AMUSEMENTS

Fairbanks Roms Again.
After an absence of several months, during which time its owner has been organizing and getting launched his own producing company, the shadow of Douglas Fairbanks will leap across the Isis screen again Wednesday and Thursday. One scarcely will have to read the posters to know that this most pleasing of screen actors has returned because long queues are expected to stand in front of the theatre

DOLLAR DAY

MAKES YOUR DOLLAR STRETCH FURTHER THAN ON ANY OTHER DAY

Save Your Dollars for Thursday, August 16th

That is the day—next Thursday—when the merchants of Pensacola will give you a bargain feast long to be remembered. There was never a time when the value of a dollar was so important as the present. With prices on all commodities almost doubled over that of a year ago, and soaring still higher with the passing of each day—it certainly behooves each and everyone of us to spend our dollars to the best advantage. And, too, it is more significant when the merchant of today is willing to make such sacrifices—just for one day—for the benefit of his trade.

There Will Be Many Items

of necessity, as well as luxuries, that you will have to buy within the next few weeks—many things that you would like to save money on, and our advice is to wait until next

DOLLAR DAY

Watch The Journal Thursday Morning

on Wednesday and Thursday.
Mr. Fairbanks' own company has made an auspicious beginning. Its first picture, "In Again, Out Again," is easily one of the best the comedian has ever been seen in. Its plot is fresh and ingenious and its humor abundant and unusual.

Virginia Pearson in "Wrath of Love"
"Wrath of Love," the William Fox production starring Virginia Pearson which will open at the Isis Theatre tomorrow has struck a very popular appeal in its war theme.

All the complications in "Wrath of Love" are caused by Dave Blake being called to the front. He returns a few months later with five foreign spies on his trail, bearing a secret message for the head of the secret service.

When Blake left he put his fiancée in the care of the husband of Roma Winet, the role played by Virginia Pearson. The mysterious meetings between the husband and the girl when he takes her to see her fiancée who is in hiding, arouse Roma's jealousy. She is prevented from committing a desperate act by Blake's return after fulfilling his mission.

Irving Cummings, Louise Bates, Nellie Slattery and Frank Glendon are in Miss Pearson's supporting cast.

William Desmond Stars in "Time Locks and Diamonds"

William Desmond will be seen in a different type of role from what he is accustomed to appear in when he is presented as the star at the Isis Theatre today, in the new Triangle play "Time Locks and Diamonds."

This is a gentleman crook story, with many bold and daring situations conceived so as to completely mystify the spectator until the final scene. William Desmond appears as "Silver Jim" Farrell, known as the world's master criminal. The police of many countries are constantly on the alert for him, but his well considered holdness has been his greatest safeguard.

The strong supporting cast includes Gloria Hope, Robert McKim,
