

If it's anything a first-class drugstore should have, we have it!

Lournay
Creme de Citron
(Lemon Cream)

—Exquisite, cleansing, refreshing. Rejuvenates and refines the skin, contracting the looseness, reducing puffiness, whitening and rejuvenating. A delightful imported French cream.

The Jar, $1

Poudre Fleur Vivant-Lournay
The delightful French Face Powder
The Box, $1

—Introductory Offer—Good tomorrow—(Saturday only)—A dollar package of each of the above for only $1.50—until one or the other is all gone.

BREEN-LEWIS DRUG CO.

FREE DELIVERY PHONE NO. 58

Orange Crush in sterilized bottles.—Advertisement.
Union Taxi Company. Phone 75 and 30.—Advertisement.

Jerry Fisher came in from his ranch to spend part of the week in town.
We have some good farms for sale. Alf Dickinson & Son.—Advertisement.

The "mile high" and the "more than a mile high" clash Sunday at the ball grounds. Bring your voice and pet phrases.
B. L. Rudderow is here from Phoenix this week acting as court reporter, and doing stenographic work for Attorney Frank Harrison.

William H. Katus has been granted a leave of absence of seven months, so that he may go to Watauga, South Dakota, to prove up on a homestead. Katus is connected with the T. E. Pollock Investment company of this city.

Billy O'Brien, who is in charge of the trading station at Tolchaco came to town a few days ago to receive medical attention for injuries to his head received when he was thrown from a frightened horse onto his face. Bill is now following the new style of going bareheaded. He has his choice of doing either that or wearing a number 12 hat.

Top-o-Peak brand soda water in sterilized bottles.—Advertisement.
Going to the ball game Sunday? Who's playing? Why, Flagstaff and Prescott.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Presnell are here from Phoenix for a two weeks visit with the Arthur family.

Anyone wishing to sell or buy a city or country home call on us. Alf Dickinson & Son.—Advertisement.

Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Arthur and daughter, Miss Laura, arrived home from Seligman for the rest of the summer.

J. J. Dooley of Doney Park was in town a few days ago letting his back rest a few hours after weeks of strenuous ranch labor.

Many times Tanlac has done what was thought to be impossible. It's worth your trial. Breen-Lewis Drug Store.—Advertisement.

Former Sheriff Jack Harrington arrived Friday night from his ranch at Bodfish, Kern county, Calif., where he has a cattle and fruit ranch, and will rest up for a month or so visiting old friends. One of his sons, Denay, is now fire lookout for the forest service and is stationed on the Breckenridge, and "Dutch" is in the Santa Fe shops at Seligman.

LOCAL BREVITIES

Fresh Saratoga chips at the Brooks store.

Union Taxi Company. Phones 75 and 30.—Advertisement.

Mrs. Anna Bean and her daughter, Miss Grace Wenzel, have gone to San Bernardino, where they will spend a few weeks.

Judge S. B. Gilliland left for Los Angeles on No. 9 Saturday to have his eyes treated. He expects to be back by tomorrow.

Think of it! In a few years the fame of Tanlac has gone round the world. The reason is merit alone. Breen-Lewis Drug Store.—Advertisement.

Wilbur L. Wolfington was in charge of the armory while Bud Cameron and his wife were on their honeymoon trip to California. Cameron is now the custodian.

Sigfrid G. Swanson came in Tuesday to prove up on his homestead. His witnesses were Horace Baker, George Copland, Fred McClure and Henry Hutchison.

Jack Diamond and Hugh McGookin will take charge of Judge N. G. Layton's work at the Masonic temple, during the latter's vacation at Murietta Hot Springs, Calif.

The county board of supervisors, meeting with County Assessor Beeson, held forth at the court house all day Monday and Tuesday. Supervisors Garing, Campbell and Rittenhouse were all present.

Chas. Lindstrom, the well-known logger, who moved to Proenx a year ago when the Apache sawmill shut down at Cooley, is now sole owner of the Arizona Fuel Co., at 7th and Jackson streets, Phoenix.

On the night of July 4, Mrs. A. A. Johnston gave a dinner in honor of Dr. and Mrs. N. D. Brayton of Miami, who are guests of the Johnstons. Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Wilson were also guests at this pleasant affair.

Burnell Osler, on vacation from the Arizona Central bank, left Friday night for Owatonna, Minn., where Mrs. Osler has been visiting for several weeks, and after a couple of weeks there will return with her.

Mrs. Mary E. Partridge was in town the first of the week to prove up on her homestead, out on the old Grand Canyon road, near the Navajo copper camp. Her witnesses were Sheriff Campbell, Herb Fay, Charles Moon and her son, Eddie Lockwood.

