"Built on Honor"

You've heard that before, and know it means Warwick Bicycles. But it's worth repeating, for 'tis this that's caused the Warwick to be regarded by all as a wheel that's "Perfection."

See the improved points on our '95 models, not unnecessary contrivances just to talk about—but absolute necessities for a perfect wheel like

THE WARWICK.

You'll know it when you see it coming by its Vermilion Rims, and the look of perfect satisfaction that sticks out all over its riders.

Just to see it is to know it's what you want.

That's why it sells itself. It's very appearance is more eloquent than any argument.

INFANTRY TEAM HAD SNAP

They Demolished the Treasury Nine Without Trouble.

Unusually Good Game Put Up by the Military—Capt. Jenger Resigns as Custodian of the League.

The Washington Light Infantry team may have played weak ball in the past, but the game they put up against the Treasury department nine at National Park yesterday afternoon was undoubtedly the prettiest exhibition of all-around ball playing seen on the grounds for a long time.

The cold snap must have been the mascot, for the boys played the game like veterans. They gained the lead in the start, and held it to the finish.

The Treasury Department team was somewhat weakened by the absence of Farrell, and were obliged to play a substitute who was badly in need of practice.

Phil Wisner, as usual, held down third base in good style for the Infantry, and "Doc" Kleinschmidt made several beautiful running catches in left field. Gleason, although a little wild, pitched a good game, and was excellently supported behind the bat by Gilroy.

Heydler made a couple of nice stops at short, and Winkleman covered the territory around second base very creditably. Gilroy, Heydler and Gleason did some timely stick work.

Mills pitched a good game for the Treasury nine, but his wildness at times was very costly. Barrows caught well, but threw to bases wildly. Gardner played stiffly at short, and Buchanan and Thompson batted well.

There was one thing that everybody missed during the game, and that was the presence of Capt. Jenger, who has resigned his position as custodian.

The league had a good custodian in the captain and will be obliged to get an A No. 1 man to fill his place. The score:

Boston at Cleveland.

Louisville, Ky., May 14.—The Senators took to-day's game in one inning and by a streak of batting.

It was in the seventh inning, when the score stood 4 to 1 in favor of the tail-enders.

McDermott's delivery was easy.

Cartwright started off with a double. Coogan got four bad balls and Cartwright stole third, scoring on Welch's wild throw to catch him. After Abbey had gone out Stockdale hit for three bases, scoring Coogan.

This rattled McDermott, and he gave Crooks a base on balls. Crooks stole second, and then Scrappy Bill Joyce knocked out a two-bagger, and Crooks scored.

Selbach got a life on Glascock's fumble, and both he and Joyce were advanced by a passed ball.

AND THE GAME WAS WON.

Hassamaer's out to center scored Joyce, and the game had been won.

The batting on either side was light, considering that both teams were heavy hitters.

Errors made possible most of the runs, only one run of the day being earned. Joyce led the batting with a single and a double.

One of Hassamaer's singles drove in a run.

The home team was only able to bunch hits in the second inning, when aided by two errors, three runs were scored. The Colonels made their runs in the first two innings.

In the first Sweeney waited for a base on balls, sacrificed a base and scored on Crooks' error.

A double play cut off other scores, made possible by Crooks' offense. In the second Preston hit for two bases, and Selbach muffed Clarke's fly.

McDermott got first on Coogan's error.

The error and a single by Sweeny tallied three runs.

That ended the Colonel's run-getting. Aside from the five runs made in the seventh, the visitors made one in the sixth on Joyce's single, Selbach's out and Hassamaer's single. Bad running and a bad eye of Tim Keefe saved the game from being a tie.

In the seventh Luby singled, and got to third on an out.

Sweeny got a base on balls.

LUBY TRIED A DOUBLE STEAL.

In attempting a double steal Luby was slow to start, and was nipped at the plate.

Then in the eighth Shugart hit down the right foul line, and made third in safety. Keefe was behind the catcher, Shugart being the first man up, and did not see the ball pass on the fair side of first base.

He called Shugart back.

Glascock's single following would have brought him home.

Clarke opened the ninth with a two-bagger, but the next three men put up flies, and the last hope was gone.

Monday's game will be played off to-morrow.

Mularky or Mercer will pitch for Washington, and Cunningham is down for the home team.

Terrible Drubbing Given the Colts on Their Own Grounds.

