ADMINISTRATOR'S NOTICE.
NOTICE is hereby given, that at the September Term, A. D. 1852, of the Honorable Probate Court of Claiborne county, the undersigned, on the estate of Humphrey M. Posey, deceased.

All persons indebted to said estate, are hereby notified to make payment to the undersigned without delay, and those having claims against the same, are likewise notified to present the same duly authenticated, within the time prescribed by law, or they will be forever barred.

MARTIN O. HOPKINS, Adm'r.
Oct. 6, 1852.

THE STATE OF MISSISSIPPI.
CLAIROBONE COUNTY.
In Probate Court said County, at September Term, A. D. 1852.

To Charles Booth, Ward, and all other persons interested in the lands, tenements and hereditaments of said Ward.

YOU are hereby cited to be and appear before the Probate Court of Claiborne county, Mississippi, at a Term thereof to be held at the Court House, in and for said county, on the Fourth Monday of November next, and on the first day thereof, to show cause, if any you have, or can, why the prayer of the undersigned, guardian of the estate of Charles Booth, Ward, for an order to sell the following described lands, tenements and hereditaments, belonging to the estate of said Ward, to-wit:

Lot No. 1, in square No. 4, between Main Street and Broadway, in the town of Grand Gulf, should not be granted, and decree made thereon accordingly.

BEN. BOOTH,
October 6, 1852.—7-4t Guardian.

UNDERTAKER.
THE undersigned would respectfully inform the citizens of Claiborne county, that he is now prepared to answer all calls made upon him in the line, having procured a new and substantial hearse, and having considerable experience in conducting the funeral of the deceased, he feels confident of being able to render entire satisfaction. He would respectfully solicit a share of public patronage. Also, COFFINS made to order, and Burial Cases furnished.

The undersigned, having purchased the patent right to Claiborne county, is the only person legally and properly authorized to sell.

FISK'S PATENT METALLIC

Burial Cases.

A new article, which has already, in a great degree, taken the place of the ordinary Wooden Coffin, because of its capability of preserving the dead from decay, and its convenience, therefore, in the transportation of bodies for interment. This is a new article, worthy of attention. The undersigned invites the public to call at his shop, and examine the same. Persons ordering one of these Cases, will be particularly in noting the exact length of the deceased. The residence of the undersigned is on the north side of the Court House, and his shop one door south of the post office. He calls, night or day, and promptly attended to at short notice.

Best sugar-cured Hams,
Flour, fancy brands,
N. O. and sugar-house molasses,
Star and prunes candles,
Rio, Laguyra and Havana coffee,
Brown, clarified, crushed and loaf sugar,
Salt, coarse and fine,
Bacon, soda and butter crackers,
Pine-apple and western reserve cheese,
Winter strained lard,
Fresh almonds, pecans, and Brazil nuts,
Water-proof caps and gun powder,
Tobacco, best brands,
Tobacco, for plantation use,
Allspice, pepper, and ground ginger,
An assortment of tin and crockery ware,
50 kegs of nails,
No. 1 and 2 mackerel,
Toilet, castle and brown soaps,
Green and black teas,
Lobsters, salmon, sardines and pickles,
Custons and superior playing cards,
Brooms, horse and well buckets,
Milk pails and sieves, &c., &c.

LIQUORS.

J. B. & P. H. GORDON, and Jean Louis Brantley, American and peach brandies, Scotch and Irish Whiskies, Bourbon and Monongahela Whiskies, Rectified and common Whiskies, Champagne Wines, of best brands, in pints and quarts, Claret, of different brands in pints and quarts, Port, Sherry and Madeira Wines, Brown Stout, London and Scotch Ale, the Pratts from New York, the Irish Linens and Long Lawns from Glasgow and Dublin, the genuine Cloths of Saxony, and a thousand things of great beauty and utility, with which to intersperse a well regulated narrative for the juvenile's of a parent's evening.

But to be a little more practical, I will state, for the good of the country, more in detail of what we retail, in very large or smaller sizes, of very great variety and reduced prices; and though I may regret to say, I will sell my goods on twelve months' credit, at the end of which, the people "flush" will come and pay me with a rush; for none can feel so unconcerned, about their credit, as to fail to call on me, for fear of procrastination, to the hazard of their reputation.

Then gentlemen and ladies fair, bearken if you've time to spare, and hear of new goods rich and rare, received and being opened.

Of Cloths,
There's brown and black, and blue—yea cloths of almost every hue, from invisible green to London smoke, suited for coat, or pants, or cloak.

Of Cassimeres,
I've got just what you need, of mixed, and striped and excellent Tweed; for those exposed and named as sick, we've Cassimeres both strong and thick; for those who by fashion think we wear, have the beautiful Dookin—an article, I do expect sir, cannot be excelled in point of texture.

Of Vestings,
Finest Silks and solid Satins, of every variety of patterns, for weddings, parties, or the street, for gentlemen married, or less desired, whom I will furnish, from top to foot, with a cheap and charming wedding suit.

But, ladies! pardon this dereliction, and do not deem this all a fiction; for surely I am bound to furnish, from top to foot, with a cheap and charming wedding suit.

NEW GOODS!
Fall Goods!! Cheap Goods!!!

J. S. MASON,
CORNER OF MAIN AND BANK STS.
COMMERCE IS KING!

Hang the Banner upon the Outer Wall!
THE CRY IS, STILL THEY COME!

I AM daily receiving and opening my splendid stock of NEW GOODS, for the Fall and Winter trade, and I cheerfully and cordially invite all the merchants and the rest of the community to CALL AND SEE THEM. People who know the value of their money, will do well to call and see how VERY cheap goods can be had, and should they not conclude to purchase from me, they will be more thoroughly posted as to the value of all kinds of DOMESTIC and FANCY DRY GOODS. There are a multitude of reasons why people should closely and attentively examine my large and well selected stock of goods, connected with a safe, prudent and wholesome administration of the household government, not any one of which, in any wise conflicts with the resolution of '98 and '99; and while it is clearly demonstrated that the "obvious meaning and import" of this multitude of reasons, refers directly to the BEAUTY OF TEXTURE, RICHNESS OF STYLE, ELEGANCE OF PATTERN, SUPERIORITY OF FABRIC, and cheapness in price, of my goods, it will at the same time strike the mind of the observing economist, that a state of things combining a GREAT and DIVERSED supply, with EXCEEDINGLY LOW PRICES, must bring about a "consumption devotedly to be wished" in making the POOR MAN RICH and the RICH MAN OPULENT. And although I may seem to digress, I may be permitted to add that nothing would afford a better groundwork for an interesting winter night's entertainment, than for the kind mother, who is presumed to have examined our stock, to gather her little flock around the sparkling, happy, household hearth, and tell them of Mr. Mason's cheap and beautiful goods—the beautiful fabrics from Cashmere, the Crapes from Canton, in China, the Silks and Satins from France and Italy, the Ribbons and Laces from the gay and fashionable city of Lyons, the Merinos from France, England and Germany, the Chintzes from Paris, the Prints from New York, the Irish Linens and Long Lawns from Glasgow and Dublin, the genuine Cloths of Saxony, and a thousand things of great beauty and utility, with which to intersperse a well regulated narrative for the juvenile's of a parent's evening.

But to be a little more practical, I will state, for the good of the country, more in detail of what we retail, in very large or smaller sizes, of very great variety and reduced prices; and though I may regret to say, I will sell my goods on twelve months' credit, at the end of which, the people "flush" will come and pay me with a rush; for none can feel so unconcerned, about their credit, as to fail to call on me, for fear of procrastination, to the hazard of their reputation.
