

RESORTS AT WHICH WASHINGTON FOLK ARE SPENDING THEIR VACATION

Famous Sunday Night Dinners at Newport Casino Soon to Begin--Ping-Pong the Rage--Brightwood Park Attractive Suburb--Large Throngs at Washington Grove, Atlantic City, and Orkney Springs, Va.--Lively Times for July and August.

THE WEEK AT NEWPORT.

Gay Season Promised at the City by the Sea.

(Special to The Washington Times.)
NEWPORT, R. I., July 5.—The past week has brought a large number of summer visitors to the "City by the Sea," and consequently the number of social events has been much larger than at any other time this season. Socially, Newport will be gay this season, despite the fact that there are at least a dozen of the cottagers who will not arrive till the Horse Show, and perhaps not then. One hears considerably of the interest the cottagers are manifesting in the forthcoming flower show at the Casino, when the best things in the flower line in the greenhouses here will be placed on exhibition for competition.

Next week the celebrated Mullaly Orchestra will arrive at the Casino, and then the famous Sunday night dinners will be very much in evidence. To be a leader in Newport society one must have originality. When one entertains here the object is to outdo the other in originality. A number of large dinners were given the past week, followed by a vaudeville show, selected from the talent at a pretty little summer theater here. This style of entertaining will be much in vogue this season.

It looks as if ping-pong was to go far ahead of bridge whist in popularity this season. Hardly a cottage can be found in town but has two or three sets of ping-pong, and one of the latest fads is to have silver sets.

Tennis has certainly the "call" these beautiful mornings, as a visit to the Casino plainly tells, and the healthful and entertaining outdoor sport appears to be more popular than ever before.

Mr. Reginald Vanderbilt is devoting much of his time to superintending the improvements made to his new farm in Portsmouth, where the large force of workmen are making changes. The work there now is being rushed on the apartments which Mr. Vanderbilt and a party of gentlemen will occupy a considerable portion of the summer. In the fall Mr. Vanderbilt will have many additional improvements made about the grounds and to the farmhouse. A polo field and a race track are among the changes contemplated. Mr. Vanderbilt is adding constantly to his string of handsome horses, which are much admired among the driveways of Newport.

The largest social function of the season in the form of a luncheon was given the past week by Mrs. H. Mortimer Brooks at her villa, known as "Rockhurst," at the end of Bellevue Avenue. The guests numbered thirty ladies, besides the hostess, and the affair was one of those delightful gatherings for which Mrs. Brooks is well known.

The chief of police has placed signs about the city in relation to the automobile ordinances. Several speakers of "putting machines" will be called upon during the coming week to assist the finances of the city unless they change their speed limit.

Before Representative and Mrs. O. H. Belmont left Newport for New York last week they figured in a rather lively adventure on Bellevue Avenue and had it not been for the fine horsemanship of their coachman, Mr. and Mrs. Belmont would have been seriously injured. The Belmont carriage was returning to their villa "By the Sea" when the driver of a one-horse trap turned his horse immediately in front of the Belmont carriage and a collision seemed inevitable. The coachman in the Belmont trap used his wits quickly, and threw his team quickly to the left and the carriages passed each other at a lively pace by the merest margin. Neither Mr. nor Mrs. Belmont left their seats, but they quickly took in the situation and congratulated themselves on their narrow escape.

Charges d'affaires of various legations at Washington are arriving for the season and the foreign governments will be very numerous represented socially throughout the season. The Berkeley, the most select apartment house in Newport, seems to be the headquarters for the legation attaches. Among those who have apartments at the Berkeley are Señor Don Juan Riano, charge d'affaires of the Spanish legation at Washington, who will conduct the affairs of the legation here during the absence of the legation minister, who is visiting his home in Spain; Mr. Charles Haage, charge d'affaires of the Swedish-Norwegian legation, and J. H. van Rotjen, of the Netherlands legation.