Chicago, May 14.—The Giants had everything their own way and gave the Colts one of the worst drubbings of the season today. Terry was hit hard, while Rusie was almost invincible, allowing but four puny singles off his swift delivery. The solitary run scored by Ryan came through two errors by Capt. Davis. Weather clear, but very cold. Attendance, 1,800. The score:

READY FOR MOTT HAVEN

Georgetown Lads Preparing for Inter-Collegiate Games.

MAHONEY'S GREAT RECORD

Captures All the Field Events—Cameron Walks a Fast Mile with Sullivan Close Up—Three-legged Race Was Very Funny and Was Won by Dixon and Nash.

Yesterday was field day at Georgetown College. It was the one day in the collegiate year, at least as far as athletics are concerned, in which all the students took especial interest.

This arose from the fact that yesterday was the date chosen for the members of the College Athletic Association to give their final exhibitions of skill preparatory to taking part in the intercollegiate tournament which will be held at Mott Haven, N. Y., on May 24 and 25.

There is an old saying among the students that it is only necessary to advertise a game and a deluge is sure to follow. Though it did not rain yesterday, the plentiful showers that fell on Monday prevented the carrying out of the programme as previously arranged.

GROUNDS NOT IN GOOD SHAPE.

It was the intention to have the field and track events come off yesterday, but the campus grounds were soggy and in no condition for swift running. The track events, therefore, were postponed until to-day, when it is hoped the grounds will be in better condition.

The entries yesterday were the pick of the athletic association, and these did such exceptionally fine work as to cause the boys to conclude that they would be "right in it" at Mott Haven.

"Big" George Mahoney, the particular pride of the college athletes and the star pitcher of the baseball team, got first place in every event.

W. E. Fox proved he could do the 100 yard race pretty close under ten seconds.

W. C. Cameron surprised everyone by covering the mile walk in eight minutes, Joe Sullivan was the other entry in this event who did not drop out, and he came in ten seconds behind Cameron.

The most amusing event of the afternoon was the three-legged race. There were ten entries, but only two could stand the pressure—Dixon and Walsh and McManus and O'Brien.

In the team race the class of '95 fell out. This not owing to lack of skill or endurance, but because Mr. Raymond Baby's russet shoes stuck fast in the mud and left him in his stockings.

VERY GOOD SHOWING.

When it is taken into consideration that the athletes have not been practicing for some time; also the unfavorable weather and the bad condition of the grounds the showing yesterday was unusually fine and great hopes are entertained that the "boys" will bring back several firsts from the intercollegiate meet.

The coming annual field meeting of the Intercollegiate Association is of considerable importance to the colleges all over the country, as those who take first place will represent the American colleges abroad in their contest with the English universities of Cambridge and Oxford.

The results of the events yesterday were as follows:

Putting the shot—George Mahoney, thirty-nine feet, five and a half inches, G. Merrich, thirty-five feet, and W. E. Fox, thirty-two feet.

Running broad jump—G. Mahoney, twenty feet, two inches; A. Scanlon, nineteen feet, five inches, and Julius Walsh, eighteen feet, six inches.

Throwing the hammer, sixteen pounds—G. Mahoney, ninety-eight feet; J. O'Connor, ninety feet, and T. Welsh, eighty-five feet.

Throwing the ball—G. Mahoney first, J. O'Connor second, and R. G. Hurley third.

Mile walk—W. E. Cameron, eight minutes and Joe Sullivan, eight minutes and ten seconds.

Three-legged race—W. W. Dixon and R. Walsh first and E. F. McManus and J. P. O'Brien second.

Team race—Class '95 first, class '96 second, class '97 third, and class '98 fourth.

The association yesterday elected the following officers for the ensuing year:

Vice president, Walter S. Martin; manager of athletics, Conde M. Nast; manager field and track, Charles B. Burke; secretary, Frank E. Slattery; president, of billiard association, James O'Connor, and official reporter, Thomas J. Duffy.

TO BE RUN IN THE MUD

Heavy Rains at Gravesend Will Make a Slippery Suburban.

REY EL SANTA ANITA'S CHANCE

Westerners Used to Heavy Going Will Have a Slight Advantage—A Round Dozen Will Start and Their Condition Is Not All That Could Be Desired. Bookmaking on the Quiet.

New York, May 14.—Gravesend will witness the sport of kings to-morrow. The Expectation Stakes, with its promises, and the Brooklyn Handicap with its possibilities will be run, and the card has many other good things for the thousands who will be there.

It matters not whether the skies be clear or the track fast, for the crowd will be great and the contests will be keen, and these are the elements which the new racing law in this State it is intended shall foster.

To-morrow's meet at Gravesend is the opening of the racing season here, for the two days' meeting at Morris Park was but a curtain-raiser to the regular season.

