Everybody Cordially Invited

HONORS MRS. W. D. PARKER.

One of the prettiest parties of the spring season was the entertainment given yesterday afternoon at the Elks Club, when Mrs. J. D. Duncan was hostess to a large number of friends to meet her sister, Mrs. W. D. Parker, who has just moved to Greenwood to reside from Moorhead.

The guests were received by Mrs. R. C. Lipscomb in the ladies parlor of the Elks' home, which was transformed into a rose bower. Roses of all colors blended together in artistic arrangement, made a charming setting for the pretty frocks of the ladies.

In the receiving line were Mrs. Duncan, who wore a handsome dress of white lace and Mrs. Parker, who was attired in a beautiful dress of blue. Both carried lovely arm bouquets.

Punch was served in the rose bower by Mesdames A. N. Kimball and R. E. Aven.

Card tables were arranged in the ball room and the guests spent a most pleasant afternoon at bridge. Mrs. G. M. Barrett received the prize for the highest score, which was a pretty basket filled with flowers. The guest of honor was presented with the same pretty gift. The guests drew for the consolation prize, a dainty hand-made handkerchief, which went to Mrs.

Shelby Steele.

Mrs. E. B. Moore assisted in entertaining and serving the salad course. About 70 guests enjoyed the charming hospitality of Mrs. Duncan.

Mrs. Sam R. Chew died at her home in Van Buren, Ark., last Friday. She was a cousin of Messrs. B. L. & S. R. Young and J. W. Young of this city. Mr. B. L. Young will attend her funeral at Athens, Ala. next Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Chassanoil and children left Friday for New Orleans for a visit in that city prior to going to the Mississippi Seacoast to spend the next four months.

Mrs. B. L. Young and daughter, Miss Mabel, will leave tomorrow for a visit of two months in Chicago.

Let us show you a Sport Model Columbia Six; nothing better or prettier at the price. Pitchford-Lundy Auto Co.

"WILD MAN WANTED" SAYS CONNIE TALMADGE.

"In Search Of A Sinner," starring Constance Talmadge, will be shown at the Greenwood Theatre today.

Adapted by John Emerson and Anita Loos the picture gives Miss Talmadge, more opportunities for displaying her personality than any of her previous productions.

The action of the play revolves around a girl's somewhat insane desire to "be wrecked" and take the wickedest man in New York for a husband. But being extremely wicked, Constance Talmadge finds, is equally as hard as being extremely good, hence, when she finds the wickedest man available is a member of "The Purity League," she goes in for the delicate art of "making the tame man wild"—and emerges with surprising success.

"In Search Of A Sinner" is distributed by First National Exhibitors' Circuit and is guaranteed to hand you a laugh per flicker.

Mrs. Yerger Thanks Men Of Greenwood

In behalf of the homeless and infirm Confederate men and women of Mississippi, I thank the generous-hearted men of Greenwood for their liberal contributions given through Mrs. Sharkey Pate for the relief of these feeble old people.

I also desire to express for them and myself deep appreciation to Mrs. Pate for her kindness in collecting this money. It was not an easy task for her to ask the overtaxed men for another gift, for it seemed there should be a limit, even to good deeds, but she soon discovered from the kindly responses to her appeal that the beneficence of the men of Greenwood flows from an inexhaustible fountain.

Gentlemen, I thank you again and let me say you never gave to a cause where the need was greater, the beneficiaries more worthy nor with hearts more grateful.

For the benefit of those who did not understand why these contributions were solicited and therefore declined to contribute, I will explain that there are from seventy-five to one hundred Confederate Veterans, their wives and widows of veterans in Mississippi, who are in want, and who cannot be admitted to the Soldier's Home at Beauvoir for lack of accommodation, the Home is now, and has always been, uncomfortably crowded and the State makes no provision for the old people on the outside, save a paltry pension of fifty dollars for each Veteran and Widow of Veteran, this meagre amount for a years support. So you can readily see why we beg for them.

MRS. L. P. YERGER,
Chairman Maintenance Committee,
Mississippi Division United Daughters of the Confederacy.

CARD OF THANKS.

