Mrs. Tommie York Is Hostess To Football Team

Mrs. Tommie York was a gracious hostess to members of the Durant Tiger team in the private dining room of her cafe Friday evening.

The Christmas motif was carried out in the elaborate decorations featuring a beautifully arranged tree.

Football boys and their dates, Supt. and Mrs. N. C. Hathorn, Coach and Mrs. Ray, Coach Chaney and Patrolman and Mrs. J. T. Skelton were in the group of 69 who enjoyed Mrs. York's hospitality.

One of the highlights of the evening's program was the presentation of an electric blanket to Coach Bell and a belt buckle and tie clasp to Coach Chaney. These were gifts of the football boys. The two coaches were also given a purse contributed by citizens of Durant.

The hostess was given a lovely Coty toilet set by the football boys.

California Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Durham and two children of California are visitors in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Durham.

Miss Jean Bullard Honored With Shower

Miss Jean Bullard of Booneville, bride-elect of Jim Dye Odom, was the inspiration for a lovely shower Saturday evening at Hotel Durant when Mrs. Rufus Herrington, Mrs. J. E. Brown and Mrs. Ray Bell and Mrs. B. C. Beisel entertained.

Miss Bullard was attired in a lovely aqua dress with a beautiful dark red chrysanthemum corsage presented by the hostess. Mrs. Walter Odom, mother of the groom to be, wore a lovely black crepe dress. Mrs. Brown was in navy. Mrs. Bell dressed in mauve with aqua sequins and Mrs. Herrington in black crepe with aqua trim.

The dining room was lovely with the Christmas motif being used. The punch table was covered with a lace table cloth and decorated with pine sprayed with gold, and red candles with ornaments were used.

An artistic arrangement of a cabbage sprayed with gold paint with a tall red candle in the middle and encircled with pine with red ornaments, which represented a rose, was placed on a table and added to the attractiveness of the room.

Miss Carolyn Hays and Miss Nancy Tatum, assisted by Mrs. J. T. Neely served at the punch table.

Miss Ann May, of Pickens, and a senior at Belhaven College, played a series of Christmas melodies during the shower. Mrs. Arnold Renacker presided over the many beautiful gifts and Mrs. James Odom, Jr., over the bride's book.

There were about 65 to attend this event.

Wesleyan Guild Meets Monday

The Wesleyan Service Guild met in the home of M. T. Williams with Mrs. Williams hostess and Mrs. Charlotte Tindall co-hostess, Monday at 7:00 p. m. Eighteen members and one visitor, Mrs. R. E. Moore, were present.

The meeting was opened with prayer by Mrs. Ruby Herman, president, and scripture by Mrs. Mary Phillips. Mrs. Mary Luke was program chairman for the night.

The program consisted of Christmas stories told by the following: Mrs. Jessie Lewis and Mary Lewis, "The Prophet," Ed Winna Martin, "Christmas Rose," and Mrs. Homer Terry, "The Magic Christmas Tree." Mrs. Mary Luke gave the Christmas wish.

Interesting games were enjoyed under the direction of Mrs. Mary Luke and Mrs. Tindall.

A salad plate and spiced tea was served by the hostesses. Hostesses and leaders for next year's meetings were chosen.

Maid Of Honor

Miss Carolyn Hays will serve as maid of honor, and only attendant in the wedding of her cousin, Miss Billie Clair McClellan of Jackson, to Lt. H. L. Smithson, Jr., of Goodman, which will be solemnized Dec. 23 at 3 o'clock in the chapel at Millsaps College, Jackson.

BPW Club Holds Christmas Party At Hotel Durant

The Durant B&PW Club met last Thursday night for a Christmas party at the Hotel Durant with Mrs. Mabel Norwood, Mrs. Nettie Hester and Mrs. Maude Tatum serving as co-hostess.

The club welcomed a new member, Mrs. Margaret Rush, and a visitor, Miss Bicknell.

During the business session of the club it was reported that the club had gotten the Mississippi Highway Department to put up hospital markers.

After the business part of the program everyone enjoyed the exchanging of gifts which Santa Claus distributed.