UNDER THE NEW SYSTEM.

But with the first fall of the flag to-morrow a new system of racing will be inaugurated. In it there is promise of that honesty and fairness which alone will bring with a whipping finish a resignation to the fact that the best horse has won.

Out of the original thirty candidates for the Brooklyn but twelve remain, and the chances are that at least two of these will not go to the post. Only a few of the horses were declared out in February, among them being Old Banquet and Don Alonzo, well up in the weights, who were sent across the ocean.

Gradually, however, the others dropped by the wayside in the struggle for condition, until a round dozen are at the present time scheduled to face the starter. These, their trainers say, are fit and strong and willing. But their trials show that this is not the case in every instance.

SPEAK-EASY BETTING.

The field will not be large, but of a character that in these days of "speak-easy" bookmakers reduces the question of favorite to a strangely constructed problem indeed.

As the odds now stand Dr. Rice, last year's winner, and Ramapo, who gained fame by winning the Suburban and the Metropolitan in succession, are almost even up in the estimation of those who are looking for odds.

To-day's storm has sent Rey El Santa Anita's stock booming, for the Western crack is partial to mud, and mud it is likely to be to-morrow.

Sir Walter, whose gameness is unquestioned, though apt to be nervous and somewhat uncertain at the post, has a host of supporters, while the others are more or less fancied by those who have "inside information."

ENTRIES AND JOCKEYS.

The entries for the Brooklyn Handicap are as follows:

Ramapo, 5, 127 pounds.. .. .. ..Griffin.
Sir Walter, 5, 124 pounds.. .. .. ..Doggett.
Dr. Rice, 5, 122 pounds.. .. .. ..Taral.
Rey El Santa Anita, 4, 118 pounds..Bergen.
Rubicon, 4, 118 pounds.. .. .. ..Midgley
Lazzarone, 4, 113 pounds.. .. ..Murphy.
Russetlaw, 5, 109 pounds.. .. ..Littlefield.
Declare, 4, 106 pounds.. .. .. J. Lamley.
Horopipe, 4, 105 pounds.. .. ..Hamilton.
Counter Tenor, 3, 100 pounds.. .. ..Lamley.
Ed. Kearney, 4, 97 pounds.. .. .. ..Penn.
Assignee, 4, 95 pounds.. .. ..Keefe.

Counter Tenor and Declare are considered as the two extremely doubtful entries, the chances always being strong against a three-year-old, and declare having showed but poor speed in the trial.

GRAVESEND ENTRIES.

New York, May 14.—Following are the entries for to-morrow at Gravesend:

First race—For all ages. Six furlongs. Domino, 122; Wernberg, Factotum, and Patrician, 112 each; Sister Mary, 109, Silvie and Lizzie, 95 each.

Second race—For three-year-olds. One mile: Connoisseur, and Delabra, 122 each; Kennel and Hailstone, 110 each; Emma C., Owlet, and Hermanita, 105 each.

Surrendered to Sanitary Officer Frank.

Mrs. Virginia M. Lount, who escaped from the government insane asylum, as described in Monday's Times, is again in custody. She walked jauntily into Sanitary Officer Frank's office at police headquarters yesterday, and said:

"Well, Mr. Frank, my outing is over and I have come to surrender myself."

Mrs. Lount added that she escaped from St. Elizabeth's simply for the purpose of enjoying a spring vacation, and now that it was over, she was willing to again be confined and figure as a "prisoner of poverty." While away from the asylum she stopped with a friend on Third street. She was returned to St. Elizabeth's yesterday afternoon.

Hotel Vendome Opened.

The formal opening of the new Hotel Vendome last night was celebrated by a large company of the friends of Mr. R. P. Emerson, the lessee and landlord, among whom were the members of Company C, of the Fourth battalion, D. C. N. G. Mr. Emerson is well known as connected with the management of Willard's Hotel for several years past, and during the Fifty-second Congress, as proprietor of the House restaurant.

Receiver Poole Resigned.

L. H. Poole, one of the receivers of the Fidelity Building, Loan and Investment Association, resigned the position yesterday and Judge Cox accepted his resignation. This leaves the settlement of the business of the association in the hands of Mr. Cabell Williamson, the other receiver.

Dyrenforth's Sale.

