New Jersey.

Cleveland, July 21.—That the preser ning strike for better working conditions in this city had already had a maintling effect upon the lawlessness of the newsboys' services, was again brought out this morning. Just as the newsboys were about to assemble on Public Square, they were attacked by armed strikers, who carried away the papers. The police rescued the papers from the strikers, who were then arrested and charged with theft.

The strike, which began about a week ag o, has already proved to be a decided success. The strikers have won a large number of followers from the newsboys, and the police have been able to do little to suppress the strike.

New York, July 21.—The strike by the newsboys in this city has been continued for several days, and the strikers have already won a large number of followers from the newsboys. The police have been able to do little, however, to suppress the strike.
