SWINGING ON A BIRCH TREE.

Swinging on a birch-tree
To a sleepy tune,
Humed by all the breezes
In the month of June!
Little leaves a-flutter,
Sound like dancing drops
Of a brook on pebbles;
Song that never stops.

Up and down we see saw
Up into the sky;
How it opens on us,
Like a wide blue eye!
You and I are sailors
Rocking on a mast;
And the world's our vessel:
Ho, she sails so fast!

Blue, blue sea around us;
Not a ship in sight;
They will hang out lanterns
When they pass tonight.
We with ours will follow
Through the midnight deep;
Not a thought of danger,
Though the crew's asleep.

Oh, how still the air is—
There an oriole flew;
What a jolly whistle!
He's a sailor, too.
Yonder is his hammock
In the elm-top high;
One more ballad, messmate!
Sing it as you fly!

Up and down the grass;
Down into the grass,
Scented fern, and rosebuds,
All a woven mass.
That's the sort of carpet
Fitted for our feet!
Tapestry nor velvet
Is so rich and neat.

Swinging on a birch-tree!
This is summer joy,
Fun for all vacation;
Don't you think so, boy?
Up and down we see saw,
Merry and at ease,
Careless as a brook is,
Idle as the breeze!

Ruth Law's Bombs Get Liberty Loan Bonds

Ruth Law, American champion aviatrix, has attacked Cleveland, O., dropped "bombs" on the city, and gained more liberty bonds for the government. Other cities of the middle west are preparing for the attack by airplane to push ahead the purchase of bonds for Uncle Sam's first $2,000,000 issue.

Miss Law, who is Mrs. Charles Oliver on land, is here shown in regulation army aviator's uniform, with her French trench coat, "Papu." She wears a French service medal on her breast and the flying corps insignia on her collar. The airplane is a regulation Curtiss warplane.

In spite of her love for aviation, Miss Law despises elevators.

SUFFRAGISTS CORNER OLD CONTAINERS

"Save the family jars and join the suffrage preserve corps," is the latest call issued by the thrift division of the National American Woman Suffrage Association.

Ambitious suffragists striving to grapple the globe and make both ends of the food problem meet in the American kitchen have hit a snag in the can shortage.

"How can we can when we can't get the cans?" is the wail that has reached the ears of Mrs. Walter McNab Miller, chairman of the suffrage thrift committee. And her admonition is: "Go to the basement, then suffragist; consider the ways of the attic and climb to the top pantry shelf. In your search for containers leave no stone jar unturned." Mrs. Miller is from Missouri.

In a letter on the can situation to state chairmen, Mrs. Miller recommends the designation of concentration camps for containers and advises that state chairmen confer with local chairmen as to the feasibility of using local suffrage headquarters for such collecting and redistributing centers. It is further pointed out that the housewife, who replenishes the family larder at the nearest delicatessen shop is a fruitful source from which empty jars, glasses, wide-mouthed bottles and other discarded receptacles may be obtained.

CUTICURA HEALS ITCHING PIMPLES

Miss Ruehl Tells How Four Months of Suffering Were Entirely Ended by 1 Cake of Cuticura Soap and 2 Boxes of Ointment. Cost $1.25.

"Pimples first began on my face and spread to my neck. They were very small at first but they grew larger and got so bad that I was ashamed to go out. They were red and came to a head and festered causing terrible itching which kept me awake nearly all night. They lasted four months. My brother told me to use Cuticura Soap and Ointment as they healed him of ringworm. After using one cake of Cuticura Soap and two boxes of Ointment for two weeks I was entirely healed." (Signed) Miss Mary Ruehl, 132 W. Cross St., Baltimore, Md., May 9, 1916.

Cuticura Soap and Ointment are not only most valuable for the treatment of pimples, blackheads, redness and roughness, dandruff and irritated scalps, but their great mission is to prevent such conditions. They are ideal for every toilet and nursery purpose. Besides, it is a pleasure to use them.
