"While in the country last winter my little boy, three years old, was taken ill with croup; it seemed as if he would die from strangulation. One of the family suggested the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, a bottle of which was always kept in the house. This was tried in small and frequent doses, and to our delight in less than half an hour the little patient was breathing easily. The doctor said that the CHERRY PECTORAL had saved my darling's life. Can you wonder at our gratitude? Sincerely yours,
"MRS. EMMA GEDNEY."
159 West 129th St., New York, May 16, 1882.

"I have used AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL in my family for several years, and do not hesitate to pronounce it the most effective remedy for coughs and colds we have ever tried. A. J. CHANE, Lake Crystal, Minn., March 13, 1882.

"I suffered for eight years from Bronchitis, and after trying many remedies with no success, I was cured by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL. JOSEPH WALDEN." Byhalla, Miss., April 15, 1882.

"I cannot say enough in praise of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, believing as I do that but for its use I should long since have died from lung trouble. BRADDOCK." Palestine, Texas, April 22, 1882.

No case of an affection of the throat or lungs exists which cannot be greatly relieved by the use of AYER'S CHERRY PECTORAL, and it will always cure when the disease is not already beyond the control of medicine.
