

The Washington Times (EVERY DAY IN THE YEAR) OWNED AND ISSUED BY The Washington Times Company...

WASHINGTON, D. C., MAY 15, 1935.

Subscribers to 'The Times' will confer a favor by promptly reporting any delinquency of collectors, or neglect of duty on the part of the carriers.

HOW TO DETECT THE BOGUS. The Times finds it necessary to inform the public that its reporters are required to wear badges, authorized by the District Commissioners...

THE CONTRASTED CONDITIONS. The country is about to witness a novelty in financial affairs. The public is soon to be given an illustration of the difference between political buncombe and official reality.

Two Recorders Compared. Editor Taylor is not far from the accuracy of his work to only two gentlemen, Messrs. Scaggs and Hoover, since of the twenty thousand documents filed by him less than three thousand could have come to the notice of these gentlemen.

Rescue Lodge Meeting. Rescue Lodge, No. 5, I. O. G. T., held an enjoyable meeting last Monday evening at their hall, corner of Fourth and G streets southwest.

BOARD OF TRADE REFORMERS. The open meeting of the Board of Trade last evening was largely attended by representatives of the various business organizations.

WEST END NEWS AND GOSSIP. An entertainment was given by the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor at the West Washington Lutheran Church last evening.

FEROCIOUS FOES. One of the most important allies of the Cuban revolutionists in slaughtering Spanish troops is the American newspaper, Hispania.

HE VIGILANT. It appears by a report from the United States consul at Nogales, Mexico, that the Southwest frontier of the United States is seriously threatened with the importation of different epidemics.

This official's report. It has been suspected that the Southwest frontier of the country is not sufficiently guarded against the influx of contagious diseases.

SOUND DOCTRINE. In his address of welcome to the chiefs of police yesterday Commissioner Ross enunciated some very sound civil service principles.

Police Chiefs of This Country and Canada in Convention. President Ross' Welcome—He Lays Stress in His Speech Upon the Application of Civil Service.

President Ross' Welcome—He Lays Stress in His Speech Upon the Application of Civil Service.

No crooks or criminals in disguise put up at the Ebbitt House yesterday, although such easy prey as the Baptist brethren pastured there, for this hotel was the headquarters of the convention of the National Chiefs of Police Union.

At the afternoon meeting a report of the executive committee on the subject of rewards offered for the arrest of criminals was read.

The convention then adjourned till 10 o'clock this morning. Soon after the adjournment the chiefs were put into line by Major Moore and then marched off to the White House, where they were received by President Cleveland at 4 o'clock.

Lawyers' Fees Distributed. Judge Cox yesterday decided the suit of Maxwell & Chase, the attorneys, against Joel M. Bryan and others for half of a $3,000 fee awarded by the Court of Claims in a Cherokee Indian case.

New Train on Royal Blue Line. The Royal Blue Line train service to Philadelphia and New York was greatly improved by the addition of new trains, making three daily.

John Hutchinson was arrested last evening by Potomac Zouave and locked up at the Anacostia station charged with participating in an affray at Good Hope Monday afternoon.

Boys, READ THIS. Here's a Chance to Make Money and be Reporters.

The Times makes the following offer to the School Boys of the District of Columbia. Twenty-five cents will be paid for every item of news of enough public interest to be printed, provided the item is not already known to the Times.

CONDITIONS: Each contributor must attend the Public Schools generally or the High Schools of the District. Contributions must be written on one side of the paper only.

TERRORS OF THE CROOKS. Police Chiefs of This Country and Canada in Convention.

AT A JOOLY HOUSEWARMING. Washington Ad. Writers' Club in Its New and Cozy Home.

Many Prominent Merchants Attend the Initial Gathering in The Times Building—What It Has Done.

The Ad. Writers' Club, a prosperous organization of gentlemen who write "pieces" of a rather practical nature for the newspapers, had a jolly "housewarming" last night in its new home in The Times building.

Other speeches were made by S. J. King and Frank Conger and by Abraham Mohr to the merit by some idea new and old on various methods in advertising.

Among those present last night were Messrs. Alex. C. Chapin, Richard B. Gibbons, and Samuel J. King, of New York; E. J. Barry, of the New York Illustrators' News; B. P. Burns, of Harrisburg, Pa.; John Quentgen Rodgers, of Philadelphia; J. B. Osburn, of Philadelphia; John G. Fisher, of Philadelphia; Sidney Bieher, of Dyerforth, E. M. Dyerforth, Harry Friedlander, Phil Friedlander, Joseph Jacob, Philip Moran, E. C. Chapman, Gus Lott, Ben Jacob, Jacob Straubinger, Edward Kohler, Ben Nordlinger, Sam Ganss, J. Ph. Herrmann, J. H. Herron, Harry King, W. E. Hayden, T. Brown, Frank B. Conner.

Looking over that splendid body of solid business men last night, one could not help but feel that the city of Washington is one of the most attractive cities in the world.