A delicious meal consisting of turkey and a full course dinner was served by the hostesses. The table was beautifully decorated with tiny reindeer and red carnations encircled with greenery. Arrangements of holly also added to the attractiveness of the room.

The meeting closed with singing Christmas carols.

James H. Odom, Jr. Honored With Party

Little James Hilliard Odom, Jr., was honored on his fifth birthday Wednesday, December 12th, with a party in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Odom. There were 24 of his little friends to attend this event. As the guests arrived they were each presented with a horn. The group then played games and sang songs.

Delicious refreshments consisting of birthday cake, and ice cream were served to the guests. They were also given little Christmas baskets containing a Santa Claus.

James Hilliard received many nice gifts. Balloons were given as favors.

The Christmas Story In Song

The First Noel the angel did say Was to certain poor shepherds in field where they lay;

It Came Upon The Midnight Clear,

That glorious song of old,

O Come, All Ye Faithful, joyful and triumphant, Come ye, O come ye to Bethlehem.

We Three Kings of Orient Are, Bearing gifts we traverse afar, Field and fountain, moor and mountain, Following yonder star.

O Little Town of Bethlehem, How still we see thee lie!

Silent Night, Holy Night, All is calm, all is bright 'Round yon Virgin Mother and Child.

Away In A Manger, No crib for His bed, The little Lord Jesus Laid down His sweet head.

Hark! The Herald Angels Sing—Glory to the new-born King!

Joy To The World! The Lord is come:

Let earth receive her King; Let ev'ry heart prepare Him room,—

And Heav'n and nature sing! —Arranged by Wallace Sherwood —The Growl

Mrs. J. M. Howard Entertains Club With Christmas Party

There was a feelings of Christmas in the air when the members of the Woman's club entered the home of Mrs. J. M. Howard on December 13th for their Christmas program.

The rooms were made festive with Christmas decorations.

During a brief business session two new members, Miss Elba Humphries and Miss Marion Bricknell were welcomed into the club.

Instead of gifts for each other the members contributed to a fund which will be used for gifts at Christmas time for some unfortunate children of the town.

Mrs. W. P. Taylor, Mrs. C. E. Patton and Mrs. W. T. Hand were responsible for a lovely program.

With Mrs. Taylor presiding, program was opened with the song "Silent Night," after which roll call was responded to with "Christmas Thoughts."

The Rev. A. B. Pierce, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Kosciusko, was then introduced and gave a very impressive talk on "The Origin of the Celebration of Christ's Birthday," giving the interpretation and history of the celebration of Christmas.

Then lovely young ladies, all members of the Y-Teen Club, which is directed by Miss Estelle Turner, dressed in their Y-Teen colors—white dresses with blue kerchiefs and sitting on the stairway which was decorated and lighted in Christmas colors, made a beautiful picture.

Accompanied by Mrs. James Bowie, these girls sang a group of Christmas carols which lifted the hearts of all who heard them.

During the social hour the hostess was assisted by Mrs. W. T. Hand, Mrs. C. E. Patton, with Mrs. J. E. Sweeney pouring coffee and special tea. The lace covered table centered with candles and a festive centerpiece, and the lovely little Christmas tree on the buffet made one realize that Christmas was drawing near.

Several kinds of delicious cookies, nuts and mints were enjoyed.

Guests for the meeting were as follows: Mrs. C. M. Day, Mrs. C. A. Knott, Mrs. A. E. Branch, Mrs. Albert Tatum, Mrs. F. C. Calender, Mrs. Foster McCullar, Mrs. Harry O'Cain, Mrs. Bob Clinton, Mrs. C. G. VanKeuren, Mrs. Louis Longinotti, Mrs. J. R. Cargill, Mrs. James Bowie, and the Rev. and Mrs. A. B. Pierce.

Miss Betty Jo McLellan, Miss Shirley Mitchell, Miss Dixie Winborn, Miss Bobby Jean Jones, Miss Edith Ann Moss, Miss Sally Branch, Miss Trudie Henry, Miss Joyce Hawthorne, Miss Shirley Leslie and Miss Joyce McBride.

We're wishing you a sprightly, happy time this Yuletide