Rev. J. N. Lewis, a retired Baptist minister, stayed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Brown last week, resting while en route from Los Angeles to Boston. He visited the cliff dwellings during his stay here. Rev. Lewis was formerly a missionary to Africa.

Mrs. G. C. Kendall, with her daughter, Sadie, of Meridian, Miss., is visiting her sister, Mrs. J. B. Ormond. Mr. Kendall expects to be here about the first of August, when they will go to Los Angeles and San Francisco, as the Grand Lodge of the Knights of Pythias, which Mr. Kendall wishes to attend, convenes in California about that time.

George C. Walters was in Monday from his ranch at Anderson Point. Walters brought in a sample of his rye along the first of June, which measures over three feet, the earliest crop known to have been grown in this section of the state. He says that the growing season at Anderson Point is longer than in other sections, consequently corn, beans and other such crops can be grown successfully.

Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Mitchell came up from Williams Sunday, Mr. Mitchell spending the day here, returning to Williams that night, and Mrs. Mitchell, until last week Mrs. F. O. Allen, remaining at her home here for a few days. They have not definitely planned where they will make their permanent home. Mrs. Mitchell is very proud of the fine family of girls she now has—her own daughter and Mr. Mitchell's four.

Ed Babbitt takes new cars in one door at the Babbitt garage and runs them right out the other to waiting customers, of whom these are a few recent ones: J. C. Polard, Mrs. C. C. Moon, J. C. Moritz, Aso Sheep Co., Mrs. Irene Starkey, Art Vandever, Elanio Diaz, Appoliano Diaz, J. A. Roswell, Adolph Boenitsch, who bought a coupe; John Marshall, a sedan; Henry Alberts, laundry wagon; F. H. Sherman, Ford truck; Johnny McWilliams, and Eagle grocery, Ford delivery trucks.

Turn out to the ball game Sunday—Flagstaff vs. Prescott.

Saratoga chips fresh, cooked in the best salad oil obtainable at Brooks' store.

Judge X. N. Steeves was up from Williams a day or so this week attending court.

Everything for housekeeping except linens and comforts, at Harper's Second Hand Store.

Preston Myers, teacher at the Indian school at Tereiva, Hopi reservation, is spending a short vacation here and at Grand Canyon.

Don't wait until your horse is stolen before locking the barn door. Protect your health now by taking Tanlac. Breen-Lewis Drug Store.—Advertisement.

Mr. and Mrs. T. W. Myers of Taylor, Texas, who are traveling in their new Packard from Los Angeles to Texas, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Jackson for a few days.

C. E. Quillen of Nocona, Texas, is visiting Jack Diamond, a boyhood friend, whom he had not seen in over 40 years. They were born on adjoining ranches in Texas.

Billy Lannom was in from A. L. & T. camp No. 1 for jury duty this week. He was sort of pulled two ways by his desire to do his best in court and anxiety to get back with his busy crews in the woods.

Dan Cronin was locked in the city jail over night, released next day by Justice of the Peace R. J. Kidd, soon arrested again for being drunk and disorderly, and this time the judge remanded him to the county jail to ponder over his troubles.

State Auditor Charles W. Fairfield spent Wednesday and Thursday here, on his way back to Phoenix from an official call to Winslow and the country south of there. Wednesday evening he was entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Riordan.

Mrs. Harry Gray delayed coming here from Phoenix for the summer in order to visit her parents in Chicago, and left San Francisco over the northern route last Saturday. Harry, lone some out at his Sycamore Canyon summer place, expects her back about the middle of August.

First Lieutenant Harold B. Embach of Flagstaff, Major Jesse McCombs, here for the summer, and Captain Roger V. Parlett, medical corps, of Leupp, all reserve officers, are at Ft. Logan, Colo., on active duty at the training school and likely will not be back before the end of the month.

Sheriff W. A. Campbell went to Cedar Ridge on Saturday and brought back Tse Le Pai, an Indian who entered the store of Richardson & Lowry early in the morning of the 7th, taking $42.20. Tse Le Pai showed greater discretion than most Indians who do this sort of this, as he appropriated to his use money only.

State Entomologist Oscar Bartlett, spent part of the week at Oak Creek, where he looked over Frank Pendley's orchard and ate trout. Mrs. Bartlett went with him. Pendley has a new power spraying machine for his trees. He has a fine old orchard, bearing a lot of fruit this year, and a flourishing lot of trees recently planted.