Mr. George Eustis, who is among the recent arrivals from Washington, is being given a hearty reception by his many friends among the cottage colony. His stay here will be for a greater portion of the season, and his big automobile will be here in a few days to join the large number of machines already here.

during the month of August they will have Admiral and Mrs. Dewey as their guests.

Mrs. L. C. Logan and the Misses Logan, who have been at the Allen cottage in Jamestown, left during the past week for Le Moyne, Maine, to join Commander Logan, who is in charge of the United States coaling station which is being built there.

Mrs. A. O. Bliss and Miss Bertie M. Bliss, of Washington, are registered at the Bay View, in Jamestown.

Mrs. Arthur Ordway and Miss Valerie Ordway, of Washington, arrived during the past week at the Gardner House in Jamestown.

Washington arrivals at the Thorndike in Jamestown include Mrs. A. Y. Britton and the Misses Susan, Sadie, and Flora Britton.

Mr. Frank Platt, son of Senator Platt, of New York, was in town during the past week in consultation with Commodore Lewis Cass Ledyard, who has been unable to return to New York, owing to the illness of Mrs. Ledyard.

Mr. T. C. Allen, of Washington, is registered at the Aquidneck.

Rev. and Mrs. John Cornell and Mr. and Mrs. H. K. Bliss, of Washington, are registered at the New Cliffs.

ATLANTIC CITY.

Col. Nat McKay a Notable Figure on the Boardwalk.

(Special to The Washington Times.)
ATLANTIC CITY, July 5.—One of the most notable visitors to this resort is Col. Nathaniel McKay, proprietor of the Dewey Hotel, Washington. The colonel, who has passed the three-score-years-and-ten mark, is here on his honeymoon and his bride, a handsome young woman, is only a few months past twenty-seven years. She was formerly Miss Mabel Geizer, of Crisfield, Md. This is the colonel's third matrimonial venture. Two daughters by his first wife are residents of Philadelphia and wives of prominent men of that city. His second embarkation on the sea of matrimony was with Miss Jennie Pope, of Brooklyn.

The continuity of the boardwalk has once more been restored by the rebuilding of the several gaps which were made by the tides and storms, and once more one may stroll from end to end of the promenade, a distance of over four miles, without once leaving the walk.

Big L. A. W. Meet.

In anticipation of the big meet of the League of American Wheelmen which will be held in this city from July 16 to 19, inclusive, a local committee, to assist the executive committee, has been formed, and it will have charge of all the work of arranging for the road races on the Speedway, which will be one of the principal features of the meet.

Chairman John B. Uhle, of New York, announces that the convention, at which will appear all the prominent "good roads" men of the country, will combine the interests of the League of American Wheelmen, the Highway Alliance, and the New York-Chicago Road Association. Happy young bridal couples are coming to Atlantic City now, and the hotels are making a specialty of bridal suites to accommodate them.

Earl M. Seltz, United States consul at Nice, is at the Ponce de Leon.

Charles F. Murphy, the Tammany Hall leader, who has been spending some time at the Hotel Brighton, in company with his bride, left for New York this week.

Representative Harry Loudenslager, of Camden, and Representative Henry Green, of Reading, Pa., spent the week at the shore.

Many Prominent Guests.

Frank Rockefeller, and H. J. Rodgers, Standard Oil Company magnates, were noticed this week among the promenaders on the esplanade.

Mr. and Mrs. George J. Gould, of New York, are at the Marlborough House.

Former Postmaster General Bissell, of Buffalo, N. Y., is at one of the large beach front hostels.

Former United States Senator Wolcott, of Colorado, is here for an extended sojourn.

Former Secretary of the Treasury Lyman J. Gage has secured apartments at the Hotel Wiltshire, and will be here with his family in the course of a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Dwyer, of Washington, D. C., are among the guests at the Hotel Strand.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis D. Wine, of Washington, are spending some time at the Seaside House. Mr. Wine, who is a prominent real estate broker, is here for the benefit of his health.

Joseph Overstreet, secretary of the Republican national committee, is spending a fortnight in this city.

Registered at Hotels.