We desire to express our sincere thanks and appreciation to our many friends for the acts of kindness shown us during our recent bereavement, when our baby was killed in the recent tornado which struck near Philadelphia, Miss.

MR. AND MRS. MAX YATES.

AN INTERESTING COURT IN EUROPE

Declared One Of d'Annunzio's Secretaries, At Luncheon Tendered On St. Gabriel's Day.

Associated Press

FUME, May 1—"This is the most interesting court in Europe," said one of d'Annunzio's secretaries, at the luncheon tendered the poet on St. Gabriel's Day, when the "liberator" of Fiume acted his part with courtiers, soldiers and "king's Guards" and the populace acted theirs.

Fanfares of trumpets, the rush to arms of the "king's guard" announced his every entrance and exit. He is always accompanied by a long line of aides and functionaries and wears a happy countenance himself. At meals all the courtiers center their attention upon him and listen to the stories he tells, laughing sometimes and crying at others.

D'Annunzio wishes in food are always complied with and religious zeal marks the efforts of the entourage to please him. His uniform is always spic-and-span. There is not a blemish on his clothing from heel to crown. His long Italian cape sometimes calls to mind the familiar garb of the fallen William II in his German military cape.

On public occasions in theatres, his place is reserved with much attention and when he enters cheers are given by the men and women who follow him. When he gives a concert in the palace, his place in the front row is respected with the reverence due to a religious chief. His apartments are bedecked with all sorts of presents from the townspeople. Italian and Dalmatian flags make up the color scheme. On his name day, he was the recipient of bowers of flowers from admirers in the city. The royal march greets him when he makes his appearance on the balcony of the palace.

The China-Japan Military Agreement

Associated Press

Tokio, May 1—A recent dispatch from Mukden to the NICHU NICHU says there exist divergent opinions as to the abolition of the China-Japan military agreement, while the Chinese government seems to attach little importance to it.

General Chang Tso-lin Tuchen expressed to Lieutenant-General Nara the desire that military cooperation with Japan be continued, the newspaper states, to meet the menace to the Chinese boundary by the Bolsheviks. On the part of Japan not a little importance is attached to cooperation with China at least so long as Japanese troops are in Siberia. It is expected that a diplomatic Japanese official will be sent shortly to Peking to consult with the government there regarding this agreement.

TO CELEBRATE ITS ANNIVERSARY

250th Anniversary Of The Founding Of Hudson Bay Company On North American Continent.

Associated Press

WINNIPEG, MAN., May 1—One of the oldest anniversaries on the North American continent will be celebrated here in pageants beginning May 3. It is the 250th anniversary of the founding of the Hudson Bay Company.

Sir Robert Kindersley, G. B. E., latest of the line of Hudson Bay company governors that began with Prince Rupert, of the House of Stuart in the Cromwellian Wars, a visitor from England will take part in the pageant on the Red River here and in the subsequent street pageants which will be held successfully in Edmonton, Calgary, Vancouver and Victoria.

The Red River pageant will start from the site of old Fort Garry, early capital of the company's once vast empire and about which Winnipeg grew, and pass down stream eighteen miles to Lower Fort Garry. It will include Cree Indians from Hudson Bay Swampy Creees from James Bay; Ojibways from Lake Superior, Plain Creees from northern Saskatchewan; Blackfeet, Piegiens and Assiniboinas from the prairies and the Rocky mountains and tribesmen from Athabasca and British Columbia.

Sir Robert and his entourage will make the trip in old-time North canoes. A flotilla of freight boats piled high with furs will trail in their wake in charge of factors and trappers in pioneer costumes.

When he reaches Lower Fort Garry, Governor Kindersley will seal anew the ancient friendship between the Redmen and the company by smoking the calumet of peace, a pipe, specially designed for the occasion.

MORE HOUSES ARE NEEDED.

We can't expect Greenwood to grow unless more houses are built to rent to people who are desirous of local and making their homes here. It's up to our public-spirited citizens to organize a house-building corporation to provide a lot of desirable cottages to take care of the situation. The question is, what are they going to do about it?

Greenwood is the best city in the Delta, and the Delta is the best section of Mississippi.
