eggregation of young hopefuls had an excellent practice yesterday fore and afternoon, the weather being perfect. It was the first time that the Pensacola mogul had seen several of the boys in action, and after a careful survey and summing up he is very well pleased, thank you. All of the boys entered into the practice with zest, enthusiasm and ginger, and a superficial look-over of the "bunch" would easily convince a ball "fan" that Pensacola has a basetall team that will be in the running. Frank Long, who has already been elected to hold down the left garden, is a clever performer. He is fleetfooted, a good judge of balls, and at the bat and on the bases he displays splendld judgment. He promises to be one of the stars of the Cotton States league. Jewell, at second, made a good impression on those who saw him work out yesterday, and Manager Hamilton believes that in the stocky little infielder he has a valuable man. Carmony, at first, is one of the cleverest infielders who has yet performed on the initial sack in a minor league. He is quick, a sure catch and covers every inch of ground in his vicinity.

Hansen, in the center garden, also showed up in great form. He gauges every ball that comes into his territory perfectly, has a good, strong arm, placing the ball from deep center into the catcher's mitts on a line throw. He is also clever at the bat. Manager Hamilton has three of the best pitchers in the minor league ball today. Gudger, is said to be a "phenom," and Manager Frank of New Orleans, has a string tied to him, releasing him to Pensacola temporarily. It is expected that all of the players signed by Manager "Jimmy" will be at the park this afternoon, as several are due to arrive this morning.

DR. KENNEDY, GEO. HERVEY, S. J HARVEY, H. WAGENHEIM, C AVERY, J. FRENKLE, G. QUINA W. BRENT, MISS BELLE BERLIN AND MISS FANNY WAGENHEIM IN THE CAST.

For the first time in the history of local theatricals can it be said that such an original performance as the one planned for Tuesday night, April 22nd. for the benefit of the Phunmakers, has ever been known of. An original play, with a plot about Pensacola people, Pensacola places and things that Pensacolians are interested in; a play written by a Pensacola said Mr. Miles. He further stated that playwright, and acted by the pick of Pensacola's most able amateurs, is something to conjure up as memorable. The theatrical ability of such artists as Dr. Mailery Kennedy, Mr. George Hervey, Mr. Stephen J. Harvey, Mr. Harry Wagenheim, Mr. Clarence Avery, Mr. Miles will be in Pensacola for Mr. John Frenkle, Mr. Gerald Quina, the East coast, returning in about six Mr. Willie Brent, Miss Belle Berlin months, when he will again note the and Miss Fanny Wagenheim, is too

Each of these well-known local artists possesses histronic ability to entitle them to professional consideration, and have been seen by the local public time and time again, individually. However, never before has this array of local talent appeared together in one play, and the very announcement of a play wherein everyone of these favorites take part, is sufficient advertisement to draw a record-breaking Pensy-Piazy is a side-splitting musical comedy in which Mr. Sidney P. Levy has been observant enough to arrange scenes, dialogue and song about local personages, with whom we come in contact every day, and about places and things that every Pensacolian, from the wee tot to the grandparent, know about, and are familiar with. Not a single opportunity is SACOLA FOR ASSAULTING AND missed to take advantage of fun, and laughter is the only answer to what is said and done.

As a well-known amusement lover was heard to remark yesterday-"The name Pensy-Plazy might sound like a new drink or a new cigar-but, even as a name for a play, it ought to be a knockout with the people who are from Pensacola in 1908 for assaulting going to play in it."

STEWART MAKING GOOD. Pitcher Stewart, the Pensacola wonder, pitched the entire six innings for the Regulars, and his fast ones were almost invisible from the stand. Daniels is the one who now conducts Manager Wilder is expecting much from this boy, and if his work yesterday is a fair sample, he will surely do great things in the Sally circuit before the closing of the season next