The following Washingtonians have registered at the several hotels during the week:

Altamont—Miss J. Webster, Miss N. Webster, A. W. Hindle, C. A. Dunlavy, Miss Mabel Smith, Miss Jennie Smith, Capt. P. R. Smith and wife, Miss Smith, Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Smith, Jerome Smith, H. H. Smith, Mrs. Kate Ford Hicks, Miss Cary Hicks, Mrs. P. W. Barnett, Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Walther, Dr. and Mrs. Theo. G. Davis, Mrs. M. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. John Johnston, Malcolm Johnston, Mr. and Mrs. Edward L. Kaufman, J. H. Boland, Dr. Joseph Allen, Dr. Edward H. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. George B. Drake, Mr. and Mrs. George May.

Beak House—John Curtis, Sterling—Mr. and Mrs. E. Williams, Mrs. W. Chatfield, Mrs. Liggett.

Coleman—Mrs. D. Coon, Mrs. Sims.

IRISH DAY AT CHESAPEAKE BEACH

Tuesday, July 8, to Be Given Over to Wearers of the Green and Gala Day Expected.

(Special to The Washington Times.)
CHESAPEAKE BEACH, Md., July 5.—On Tuesday next, July 8, the members of the Irish-American Union will give their third annual excursion to Chesapeake Beach.

The excursions given by this organization for the past two years have brought large numbers to the beach, and in anticipation of a much larger attendance on this occasion the members have made elaborate arrangements for the pleasure and comfort of those who will avail themselves of this opportunity to enjoy a real Irish-outing.

The baseball match, which had to be postponed last year on account of the wet condition of the grounds, will be played this year. There will also be several other Irish games. None but Irish music will be rendered by Haley's Band.

ORKNEY SPRINGS.

(Special to The Washington Times.)
ORKNEY SPRINGS, Va., July 5.—Orkney Springs is now open, and pleasure and health-seekers are flocking into this beautiful resort.

Bishop Gibson and family, of Richmond, Va., are occupying their cottage. Dr. Fitzhugh, of Baltimore, is a guest at the Aldrich cottage.

Mrs. E. B. Hayward and son, and Mrs. Gillingham, of Eastern, Md., are among the late arrivals registered at the Orkney Springs Hotel.

The outlook gives promise of a delightful and successful season, as the beauty and healthfulness of this resort make it more popular every year.

BRIGHTWOOD PARK.

Enjoyable Musical and Literary Entertainment—Large Crowd.

(Special to The Washington Times.)
BRIGHTWOOD PARK, D. C., July 5.—The musical and literary entertainment given last Monday evening at the Methodist church was successful, both as to the program rendered and the large attendance, reflecting much credit upon Mrs. Heinicke, who managed the affair.

The hall presented a beautiful appearance, displaying great taste on the part of the committee in charge of decorations.

An excellent program was rendered, including vocal numbers by Miss Elizabeth Wahly, Mrs. Metcalf, Miss Sands, Mr. John Duff, Mr. Roland Carter, and a chorus of twelve small children, whose fresh young voices were heard to good advantage. The Hartstall Mandolin Club contributed several selections, and other instrumental numbers were rendered by the Misses Melita, Thomas, Horner, and Ayres, and by Messrs. Hamer Smith, Preston, and Krause. These, with recitations by Miss Whitcomb, Miss Beattie Thomas, and Messrs. I. J. Smith and Wilson, and imitations by Mr. Griffith, completed a lengthy and thoroughly enjoyable entertainment. At the conclusion of the program, refreshments were served. A large number of Washingtonians came out for the occasion.

The many friends of Dr. Darling, who has been ill for some time, will be glad to learn of his improvement.

Mr. Mackrell's new home, north of Every Chapel, is rapidly nearing completion, and is expected to be ready for occupancy by August 1.

Messrs. Harry and Claude Clayton are now reaping the reward of their industry as apiarists. They are obtaining an excellent quality of honey in very satisfactory quantities, and the fascination of bee-keeping is, in consequence, increasing.