Martin P. Schriver, of Prescott, contact representative for the U. S. War Veterans bureau, will be here today to take up with former service men any matters relative to compensation or insurance. Anyone wishing to meet him should make arrangements through Ralph Davis, adjutant of the local American Legion post, at the Sullivan & Taylor store.

Raymond Earhart, state treasurer, was in Flagstaff on state business for a couple of days the first of the week. Owing to a slight "misunderstanding" at the convention of democrats at Tucson, when Chas. Ward was nominated for governor, Earhart's name was overlooked on the ticket and Earhart says since this misunderstanding occurred he is going to let it stand that way.

CARPENTERS WANTED

For house work in railroad yards, Winslow, Arizona. $7.50, eight hours. Camp board, $1.25 per day. Union and non-union men are working. Free fare both ways. Buy ticket, take agent's receipt, turn receipt in for refund first pay day. Apply to

C. A. FELLOWS, General Contractor Winslow, Arizona 7-12-tf

Concrete Brick and Concrete Sewer Pipe

Superior quality made locally, at a less price than they can be had from any other source

Arizona Quarry & Concrete Co.

G. T. HERRINGTON, Manager

Coco Cola in sterilized bottles.—Advertisement.

Order slabs now for next winter. Rates. Frank Bennett.—Advertisement.

Harry Dial, drygoods merchant of Williams, was in town Saturday on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Woolfolk came in from Canyon Diablo on Monday, to go to Oak Creek for a week or so more of that good trout fishing.

John McWilliam's grocery business has been increasing to such an extent lately that he has found it necessary to purchase a new delivery truck.

Miss Bonisteel of La Grange, Ill., who is staying at the C. B. Wilson home, is filling Wm. Katus' place with the T. E. Pollock Investment Co. during the latter's leave of absence.

J. M. Patton was down toward Williams last week looking over the prospects for the potato crop on his ranch. The outlook for this season is very good, although more rain in that locality would be a great thing for increasing the yield.

Union Taxi Company. Phones 75 and 30.—Advertisement.

Harlow Yaeger went to his sheep range at Canyon Diablo on Tuesday, returning Wednesday.

E. M. Ennis romped in from Grand Canyon on Monday to do his duty by his country by the jury route.

VETERINARY SURGEON Roy G. Scanlon, 20 1/2 N. San Francisco St. Phone 185. Flagstaff, Ariz. Phone 30.

NAVAJO RUGS Selected for Good Quality and Design J. H. FROHMILLER

THE COMMERCIAL CAFE is the Best, Coolest and Cleanest Place to Eat in Northern Arizona Capable for Quick Service and Courteous Treatment in every way Phone 195 Special Chicken Dinner Every Sunday

See me before you Buy, Burn or Die. Invest in Flagstaff Real Estate, or a lot in the Country Club subdivision. Six times the size of a city lot, for $300 No taxes or interest. Graded streets and city water. Good terms. W. B. RAUDEBAUGH Real Estate and Insurance Phones: Res. 96; Office 185. Flagstaff, Arizona.

T. A. RIORDAN, President. M. J. RIORDAN, Secretary. I. B. KOCH, Vice-Pres., Manager ARIZONA LUMBER AND TIMBER COMPANY (Established, 1881) Manufacturers of NATIVE PINE LUMBER, PROPS, STULLS Piling, Ties, Lagging, Boxes, Lath, Shingles, Sash and Doors FLAGSTAFF ARIZONA

Fine Program Every Night Next Week at ORPHEUM THEATRE All big pictures at regular prices except Friday, July 21st. COLLEEN MOORE —IN— "Come on Over" —BY— RUPERT HUGHES Author of "The Old Nest" —Seats reserved on lower floor, 50c; balcony, 35c; children, 25c. Special matinee, 3 p. m. Prices 10c, 25c, 35c. Reserve your seat NOW for this dancing, prancing comedy drama, alive with action and brimming over with laughs. Be Sure to Watch the Bill Boards

PLUMBING TINNING HEATING A Good HORN and good CHAINS Are indispensable with the careful driver. We have them—and the other Accessories—at lowest prices. Agents for the Durant Automobile And always ready to Demonstrate Gasoline and Oil WILSON & COFFIN "The Men Who Plumb Flagstaff" 112 East Aspen Phone 108

Shingles are Active We thought everybody knew that shingles are supposed to go on top of the house, but this fellow is putting one on the bottom. Dad sent the kid to our yard with an order for shingles but he went to the wrong place—they sent out the wrong kind of shingles—Dad's sore and the kid's getting sorer every minute. Next time he'll look for this name: PHONE 51 FLAGSTAFF LUMBER CO.