MRS. GWIN MAKES A SPLENDID TALK

Tells Of Responsibility Of Woman In The House And Urges Strictest Economy.

The remains were taken to Carrolltunately married to a girl, who has taken the responsibility of the running of a house, the making of a home entirely ignorant of the duties she The Business Men has undertaken as a life work. Knowing nothing of how either to make or uccess," said Mrs. Gwin. "The world war has taken women out into the pen, has shown that women are absolutely necessary to the success of any big undertaking of mankind. In the old marriage service we said, love, honor and obey-but the revised version reads, Stop, Look and Listen. Let's apply that to our daily lives. Let us lookand see where we have failed to adapt ourselves to the present conditions; listen to those who predict greater hardships in the future, if we return to the thriftness ways of 1914 and before; stop and ook to the daily routine of our homes. "Bolshevism, graft and waste in public expenditures are the direct result of lack of home training in value. "Use a budget plan in 1920 and ompare present prices with your bills for last year and see whether we can allow ourselves the luxury of waste. But be careful not to get the nagging habit over it, consider it a new and wonderful adventure. Let it apply to the conservation of energy, of time and of nerves."

The meeting was thrown open to an informal discussion, which brought Despite the leaden clouds and never out the fact that we are not expected ceasing rain, there were a goodly to put our families on short rations, number of women at the Thrift Week but to throw out our lives the extramade a fine talk on the responsibility but hurtful. # REDUCED PRICES on Men's and Boys' Suits and Overcoats Will Last Only a Short Time

This sale of Clothing has been a magnet for wise shoppers with a correct insight into the very abnormal conditions prevailing in the Clothing Market. The year 1919 showed us high prices, indeed, but we want to impress upon you here, and this goes with the fullest warrant from this house, that prices for 1920 will break all records. Digest this fully and come in for your share of a big saving.

Remember our safety policy, 100 per cent satisfaction goes with every garment.
