

November is the pay-off

When the ballots are counted on November 5, we'll know which way for America — progress or reaction?

You can help determine the outcome NOW by helping to build a mass circulation for the Chicago Star, the only pro-Wallace paper in Chicago.

See an important announcement on page 2.

Meat Trust vs. the people

Why a strike in packing?

See page 4

New party in Cicero ballot fight

PACKINGHOUSE workers prepare to strike for higher wages following approval of strike action by membership of CIO union. This (above) is how stockyards workers voted last year.

ADDRESSING 6,000 persons who crowded Harlem's Golden Gate auditorium in New York City, and another 5,000 who listened through loudspeakers outside, Henry Wallace calls for all-out fight against jim crow, as CIO labor leader Eugene Clark stands near by.