Dyrenforth has made an important move in the history of Washington merchandising. This well-known clothing house has leased the large second floor of the building in which their store is located, and will very shortly commence the great alterations and improvements necessary to complete their work of progress and development. Before this can be attempted, however, the entire stock on hand, and amounting in value to $150,000, must be closed out at great sacrifice. This must be done to avoid its being spoiled or seriously damaged during the alterations and changes. A reduction of one-quarter, or, 25 per cent. will be made, and Washingtonians will reap the benefit. Seldom, if ever, has such an opportunity occurred to secure the finest grades of clothing in wonderful variety and in all the very latest styles at such prices. The sale will be a revelation and every one should call and see the bargains that will be offered, beginning to-day.

Even the wintry winds could not stem the tide of steady buying which prevailed here yesterday. Of course we shall be accused of ruining the clothing business—spoiling you and losing money for ourselves, but it matters little to us. We are not guided by what others do. We started out to make this YOUR clothing store—to save you money—not to get rich quick! In the face of general complaint we have had a most successful season—a third greater than last spring. If we come out "whole" on the balance of the season's business, we shall be satisfied. We are glad to be able to "spoil" you with lower prices, for you haven't been "spoiled" these many years.

Here's the store news in a nut-shell: Any SUIT on our first floor—any SUIT that has been $10, $12, $12.50, $13.50, $14 and $15,

Is Yours for $8.25

The conditions of this sale are these: Strictly "cash" and all alterations extra, for we don't want to lose too much.

Needless to suggest the advantages of first selections.

SAILORS MADE SOLDIERS

School of Application Exercises at Marine Barracks.

PLEASING SOCIAL FEATURE

Young Officers Fresh from the Naval Academy Are Taught Methods of Land Warfare—Mimic Fight Was a Very Exciting and Exhilarating Episode—Spectacular Effect.

The annual exercises of the School of Application, which always include a pleasing social feature, were held yesterday, beginning at 9:30 a. m. and closing at 3 p. m., at the Marine Barracks.

The school is composed of the young officers who are assigned to the Marine Corps from the last class at the Naval Academy. There are also under instruction there a class of non-commissioned officers, the instructor being Capt. Paul St. Clair Murphy, at Marine Corps headquarters. The object of the special course is to supplement the school of the sailor with that of the soldier. The curriculum consists of theoretical studies in maps, papers, section room and practical work in drill, tactics in the company, battalion, battery, signals and torpedoes.

COMPOSITION OF CLASS.

The class to be examined was composed of Lieuts. Dawson, Lowe, Davis, Russell, Maclin, and Borden, of the last graduated class. The board of visitors was Capt. Cooke, of the Navy; Major Reid, of the marine corps, and Capt. Chase, of the artillery.

The exercises were opened with the reception of the board of examiners. The course of instruction was then explained to the young officers, and the non-commissioned men on all the topics discussed in the curriculum of the past year. After the examinations in the book studies the practical work of the field was commenced. There were four companies of marines in attendance, which the young officers were required to handle, and there was also a launch on which they gave an exhibition in their proficiency in torpedo service, the direction, handling, explosion, etc., of these engines of war.

There were two especially interesting details of the school practice, one of which was the assault and defense of a given position. The marines were divided into two armies, one of which, the attacking, was in command of Lieutenant Dawson, the defending, by Lieutenant Davis. This was a very exciting and exhilirating episode. There were used, of course, only blank cartridges, but the spectacular effect of a battle is always grand enough to all concerned except the killed and wounded. It was a scene of much animation with the charges and counter charges, clouds of smoke, rattle of the guns, and the taking and retaking of the impromptu sedan.

HASTY ENTRENCHMENTS.

The other special movement of interest was the construction of hasty entrenchments, the kind that are put up on the spot, and often during an engagement.

While all this was going on, Prof. Fanciulli and the Marine Band inspired the soldiers with a fine selection of music. Capt. Murphy accompanied the board as an observer. The success of the day and the admirable exhibition of his pupils must have been a sorce of great gratification to that accomplished officer.

Among the attendants were Col. Commandant and Mrs. Heywood, Admiral Russell, Mrs. Micon, Mrs. Major Reid, Mrs. Gen. Ordway, Mrs. Caperton, Miss Noyes, Mrs. and Miss Robson, Mrs. Howell, Mr. John M. Blankenship, Lieut. and Mrs. Winslow, Mrs. Commander Dunlop, Mr. Finney, private secretary to the Secretary of the Navy, Mrs. Col. Ainsworth, Dr. and Mrs. Percy, and representatives of the War and Navy Departments.

The exercises were concluded with an inspection review and parade.

The afterpiece of the interesting programme was a delightful luncheon given to the young officers who had passed their examination, and the guests as above named, by Col. Commandant and Mrs. Heywood.

It was none the less a
