

A CALENDAR OF CRIME

A Brutal Prize Fight Which Has a Fatal Ending.

Texas Comes to the Front with Her Usual Number of Shooting Affrays—Lynchings and Murders Reported from Various Parts.

OLEAN, N. Y., Aug. 15.—James McGregor recently became involved in a difficulty with Richard O'Neill, and on Saturday they met in the village of Washington. Accompanied by five others they went to a barn to settle their differences by a prize fight. After fighting two rounds McGregor said he was satisfied and offered his hand to O'Neill. The latter took it, and holding it tight, suddenly tripped McGregor up. McGregor fell heavily, striking on his face.

O'Neill seized him by the hair, and, raising his head up quickly several times, knocked his face with all his strength against the floor, until McGregor became unconscious. Then, without any interference on the part of the bystanders, O'Neill pounded McGregor and kicked him for at least a minute. He then ran to a pump near by and returned with a bucket of water, and sponged the blood from McGregor's face, and finally restored him to consciousness.

No sooner did his opponent show signs that he had regained his senses, than O'Neill again began to kick and pound him, and again rendered the prostrated man unconscious. O'Neill and the others then went away, leaving McGregor on the barn floor. No attention was paid to him until Sunday morning, when, being found still senseless, a physician was called. McGregor never recovered consciousness, and died on Monday. At last accounts no arrests had been made.

Dick Liddell and Bob Ford Go Out on a Frolic.

LAS VEGAS, N. M., Aug. 15.—Bob Ford and Dick Liddell are running a saloon here frequented by cowboys and fighters. After midnight Sunday both went with a party of cowboys in the employ of Lynch to White House, a notorious place of prostitution, drank champagne, became intoxicated and quarreled with a rival gang that came in. Guns flew around in the gaslight like lightning bugs. The women screamed and prayed.

During the rumpus inside three railroad boys tried to escape by climbing over the back fence, when a number of the crowd rushed out after them and literally rained bullets around their fast receding footsteps. The whole town was up in arms to enforce order, but just then three or four Mexican Deputy Sheriffs, policemen and Mexican citizens, sworn in for the occasion, were seen coming over the hill. They were armed with Winchester and 45s, and meant business. Liddell and Ford were soon in jail, and paid a heavy fine next day.

The Marshals of Caldwell are Called On by Cattle Men.

CALDWELL, Kas., Aug. 15.—A fatal shooting affray occurred at Hunnewell, in which city Marshal Hamilton Ryner, of that place, was slightly and his deputy, Scollan, fatally wounded. The shooting was the result of an old feud which had its origin last summer by Marshal Ryner shooting at some cowboys.

Hunnewell had been overrun by this class of men for some time. Ryner was sent for, and came from Texas to take the Marshal ship, and he was soon "boss" of the village, but some shooting was necessary, and he incurred the hatred of the cowboys.

Late in the night some of them began shooting while in the village limits. Ryner pursued and fired at them, ineffectually however. About midnight O. D. Hamsell and C. Clark, the former a cattle owner, and the latter foreman for Minlan, Montgomery & Co., in the Indian Territory, came into the town and began hunting for Ryner. They soon found him and Scollan in a saloon, and after a few words began shooting.

The first shot Clark fired struck Scollan in the neck, grazing the spinal column, and he fell completely paralyzed, but fully conscious. Ryner was shot in the fleshy part of the leg and will recover.

Scollan was also a United States Deputy Marshal. The cattle men are both quite well known here, and have heretofore born excellent reputations.

A Cold Blooded Murder.

SYCAMORE, Ill., Aug. 15.—Louis Taylor, a farmer living west of here, shot and killed Kittle Mitchell, aged seventeen. No cause is assigned. Neighbors, after two hours search, found him crouching in the river.

The girl, when found, was still alive with her clothing on fire, but expired a few moments later. Threats of lynching are freely indulged in.

M'COLLOUGH LYNCHED.

A Murderer is Summarily Dealt Out Justice Due Him.

COTILLA, Tex., Aug. 15.—One hundred men surrounded the jail and invited the Sheriff to surrender Green McCullough, held on a charge of murder. After going through this little formality, the vigilantes proceeded to take the man, and escorting him to a neighboring tree, left him dangling, heels down, at the end of a rope.

The occasion of the visiting of summary justice upon McCullough was the murder yesterday evening of Chas. Bragg, with whom McCullough had had a previous altercation, which at the time was thought to be finally settled. McCullough, however, only went away to arm himself. Subsequently returning he sought out his victim in a gambling room, and shot him through and through with a rifle, killing him instantly.

Result of a Cattle Conference.

TOPEKA, Kan., Aug. 15.—A conference of stock men has been held in this city. The gathering consisted of gentlemen representing the following railroads: Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe, Union Pacific, Central Branch of the Union Pacific and the Ft. Scott & Gulf. The State Sanitary Commissioners, the State Veterinarian and the Governor were also present. The result of the meeting was the issuing of a proclamation by the Governor creating a quarantine, until November 1, against all cattle from Texas, Arkansas, Mississippi, Alabama, Georgia and Florida.

Cholera.

MARSEILLES, Aug. 15.—Eight deaths from cholera.

GENERAL.

Forty deaths in forty-eight hours at Omergues, a village of the Lower Alps; twelve deaths at Marseilles in twenty-four hours; at Toulon, two deaths and a threatened epidemic of small-pox and typhoid fever. Other deaths in the haunts of Southern France. Italians town report but few fatal cases.
