STATE REVENUE AGT. STANDS PAT

Insurance Companies Will Not Write
New Policies, and Business Men Worry.

Jackson, Miss., Dec. 30.—Today has been devoted as was yesterday to a series of conferences between the insurance companies, bankers, merchants and other business men, at the State Revenue Agent Robertson, Insurance Commissioner P. M. Henry and others who are interested more or less in the insurance situation. The outlook is no brighter today than it was yesterday and there does not seem to be any hope of a settlement of the trouble that has been brought about by the filing of innumerable suits by the revenue agent against the fire insurance companies.

It is stated tonight that none of the conferences here today made any progress whatever towards the settlement. Many propositions have been submitted and all have been promptly rejected so that it does seem possible that the revenue agent and the attorneys for insurance companies will get together until the court has passed upon the legality of the state's anti-trust laws. Mr. Robertson, the revenue agent, was in conference for two hours this afternoon with prominent bankers and business men from over the state.

It is said that the revenue agent is simply standing by his guns firmly convinced that he is in the right and will not need to any request for a compromise or the withdrawal of his suit. This means of course, that the companies will not write any more business in Mississippi until the courts have settled the controversy, and just how the business men of Mississippi are going to get along without insurance even for two or three weeks is hard to see.

The case or cases are scheduled to come up before Chancellor Stricker next Monday, but the insurance companies have been given until January 15th, to file their answers to the allegations of the revenue agent and that means quite a delay. The idea is to get the case before the supreme court just as soon as the records of the chancery court can be prepared, and an early decision will be asked of that tribunal.

EPISCOPAL CHURCH.

Services at St. John's emfwymph New Years day, 10 a. m., Holy Communion, Sunday, 7:30 p. m. and 11 a. m., Holy Communion; 7 p. m. evening prayer. Monday 7:30 p. m., regular annual meeting of the whole congregation in the church.

REV. JOHN CHIPMAN.

A capacity filled audience attended the celebration of the solemnly beautiful mid-night mass on Christmas eve at Our Lady of Victories Catholic church, when Rev. Father B. O'Reilly was the celebrant. The choir assisted by a number of local singers, and flute, violin, cornet and trombone, rendered with exquisite charm Rosewig's beautiful mass. The church was decorated elaborately for the impressive occasion, and Father O'Reilly delivered an eloquent sermon during the services.

MEMORIES OF OLD PASCAGOULA.

By UNCLE MARTIN.

The Star of January 2, 1875, notes the killing of a gray eagle by Mr. E. Fairbanks at Americus on the 21st of December, 1874. It measured 7 feet from tip to tip of the wings.

The Star mentions this item in the February issue: "The Moss Point and Pascagoula Telegraph Company.—An act incorporating such a company has passed both houses of the legislature, making M. A. Dees and C. E. Payne and such other persons as may unite with them a body corporate to erect, maintain and operate a line from Moss Point to East Pascagoula and exempts them for ten years from the privilege tax imposed on other lines in the State."

In the same edition of the Star we excerpt the following news notes: "We are glad to see that work is resumed at Captain's Pol's shipyard. The schooner Molly Emma, Captain Nelson, was hauled out on the ways on Thursday, under the supervision of Mr. J. C. Valverde."

The Star on March 27th, 1875, has something further to report about shipbuilding: "Pascagoula had been actively engaged in barge building of late, and it shows that the demand for transportation for lumber is steadily on the increase. Last week four large barges, built for Messrs. Bercier and DeSmet by Mr. Tagert, were launched opposite the Company place below the railroad bridge. Mr. Pickett is building one at the head of "the lake" at the residence of Mr. H. M. Krebs, and Mr. Salter has commenced a very large one of 100,000 feet capacity for Mr. Frank Williams, near the former's residence. Certainly it is a worthy thing for us to build our own means of transportation and serve to an extent to keep our money at home, which is ever desirable and a practice which should uniformly be followed."

The Star of February 20th records a beautiful wedding thus: "On Saturday evening, 6th instant, we were complimented with an invitation to meet a few neighbors at the residence of Cadmus H. Alley, Esq., to witness the marriage ceremony of the niece of Mrs. Alley, Miss Mary Bilbo, with Mr. Leonard Sarriza of New Orleans. Rev. Father Wise performed the ceremony with the impressive rites of the Catholic church and took occasion to notify the young couple that the tie was regarded by the church as indissoluble, for better or for worse. Would that it was more generally so considered. The thoughtlessness with which the contract is entered into, and the ease with which the tie is severed by the law, is a disgrace to the age in which we live.

