GERMANTOWN.

Miss Mary E. Thompson, a beautiful and lovely brunette, of Sharnsburg, and her brother are guests of Miss Gracie Pepper.

Rev. Wm. C. Dimmitt, a native of this place, but for many years a citizen of Texas, paid a flying visit to friends here during the week. He was attending the Cinquantennial Jubilee.

A party of young people, mostly maidens and bachelors getting along at that time of life when "most any dude will do" are tenting on the North Fork, near Linville's Mill, having a delightful time. Hon. J. R. Humlong is in charge.

There died at Dayton, O., on Sunday, Oct. 15th, James Savage Frizzell. He was a nephew of the Rev. James Savage, formerly of this place, thereby a cousin of the writer. He was born in Lewis County, but early in life found a home with his uncle, where he grew to young manhood. Starting in life with nothing but an indomitable energy and perseverance, guided by a sound business sense and shrewdness, through various vicissitudes of fortune the late civil war found him located in the drug business at Cincinnati, Ky. When that place was attacked by John Morgan his house was burned. He then moved to Dayton, O., where for thirty-five years he was an honored and highly esteemed citizen—for many years the head of a wholesale drug house. He died in the seventy-eighth year of his age, leaving his wife, two married daughters and a son, a prominent lawyer of Dayton, and a sister, Mrs. Thompson, of Cincinnati, to mourn his decease.

In the death of J. T. Frazee, we of this community think it our privilege to mingle our tears of sympathy and sorrow with those of his immediate friends and neighbors. It was here that he was born and grew to manhood and spent the greater portion of his life. Having known him from childhood we can cheerfully add our tribute of praise to his many noble and endearing qualities. As a school-boy, as a young man, as a companion and friend he ever manifested the same uniformly pleasant, social disposition and sterling traits of character that rendered him in after years the valued citizen and neighbor, the true and faithful Christian gentleman. For many years he was a substantial member of the Christian Church at this place and Superintendent of its Sunday school, was loved and revered by the young and old, who deeply regretted the departure of himself and lovely family from among us. After he was stricken with the terrible disease that blighted his health and wrecked his manly form he occasionally visited our town, and though frail and tottering he always seemed delighted to mingle with the people of his native place. To the family and friends we can safely say that they have the deepest sympathy of our people in this sad bereavement. Personally we can truly say that we have lost a friend to whom we were closely attached. The pleasant intercourse that we have enjoyed with him in social life and the hours spent at his once happy home will ever be a bright place in our memory. How appropriate that as the ripened fruit is being gathered and the sear and yellow leaf is falling one by one, that this man of God should be gathered to his reward.

"A Wise Woman" Coming to Maysville.

The apparent interest with which the engagement of Marie Lamour and company in Wilfred Clarke's great comedy success, "A Wise Woman," at the Washington Opera House Saturday, matinee and night, is not to be wondered at. "A Wise Woman" proved itself one of the most remarkable comedy successes ever produced at the Strand Theatre, London, and the tour of the play in this country has so far sustained the splendid reputation that preceded it. Miss Lamour, who is being featured in the title role, is a graduate from Augustine Daly's company in New York, in which organization she has been seen in many important roles. The supporting company includes Frederick Murphy, last season leading man for Julia Marlow, and an actor of rare capabilities.

HIS OWN WORDS

Contradicted by the Action Taken Under His Own Orders.

[New York World.]

"The United States pays no gold for peace. We never gave a bribe for peace in history and never will!"—President McKinley, Speech No. 37 (Fargo, N. Dak. "Since returning to the United States I have noticed some criticism of the fact that slavery is permitted (by the treaty) to continue in the Sulu group. Slavery is a recognized institution among the Sulus. If we were to take it away there's no telling what would happen. Certainly it would be to our disadvantage. So long as peace is maintained we will do well to let well enough alone."—President Schurman's account of the treaty with the Sultan which he and Brigadier General Bates negotiated under McKinley's orders.

Under the terms of the treaty slavery and polygamy are permitted, the Sultan gets a subsidy of $250 a month and nine of his chiefs divide $510 a month among them.

Foreign-Born Citizens Insulted.
[Stuebville (Ohio) Gazette.]

What Dr. Clarke, who spoke for the Administration in reply to Bishop Potter in the Episcopal convention, said was, although the Filipinos are savages, they can be assimilated as the Germans and Irish were assimilated in America. Is it any wonder the descendants of foreign-born citizens as well as foreign-born citizens are indignant and will resent at the polls the declaration that they and their fathers were no better than savages and had to be civilized after coming to America?

KENTUCKY SUNDAY SCHOOL UNION.

Some Reasons Why it Should be Supported.

- [By A. E. Fox, General Secretary.]
1. It is doing the work of the Lord.
 2. It is working in the interest of every evangelical denomination in the State.
 3. It commands the services of about fifteen hundred of the leading Sunday school workers of the State.
 4. These fifteen hundred workers by district and county conventions, by gathering statistics, by visiting schools, by the use of the county papers and by personal interviews, are organizing Sunday schools (or rather inducing and helping others to do it); are turning summer schools into evergreen schools; are showing schools the necessity of increasing their enrollment and attendance, and showing them how it may be done; are inducing them to use better methods, to train teachers to grade their schools, to organize home departments, to prosecute house-to-house visitation, and not only to save the scholars, but to train them up into consistent, well-rounded Christian characters and intelligent, zealous Christian workers for the school and the church.
 5. It is doing all this at an expense of less than half what it takes to maintain one strong city church.
 6. With double the contributions it is now receiving it can do about seven times the field-work it is now doing; for, whereas, it now has only one field-worker, who gives about half his time to office work, it could then place three additional men in the field who could give all their time to field-work. With this additional force the fifteen hundred volunteers could be trained, instructed and encouraged in their work, the number in the counties already organized could be increased, the forty unorganized counties could be organized, and in this way we should soon have a working force of from three to five thousand, all under competent leadership. What a mighty arm working for God and strengthening all branches of his church on earth!
 7. It makes possible the uniform international lessons, the tie that binds all hearts in Christian fellowship.
 8. Its tendency is to bring about the Christian union of hearts and purpose for which our Lord so fervently prayed.
 9. Its purpose is to extend the scope and influence of the Sunday school.
 10. If an ounce of prevention is worth a pound of cure, then saving the child is sixteen to one better than rescuing the adult. This is a standard around which all Christians of every denomination may rally.

A childless home is a cheerless home. The maternal instinct exists in every woman, and when it is ungratified she is deprived of much of the happiness of life. It often happens that childlessness is due to some cause which can be removed, and often is removed by the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. The vigor and vitality which this remedy imparts to the delicate womanly organs, puts them in a condition of normal health, the lack of which is often the sole obstruction to maternity. Every woman should read Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, a book containing 1008 pages and 700 illustrations. It is sent entirely free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for the paper bound volume, or 31 stamps for cloth covered. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, 663 Main Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

A Regular Sky-Scraper.

[Georgetown Times.]

Gen. Taylor, Republican candidate for Governor, who is something of a sky-scraper, promises to work wonders in the event of his election. In a recent speech at Paducah, he said: "If I am elected I will make Kentucky the brightest constellation in the blue heavens." It would be some compensation for the election of a man like Gen. Taylor to give Kentucky a fixed place "in the blue heavens."