Mr. Spengler, of Chicago, is visiting his sister, Mrs. Heilmuller, of Ninth and Flint Streets.

Mr. G. A. Whitecomb, of the War Department, is a frequent visitor to the Park. He is much interested in gardening, and his efforts in this direction at the home of his son-in-law are meeting with gratifying success.

Mr. R. T. Donovan, of Brightwood Park, has the sympathy of his many friends in the loss last week of his infant child.

Dr. Henry W. Porter, of the Treasury Department, has an attractive place at Woodburn. His two-mile walk to and from the electric line furnish the doctor with healthful exercise, and are apparently greatly enjoyed.

The owners of the property in the new subdivision of White Crest, on the west side of Brightwood Avenue are improving their holdings by the erection of several very attractive dwellings. This property is part of the large tract owned by the White heirs, and its improvement is in line with the progressiveness of this section.

Through the active efforts of the Brightwood Citizens' Association, Congress, at its recent session enacted legislation to permit the stringing of overhead wires in the county beyond the fire limits, enabling the residents of this locality to enjoy the benefit of electricity for both street and residence illumination.

The Brightwood Driving Association held its usual Fourth of July meet, at the Brightwood Driving Park, and furnished an interesting series of races for a large gathering of devotees of the sport.

There was a general exodus of "Young America" for the river and other resorts on the Fourth, and the peace and quiet of country existence were not marred to any great extent by distracting noises.

WASHINGTON GROVE.

Large Numbers of Washingtonians Visit This Beautiful Resort.

(Special to The Washington Times.)
WASHINGTON GROVE, Md., July 5.—Miss Margie Bradford visited Miss Eva Peck the past week.

Miss Edna Fitzhugh was the guest of Mrs. J. Walter Duvall last Sunday.

Mr. Christopher Clark spent last Sunday with Mr. Henry Altschul.

Miss Ruth Roberts, who has been visiting Miss Helen Merriam, has returned to Washington.

Miss Faith Woodward spent Tuesday with friends at the Grove.

Miss Alice E. Osborn is spending a few days in Washington with Miss Elizabeth Funk.

Mr. Alfred Lindsay, Mr. William Lindsay, and Mr. Alfred Lindsay, Jr., were guests of Mrs. Melville Lindsay on the Fourth.

Miss Ethel Appleby spent Friday with Miss Meta Altack.

The Misses Maydwell were guests of Mr. Robert Osborn on Friday.

Mrs. Luther Osborn and Mr. and Mrs. Frank J. Miller were guests of Mrs. Albert Osborn on Friday.

Among the large number of visitors who were at the Grove on the Fourth to attend the dedicatory exercises of the new assembly hall and the opening exercises of the Chautauque were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Craig, Miss Craig, Mr. Alho Craig, Miss Faith Stock, Mr. and Mrs. Percy M. Hughes, Rev. E. D. Hunter, Rev. and Mrs. H. R. Naylor, Mr. Robert Hughey, Mr. John C. Parker, Rev. J. G. Butler, Rev. C. H. Butler, Rev. E. E. Ely, of Galtersburg; Rev. H. P. West, of Latonsville.

On Saturday evening there will be a stereopticon lecture on the "Rifts in the Rockies," by Mr. D. W. Skellinger.

Mr. Roy Israel, Mr. N. F. Featherstone, Mr. C. K. Berryman, and Prof. Charles F. Warren will be with us next week.

On Friday last the Sunday school class of Mr. George H. Earle gave an ice cream sale for the benefit of the new assembly hall. The sale proved to be a great financial success. The class is composed of Misses Sara Osborn, Anna Murkison, Clara Murkison, Elsie Wiber, Emily Milburn, Ruth Koontz.

The services last Sunday were well attended. Rev. S. E. Nicholson, president of the Anti-Saloon League, State of Maryland, preached in the morning. Mr. W. H. H. Smith had charge of the evening service. He took as his theme "Weapons of warfare, ancient and modern."