But, as in this instance—
"Happy they! the happiest of their kind!
When gentle stars unite, and in one fate
Their hearts, their fortunes, and their being's blend.
"After the ceremony the little company gathered around a generous table where the health and prosperity of the happy couple were often pledged. They left on the 7 o'clock train for New Orleans."

Mr. T. W. Sharp, wife and baby are enjoying the holidays with Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Sharp in Buena Vista street. Mr. Sharp is the youngest son of this esteemed couple.

MASONS INSTALL.

Gulf Lodge No. 419 A. F. & A. M. and Pascagoula Chapter O. E. S. held joint installation exercises at their hall on Monday evening of this week. Following installation ceremonies the lodge members, their families and invited guests enjoyed a sumptuous luncheon.

"THE HUSBAND HUNTER."

Eileen Percy in her second William Fox production, a breezy society comedy, "The Husband Hunter," adapted from F. Scott Fitzgerald's popular Saturday Evening Post story, "Myra Meets His Family," is announced for presentation at the Warfield theatre next Wednesday.

Miss Percy, who scored an instantaneous success in her first Fox production as a star, "Her Honor the Mayor," enacts the role of Myra Hastings, a young girl who sets out to marry a young man whom she never has met. The young man is tipped off as to Myra's intention by a friend, and together they concoct a scheme whereby they expect to teach the "husband hunter" a sound lesson in the art of "pursuing men."

The picture abounds in scheming funny situations and Miss Percy's work in the role of Myra Hastings is said to be delightfully artistic. Howard M. Mitchell directed the production and Emory Johnson, Jane Miller, Harry Dunkinson, Evans Kirk, Edward McWade and John Stepling comprise the supporting cast.

MAKING MONEY FLY.

Making money fly is all right, provided it flies to a purpose and collects interest on the way.

But too many people forget the purpose and lose the interest. It requires time, energy and perseverance to earn money, but it needs only a moment of foolishness to make it fly.

At the beginning of a new year of uncertainty it might be well for us to take a few of these little lessons to heart.

The mightiest of trees spring from little roots, but each year they grow, and thrive, until in time they become giants of the forests. They never fly.

The greatest of fortunes found their inception in humble beginnings. There was much saving, but no flying.

The prosperity of this community depends upon its productiveness and the ability of its people to save.

Saving is a little word, but it is the cornerstone upon which every giant commercial enterprise is reared.

The wise man spends without stint for that which he needs, but he regulates his requirements to allow for a liberal amount of systematic saving. People who save not in youth have not in old age. Where the inclination is lacking no incentive exists, and without an incentive there is little future to life.

Work, save, and you will always have.
Make it fly, and you will soon be in want.

The lovely home of Mr. and Mrs. V. P. DeJean was the scene of one of the loveliest of the holiday social affairs for the young people on Thursday evening, when they entertained a number of the college set at a delightful dance complimentary to their attractive young guest, Miss Blanchard of Houston, Texas, who is spending the holidays with them. The attractive home was beautifully decorated with the bright holiday evergreen and flowers, and victrola music furnished the inspiration for the dancers. Delicious refreshments were served during the pleasant evening.

Mrs. M. A. Farnsworth and Miss Anne Farnsworth returned Monday to their home at New Orleans after spending Christmas here with Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Martin and family.

Married—Wednesday afternoon, Dec. 29, at the Baptist parsonage, Rev. B. C. Cook officiating, Miss May C. Cox to Mr. Warren A. Glover. Both are from Chicago.

METHODIST CHURCH.

Christmas has come and gone, but is not forgotten by any means. Our Christmas began on Wednesday, Dec. 22, and has continued until now, and we do not know how long it is to continue. Last Wednesday evening we were treated to a surprise party at the parsonage. The people began to come in early and kept coming in with good things to eat until the table was filled, and this procedure through Christmas Eve. Many thanks to the good people of Pascagoula for their kindness to the preacher and his family. Surely no preacher has a better or more appreciative people than the writer. We pray God's heavenly benedictions upon all, and wish each and every one a happy and prosperous New Year.

Sunday morning service, Jan. 2nd, "God and the World's Pain." Sunday evening at 7:30, subject, "Repentance." Sunday school led by Horace Hinds. You will be missed and will miss something if you fail to attend these services.
