Increasing cloudiness; east winds.

SENATOR LINDSAY'S tariff speech has been printed, and is being sent to those who write asking for it. There is a big demand for it. If the editor of the Ledger will get a copy and peruse it he will probably conclude that Mr. Lindsay was not "laid out" by long odds.

THE various detachments of the so-called Coxey army now begging and beating their way over the country ought to be run in as vagrants. If the authorities of a few cities will only muster up courage enough to dispose of the tramps in this way, it will go far towards putting an end to Coxeyism.

REPRESENTATIVE PAYNTER'S services in Congress deserved fitting recognition at the hands of the convention yesterday, and the BULLETIN for one regrets that no action was taken in the matter. Mr. Paynter has been faithful, conscientious and honest in the discharge of his duties, and has represented the Ninth with credit to himself, his party and his State.

"AGREEABLE indications of a gradual but steady improvement in all lines of business are noticeable in Cincinnati, and a more hopeful feeling prevails today than has obtained for many months," says the Tribune. This must be true as the Tribune is a Republican journal. As a rule Republican papers try to talk business down nowadays, but the Tribune does not belong to that class.

ALL of the boys employed in a large cotton mill at Biddford, Me., have gone on a strike "just for fun." They are more definite in their reasons than most strikers. They at least know what they're striking for.—Exchange.

As we remarked a few days ago, this habit of striking became chronic under Republican rule, and it's always difficult to cure chronic ailments. But the workmen will come around all right after awhile.

A SINGLE Louisiana producer gets $468,000 of the McKinley bounty to the sugar growers, another draws $392,200 and several more get beyond the $200,000 mark. This is the compensatory balance in wages and a specimen of protection those on the plantations fail to understand. Wonder if the laborers on these sugar plantations get any higher wages now than they received before the growers were voted the bounty by Mr. McKinley and his fellow Republicans.

"THOUGH the American Wool and Cotton Reporter is edited by a Republican and protectionist, it assumes," says the Courier-Journal, "that the Wilson bill is going to pass, and even puts a cheerful face upon it. Moreover, it has the temerity to advise people to go to raising sheep."

"The Reporter begins an article of more than a column's length by noticing the extent to which sheep have been sacrificed during the past year. It ascribes this in part to 'the bugbear of cheap wool,' but says it is by no means attributable to tariff legislation, but to unsettled monetary conditions. Then it goes on in this way:

We were asked the other day whether we considered it advisable to embark in the sheep business now when conditions were so discouraging. Our answer was, most assuredly we would advise embarking now! It will be many years before sheep will again be as cheap as they are to-day, perhaps it will be a life time before they are as low. The tide has already turned. Mutton has, within the past three weeks, advanced and wool, which to-day is lower than ever before in the history of this country, shows signs of improving. Our domestic consumption of mutton is rapidly increasing, as is also our export demand. Before a year has passed we expect to see a 100 per cent. advance in sheep. Apply the old apothegm of Wall street: 'Buy when everybody wants to sell.' Start in on a moderate scale. Buy a few good sheep.

The sheep business has paid in the past. It will pay in the future, and it will pay better than any other branch of stock breeding upon the American ranch or farm before many months have passed.

"This is simply dreadful," remarks the Courier-Journal. "The Republicans have been gleefully pointing to Democratic divisions, assuming that their own is a unit. Yet here is one of their number, for many years a Republican member of the Massachusetts Legislature, who not only refuses to predict the ruin of the sheep industry, but who ventures to predict a rise of 100 per cent within a year under a 'free trade tariff.'"

"Unquestionably, it is the prosperity which they believe will follow the enactment of the Wilson bill which causes so many Republican politicians to dread its passage. Their hope of future success is based on the notion that hard times will continue; hence their policy of obstruction."

River News.

The Mayflower left Pittsburg Tuesday morning with an amateur comic opera company. She has a stage and scenery on board, and can accommodate 700 people.

A strange looking craft with a peculiar mission left its moorings at Pittsburg Thursday on a five years soul-saving cruise down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers to New Orleans. It is known as the "Floating Bethel" and its mission is to reclaim fallen humanity and to evangelize the masses. The craft is in charge of George T. Clayton, a converted rolling mill puddler. He is assisted by B. F. Roe, an evangelist of Indiana, and Herbert Riggle, of Pennsylvania. Stops will be made at every settlement along the route and meetings will be held within the boat and in the open air whenever possible.

The new steel hull tow boat for the Kanawha service will be called the Mascot.

See the World's Fair For Fifteen Cts.

Upon receipt of your address and fifteen cents in postage stamps, we will mail you prepaid our Souvenir Portfolio of the World's Columbian Exposition. The regular price is fifty cents, but as we want you to have one, we make the price nominal. You will find it a work of art and a thing to be prized. It contains full page views of the great buildings, with descriptions of same, and is executed in highest style of art. If not satisfied with it, after you get it, we will refund the stamps and let you keep the book. Address, H. E. Bucklen & Co., Chicago, Ill.

For the Farmer.

Wheat in Fleming never promised a finer crop. The outlook in Mason and other portions of the State is just as promising.

A Kansas fruit grower says that corn is undoubtedly by far the best crop for an orchard that can be grown, as it breaks the wind, and the trees grow up straight. Insects, as a rule, will not trouble the trees when there is plenty of green fodder and corn for them to work on.

The Modern Mother.

Has found that her little ones are improved more by the pleasant laxative, Syrup of Figs, when in need of the laxative effect of a gentle remedy, than by any other, and that it is more acceptable to them. Children enjoy it and it benefits them. The true remedy, Syrup of Figs, is manufactured by the California Fig Syrup Co. only.
