STATE INTERESTS.

ORDERED NOT TO SIGN.

In the Senate of the United States, January 10, 1901.

Senator Craig from the Committee on Commerce and Transportation, submitted the following report:

Resolutions Adopted to Make Premiums for Certain Articles Exported.

Whereas the Senate in the late session, appointed a committee of three to consider the subject of the exportation of certain articles, and to report recommendations for the proper regulation and supervision of the same: Now, Therefore, it is resolved:

That it be the sense of the Senate that such resolutions be adopted, and the premium to be paid on such specified articles shall not exceed to per cent.

Signed by the Chairman and Secretary of the Committee.

N. H. ARTHURS, Chairman.

Ordered to be printed.

ANTIFOREIGN FEELINGS PREVALENT.

Empire's Ambassador Advises Calm.

In the House of Commons, London, January 10, 1901.

Mr. J. J. Hargreaves, the Labour member for Sheffield, addressing the group of Labour members, said he had been present during the debate on the question whether or not the minister could still carry out the policy of appeasement which was adopted by the Cabinet. Mr. Hargreaves said he had taken the opportunity to make a speech in which he expressed his regret that the minister should have taken that course. He believed that the minister's policy was now in danger of becoming a failure.

The minister, he said, had succeeded in appeasing the spokesman of the Federation, and that the minister himself had expressed his confidence in the success of the policy. But he believed that the minister was now faced with a problem which was almost too great for him to solve.

Mr. Hargreaves said he had been present during the debate on the question whether or not the minister could still carry out the policy of appeasement which was adopted by the Cabinet. Mr. Hargreaves said he had taken the opportunity to make a speech in which he expressed his regret that the minister should have taken that course. He believed that the minister's policy was now in danger of becoming a failure.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The House has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 8.-The Senate has under consideration the consideration of the present bill for the improvement of waterfronts. The bill has been referred to the committee on Commerce and Transportation, and the bill will be reported on in the following manner:

Resolved, That the Committee on Commerce and Transportation be instructed to report a bill providing for the improvement of waterfronts.