LECTURES IN HATTIESBURG

Subject: Things About Doctors Which Doctors and Other Folks Should Know.

The physicians of the city are making arrangements for the coming and the entertainment of Dr. J. N. McCormack of Bowling Green, Ky., who is to be in this city on Thursday, April 9.

Dr. McCormack will address the doctors of this section at the Commercial club rooms at 3 o'clock next Thursday afternoon. This will be the visiting doctor's heart-to-heart talk with the doctors about doctors' affairs.

He will lecture to the public at 8 o'clock Thursday night at the Auditorium on "Things About Doctors, Which Doctors and Other Folks Should Know." Dr. McCormack wishes it distinctly understood that this is no scientific and dry lecture for doctors but it will be of interest to all the doctor's clients.

He especially wishes to have the ladies present, and more especially here yesterday on the charge of attempted criminal assault. The negro was brought in from Edwards by Constable A. C. Lowry, who made the arrest. His name is Anderson Hale. He is about 21 years old, and his victim is a 13-year-old negro girl named Mary Rhodes.

The Daily News contains local and telegraphic news from other papers published in Mississippi.

Notwithstanding I am selling all the real estate I can, still we are overloaded with good bargains--some beautiful houses on Bay, Walnut, Edwards, Arledge, Fourth and Evans streets for sale at right prices. Also some splendid business and resident lots and cheap houses too numerous to mention. Can fit any reasonable buyer or any sized purse. Come to see me and be convinced.

Yours truly,
Thos. M. Ferguson.
