Misfits and Uncalled-for Garments.

You can't find a tailor who likes to admit that he has made a misfit garment. Some of their customers are 'queer"-the slightest imperfection many times throws a high-priced suit on their hands. Then again there are many suits that are never called for. Our store is the outlet for this clothing, and we draw our supplies from the leading merchant tailors of the United States. If we can fit you the price will be less than you would pay for ordinary ready-made clothes. We handle none but the finest garments, and any necessary alteration will be made by our bushelmen on the spot.

P. L. O'Brien, secretary of District Carpenters Council, No. 404 Rhode Island avenue: "I would approve of the issue of bonds if the money to be expended is equitably distributed on improvements throughout the city and District. I disapprove, however, of borrowing so large an amount as it is proposed to procure and incurring so much interest at a time when the people are not able to bear additional taxation. We need improved sewerage, but still I should, if permitted, vote against the proposition as it stands. In the older sections of the city, settled for perhaps lifty years, they still lack stands. SIBERIA'S GREAT RAILWAY.

Total Length of the Main Line Alone Will

An interesting report on the subject of the history and construction of the great Siberian railway, by J. M. Crawford, United States consul general at St. Petersburg, has been received at the State Department.

The total length of the railway from Cheliabinsk to Vladivostok will be, when completed, 4,696 miles on the main line alone, completed, 4,696 miles on the main line alone. A table is presented giving the estimated cost of the construction of the road.

"It is the intention," says the consul, "to institute a number of auxiliary measures in connection with the road, looking to the improvement of the economical conditions and the greater prosperity of Siberia. For example, to construct a branch line between the Siberian and the Ural radiways in the disterest of the Ural metaliurgical works: to build river wharves and construct branch lines to them; to improve the Siberian rivers; to develop steam navigation on the river systems intersecting the road; to establish a tems intersecting the road: to establish a route through the Northern occan to the mouth of the Obi and Yenise; to assist col-enization along the line; to encourage iron works to be es ablished in Siberia along the railway; to equip and send out geological expeditions for studying the country, and to nake exhaustive researches in the Amoor lice Regulations Amended-Exemption from Taxation-Contracts Extended. Report on Valuation of New Houses

The Commissioners yesterday amended section eight of the police regulations by adding thereto the following:

No person shall shake, bent, or offerwise treat carpets, rugs or other floor covering in such manner as to cause dust to arise their-from upon any street, arcune, park square, lot, or reservation in the District of Columbia within 50 feet of any house used for human habitation, occupation, or assembly. The claim of the Central Union Mission to exemption from taxation has been approved by the attorney for the District. He holds that it is not a church, but that it comes under the exemption clause of the tax law which reads "buildings belonging to institu-tions of purely public charity." Indignant Citizens Protest Against the Closing of a Public Well. A petition signed by nearly one handred ettizens, headed by Charles H. Bowen, M. D., of No. 308 Sixth street, and residing in the vicinity of Sixth and K streets northwest, will be presented to the Commissioners early next week, asking for the reopening of a condemned well. The petition was written by Dr. Bowen, and is as follows:

TO THE BOARD OF COMMISSIONERS AND HEALTH TO THE BOARD OF CORMISSIONERS AND HEALTH OFFICE.

I have the honor to request that the well at the northwest corner of Sixth and K streeds hotherwest be permitted to be pumped and kept fresh and pure, and that it be not closed, for the water to become stagmant. I known this pump and drank its water for fifty years, and there has never been a case of typhoid fever here. The last patient to die lived only ten yards from the pump to be eighty years old, and the cliticals who drink the water are the heattniest in the whole world. They want to keep so, and the undersigned cliticals, living hear the well and drinking the water, join me in this very argent request.

The people in that section are very indignant at the action of the authorities in removing the pump. They believe the state in the well to be largely mineral and perfectly pure, and say that people come from long distances and from every direction to get it for use on account of its health-giving properties. Many who signed the protest have been constantly using the water for upward of thirty years without suffering any ill effects, and all say a determined effort will be made to have the pump restored.