Rev. Albert Osborn will preach tomorrow morning. In the evening will be held the first of the Chautauque summer services. Mr. Smith will have charge of these evening services. His theme for tomorrow evening will be "The Great Hand."

The young people of the grove met on Tuesday evening for the purpose of organizing a club. Mr. Janvier Lindsay was elected president and Miss Meta Altschul secretary and treasurer. A committee, consisting of Misses Grace L. Osborn and Mary E. Milburn, Messrs. Joseph W. Milburn, Arthur Hovee, and Janvier Lindsay, was appointed to draw up a constitution and decide upon a name.

The purpose of this club is simply to unite the young people of the grove, and to make Washington Grove a brighter and more pleasant place for the young people to spend their summer. The club purposes to hold weekly business meetings and to have a number of social events during this season.

There were a great many visitors at the grove for the Fourth. Every train brought a number who came to attend the dedicatory exercises of the new assembly hall and the opening services of the Chautauque.

On Monday night Mr. Roy Israel will give an entertainment consisting of humorous and dramatic recitations and impersonations.

SEASON AT OCEAN CITY GAY BEYOND EXPECTATION

Two Notable Conventions Held There During Past Week—Washingtonians at the Hotels.

OCEAN CITY, Md., July 4.—The attractions of the beach have continued this week most alluring, despite the capriciousness of the weather during its early part. The billows have been swelling proudly with a constantly augmented number of bathers, and old Sol smirks down indulgently upon a right merry scene.

Sand crabs blink with their toothpick eyes at the chic attire of many a belle, and the men are materializing rather well.

A pretty dance was held last Saturday night in the Atlantic ball room to commemorate the formal opening of the house, since which date its rooms have been filling rapidly, the unusual rush inducing the statement from Manager Webb that there has been need of one hundred more rooms than had been prepared. When the newness of the season is considered, together with the enormous capacity of the Atlantic and Annex, this strikes one as rather a promising portent.

Mrs. Shreve, of the Plum, early in the week, reopened the Pagoda, which, from its interior beauty, convenient site, and dainty cuisine, promises to hold its popularity as the cafe au fait of the shore. Cards issued to society people of the beach and adjacent towns announced the film's first dance for Thursday night, and it proved to be a very successful affair, under the supervision of Prof. S. Salmison, of Baltimore.

The Hollywood mandolin music, while something of an innovation, was voted really very effective. The dainty furbelows and capricious wiles of the girls upon the floor were watched proudly by the throng of fond mammas and papas crowded on the verandas. All went merrily.

Probably the most serious and interesting items of the week, however, have been the conventions here of the Maryland State Teachers' Association, and the seventh annual meeting of the Maryland State Bar Association. The teachers held forth in the Atlantic Casino, while the lawyers took the Atlantic ballroom, and a schedule of well-prepared programs was followed constantly. Out of working hours, however, all seemed to realize the delights of a holiday and the place has been very gay with the maneuvers of these learned ones.

The convention of the teachers dispersed Thursday noon and a banquet at the Atlantic Thursday night placed a period to this seventh annual meeting of the bar. Mr. Marbury of Baltimore, was appointed toastmaster, and witty responses were delivered by Judge Page, Mr. Richmond, Mr. Lively, Mayor Hayes, Col. John Addison Wilmer, Mr. Ferdinand Williams, and Alexander H. Robinson. Many members, however, have remained over for the Fourth.

Washingtonians of the week at the hotels are:

The Atlantic—Mr. D. H. V. Anison, Mr. N. Long.

The Mercu—Mr. M. C. Tucker, Miss Irene Tucker, Mr. and Mrs. N. T. Grinnell, Miss F. P. Poache.

The Mount Pleasant—Mr. R. S. Sharp, Mr. and Mrs. G. H. Markwood and family, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Boyd, Miss Edith Compton, Miss Emily F. Slemmon, Mrs. John B. Slemmon, Frank L. Campbell and wife, E. H. Edwards, U. S. A.; W. K. Taylor.
